No Military Posts on the Yellowstone.

So Says the Country's Economical House.

The Senate as a Court of Impeachment Adjourns to July Sixth.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The senate insisted upon its amendment to the post office appropriation bill, and agreed to a conference. Messrs. West, Hamlin and Davis were appointed on the part of the senate.

Belknap's impeachment articles were then considered and after a statement from Mr. Lord that the managers were divided on the question of authority of the senate to sit for trial during recess, the senate went into secret session on the question of postponing the trial till November.

A motion of Mr. Howe to reconsider the vote by which the doors were reclosed was rejected, 24 to 19.

On motion of Mr. Thurman, the application of respondent for a postponement was overruled. On motion of Mr. Edmunds the senate sitting as a court of impeachment then proceeded to consider the question of filing the paper read Friday by Judge Black, counsel for defense, adopted on the 6th instant, which paper Judge Black requested to have it placed on file.

Sherman submitted the following: Ordered, That the paper presented by the defendant on the 16th inst., be filed in the cause, and the defendant having failed to answer to its merits within 10 days allowed by the order of the senate, of the sixth inst., trial shall proceed on the sixth of July next, as upon a plea of not guilty.

Mr. Thurman moved to amend the order by inserting the word "not," so as to read, "be not filed." Rejected. Yeas 24, nays 26. The question necessarily on the order of Sherman, the house demanded a division of the order, and the question being on the first clause thereof, viz: Ordered, That the paper presented by the defendant on the 16th inst., be filed in this cause.

The vote resulted, yeas 23, nays 24.

On the second clause Mr. Allison moved to make it read, "13th of November," instead of "6th of July." Rejected, 37 to 9.

Mr. Frelinghuysen moved to add the words, "while congress is in session." Agreed to.

The motion to lay second clause on table, was rejected. The second clause was then agreed to.

After the motion to provide for the attendance of witnesses had been adopted, the senate sitting as court, adjourned till July 6th.

Adjourned.

COX, SPEAKER PRO TEM.

Mr. Randall offered a resolution appointing Mr. Cox speaker pro tem, in the absence of the speaker, which was adopted.

The house went into committee of the whole, Mr. Blackburn in the chair, on the army appropriation bill.

Mr. Thornburg offered an amendment appropriating $200,000 for the construction of two military posts in the Yellowstone region; and providing that all existing military posts which shall be thus rendered unnecessary, shall be abandoned. Adopted.

After completing the bill, the committee rose and reported the bill to the house. The house refused to agree to the amendment of Thornburg, and it was struck from the bill. The bill then passed.

Mr. Lord obtained consent to withdraw the resolution, providing that congress meet November next, in order to proceed with the Belknap trial.

The house went into committee of the whole and discussed the joint resolution providing for a commission to frame a suitable government for the District of Columbia. The committee rose and reported a bill and resolution to the house, which they passed. Adjourned.

The Famous Caldwell Dispatch a Forgery.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The W. U. Telegraph Co., produced some telegrams before the house judiciary committee to-day. From these it appears that the celebrated exculpatory dispatch from Josiah Caldwell to Mr. Knott about Blaine, was sent to Caldwell from Washington with a request to cable it immediately to the chairman of the house judiciary committee.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—A Washington dispatch to the Evening Telegraph, says it can be stated on unquestionable authority, that the cable telegram purporting to have been sent by Caldwell from London, was never seen by him, although actually sent from London with his name as the signature. It is not certain the thing started from New York, but it is pretty certain it passed over the wires from New York having been started from that city or Baltimore or Philadelphia. It was embraced in a cable telegram sent from the starting point on this side of the Atlantic, to an assumed address in London, which had been agreed upon previously, probably through the agency of the cable, and the exact words were then sent back to this country by the confederate in London in pursuance of instructions he had received.

DISPATCHES TO CALDWELL.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The following telegram was produced by the Western Union Co. before the judiciary committee, the first being from Robinson former chief engineer of the Little Rock road.

WASHINGTON, May 26, 1876.

Josiah Caldwell, 115 Cannon Street, London.

See Scott's testimony in the papers of the 16th. Telegraph Scott, Philadelphia, as you truthfully can, the strongest indorsement of his statement.

A. P. ROBINSON.

[Telegram No. 2.]

WASHINGTON, June 19, 1876.

Josiah Caldwell, Turnbridge Wells, London.

Don't permit newspaper men and others to interview you. R.

[Telegram No. 3.]

WASHINGTON, June 7, 1876.

Josiah Caldwell, Turnbridge Wells, London.

If false, authorize me to deny that you paid Blaine.

SICKLES.

St. James Hotel, care of Mr. Be-nickie.

Above dispatch brought out Caldwell's reply to Sickles.

[Telegram 4.]

Received at W. U. building, Broadway and Dey street, May 31, 1876.

Josiah Caldwell, Cannon Street, London.

Thanks for your cable confirming all my statements.

SCOTT.

Received at W. U. building, Broadway and Dey street, May 31, 1876. Favor, London.

Dispatch received.

Cable this immediately to chairman of the house judiciary committee at Washington.

Have just received Scott's evidence about our bond transaction in New York newspapers, and fully corroborate it. I never gave Blaine any Little Rock bonds directly or otherwise. Am now building three European railroads and cannot leave without great pecuniary loss, or would gladly, voluntarily come home and testify. Can make affidavit to that effect, and mail it if desired. Not signed.

[Telegram 6.]

Received at W. U. building, Broadway and Dey street, May 31, 1876. Favor, London.

Cable: Nobody except Scott.

T. S. R.

Phila.

The testimony of Hicks was mainly in explanation of the operator's marks on the above dispatches produced by him. The only important point in it was, that the word Favor was the registered address of Josiah Caldwell in London. He knew it from the fact that the office was so notified by an official dispatch from the other side. He could not give the date of that notification; but he thought it somewhere about the 24th of May last.

A LETTER FROM CALDWELL CORROBORATING THE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Mr. Blaine received by mail of this morning a letter from Josiah Caldwell, of which the following is a true copy: No. 115, CANNON STREET, LONDON, June 8, 1876.

Hon. J. G. Blaine.

DEAR SIR: I read in the New York papers of the 16th ult., Col. Scott's evidence before the congressional committee, and I at once called him as follows: "Thos. A. Scott, Philadelphia.—Your statement before the congressional committee relating to Fort Smith railroad bonds, which you purchased of me, is perfectly correct. I can more fully substantiate it if necessary. I have also called the chairman of the judiciary committee as follows: I have just read in the New York papers Scott's evidence about our bond transactions, and can fully corroborate it. I never gave Blaine any Fort Smith railroad bonds directly or otherwise.

I have three foreign railway contracts upon my hands which makes it impossible for me to leave without great pecuniary loss, and I would gladly, voluntarily come home and testify. Can make affidavit to that effect and mail it if desired. I am sorry that I am not able to go personally before the committee and give my testimony; but I presume that Col. Scott's evidence will be sufficient to prove that you had nothing to do with the transaction in question. If you wish for any further testimony or affidavit from me to prove the facts as cabled to the committee, I shall be glad to forward it under oath. The charges are so void of foundation that I have no fear of their doing you any permanent injury and hope that your persecutors will be able to show as clear a record as yours in connection with Little Rock railway.

Yours faithfully, J. CALDWELL.

BATON ROUGE, La., June 19.—The disturbances reported as a riot, occurred at Mt. Pleasant, near Port Gibson, on Saturday. It Stopped the Cough and Saved the Child.

We have recently had occasion to try the virtue of Hale's Cough Cordial in our family. A little son, six with the prevailing fever was struck with the most distressing cough, which gave him no rest, night or day. We have little faith in "patent" medicines, and seldom much as try them; but something had to be done, as the constant cough prevented his recovery. We accordingly procured a bottle of the Cordial from the agent, and commenced its use according to directions. The child was marked from the very first, and the child that night enjoyed a restful sleep, and by the next night there was scarce a vestige of the cough left. It is a fair sample of what the medicine will do. Its growth in popularity is not to be wondered at.—Weeks' Free Press.
