A Discussion in the Senate Respecting Economy Generally.

The Naval Appropriation Bill Passed by the Senate.

The House Agrees to the Senate Amendments to the Silver Bill.

Consideration of the Sundry Civil Bill by the House.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—During the morning hour several bills of minor importance passed, and the consideration of the naval appropriation bill was resumed.

Mr. Sargent said the bill reported by the committee increased the house bill $3,656,000 a decrease compared with the appropriation bill of the present fiscal year, of $892,016. Additions had been avoided when possible. The bill, as it came from the house, didn't reduce the number of officers nor their pay, but it appropriated liberally for their compensation. He showed why certain additions were necessary.

Mr. Thurman took the floor and spoke in favor of economy, in view of the apparent deficiency of $16,000,000 for the coming fiscal year. Congress must either economize or levy more taxes, for borrowing more money would be disgraceful. He thought the number of appointments at West Point should be reduced. He opposed striking out the provision of the house bill in regard to supplying laborers for the navy yards at certain times of the year, because it was notorious that men were kept and paid in the navy yards until after the elections.

The senate should meet the house half way in making reductions. If these should be a dead lock on the appropriation bills, the senate would not be free from responsibility.

Mr. Sargent defended the action of the committee, and replied to Thurman's argument, and specially denied that men were congregated in the navy yards about election time for political purposes, but November to December was the best time for the work. He would not say the republican party was immaculate in every respect, or that the democratic party was diabolical in every respect. His friend, Thurman, aspired to be president, and if a democratic administration was to come in, he, Sargent, would be glad to see him elected. He had no doubt his administration would be an honest one.

Mr. Sargent moved to reconsider the vote by which the other appropriations of the bill had been incurred and said if he could not rely upon his republican friends to stand by the bill, he would accept the bill as it came from the house.

Mr. Edmunds justified himself for voting in the negative on the ground of expediency in these minor matters. Mr. Sherman spoke in favor of re-employment and Sargent withdrew his motion.

Mr. Edmunds moved an amendment that no increase in force should be made in any navy yard within 60 days prior to any election for president of the U. S. or member of congress except when the secretary of the navy shall certify that the public service needs an increase; such certificate to be immediately published in the public press.

The bill was then reported to the senate, and the amendments made in a committee were concurred in. Mr. Edmunds gave notice that he would to-morrow call up the bill to the senate.

The banking committee agreed to a senate amendment to the silver bill striking out the word "and" from the clause which restricted the issue of coin to such as is now in the treasury, but they failed to recommend non-concurrence in the senate amendment providing that the trade dollar shall no longer be a legal tender.

that if that provided by them was not sufficient revenue to pay interest at the time it come due that the secretary of the treasury should advance the amount necessary, and reimburse the treasury from the district revenues afterwards. This amendment was agreed to.

The senate amendments to the Indian appropriation bill were non-concurred in a conference ordered.

Messrs. Randall, Sparks and Hurlburt were appointed on the part of the house.

The house went into committee of the whole on the sundry civil appropriation bills.

Mr. Caulfield's amendment to insert the item of a quarter million for the Chicago custom house and post-office was rejected. Various other amendments were rejected and the committee rose and at 11 o'clock adjourned.

DEMOCRACY.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 22.—The democratic state convention met to-day in the new state house. There was a large attendance of delegates and others.

Hon. A. G. Barr, of Green county, was made temporary chairman, and E. H. Snively, of Macoupin, temporary secretary.

After the appointment of committees on credentials, permanent organization, resolutions, and to select delegates at large, a recess was taken till 2 p. m., when the convention re-assembled.

A resolution providing that all resolutions presented to the convention should be referred to the committee on resolutions was adopted.

P. H. Smith, of Cook county, asked leave to read the following telegram from Stanton Marble, of New York, but leave was not granted:

Perry H. Smith:

Your telegram has been shown me. Gov. Tilden was not chairman of the platform committee of the Chicago national convention in 1864. James Guthrie, of Kentucky, was. Gov. Tilden opposed in committee that portion of the resolutions saying "after four years of failure to preserve the Union by war, &c. He got it struck out, and even refused to agree to the resolution as amended. It was then irregularly re-taken. Gov. Tilden at all stages refused to agree to the resolution, and sent a message by me to Gen. McClellan, advising him to discard it in his letter of acceptance. Gov. Tilden, moreover, made a speech in the New York delegation against an armistice, which was briefly reported by me in the New York World, and is correctly printed in the Courier-Journal. I was personally present in the New York delegation, in all the meetings of the committee in the reporting room.

His report of the committee on credentials was objected to on the ground of alleged irregularity of representation in the third district, but the report was adopted.

The committee on permanent organization reported as follows: President, Hon. H. G. Burr; secretary, E. S. Newins, of Macoupin; assistant secretary, W. S. Searly, of Will; W. R. Ross, of Fayette.

The committee to appoint delegates to the national convention reported.

The report of the committee was adopted.

The following delegates at large were appointed: J. Allen, F. H. Winston, C. L. Highest, Chas. Dugan.

Alternate—Gen. C. Black, Jas. C. Allen, W. W. O'Brien, Thomas S. Bovy.

The committee on resolutions reported the following, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, the convention is called for the single purpose of selecting delegates to the national democratic convention, to be held five days hence at St. Louis, and

WHEREAS, another state convention is to be held for the purpose of selecting candidates for state officers and electors of president and vice president of the United States; therefore

Resolved, That it is the unanimous sense of this committee that no resolutions should be adopted by this convention at this time.

Phillips, of Brown, offered a resolution instructing delegates to use all honorable efforts against the adoption of the two-thirds rule, which was read by the secretary and referred to the committee on resolutions under the rule.

The convention then adjourned sine die.

POLITICAL.

INDIANA.

ANDERSON, Ind., June 22.—The sixth district congressional republican convention at Greenfield to-day, nominated Hon. Milton S. Robinson for re-election.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

St. Louis, June 22.—But comparatively few delegates to the national democratic convention have arrived yet, and there is really nothing to report directly touching the struggle between aspirants for the nomination. No state delegation is yet here except that of California. Hon. Montgomery Blair, Senator Doolittle and a number of prominent gentlemen from Indiana are among the arrivals. Hendricks' headquarters will be at the Southern hotel.

The most of the New Yorkers so far arrived seem to be opposed to Tilden, and assert he is about the least available man among the aspirants for the nomination. They say he has lost strength and influence in New York, and that he cannot carry the state, while Hendricks, Bayard or almost any other good man can.

The merchants vacated the hall to-day, after "Change, that it might be put in order for the convention. The hall will seat 5,000 people, including the delegates. There will be accommodations for about one hundred and fifty reporters at the tables, and a space for perhaps fifty more will be provided, but without writing facilities. The telegraphic facilities of the Western Union Company will be equal to almost any emergency. Twenty-five or thirty wires will be run into the hall, and there will be ample accommodations for reporters.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The republican mass meeting, last night, to ratify the Cincinnati ticket was a large and enthusiastic meeting. It was addressed by Hon. T. G. Phelps, Hon. Theo. F. Fitch, Gov. Woods, Ex-Senator Stewart, and other speakers who paid an earnest tribute to the characters of the nominees of the convention and warmly endorsed the platform. A motion was enthusiastically received to invite Blaine to visit California during the campaign, and every reference to him was greeted with sounds of applause.

MAINE STATE TICKET.

BANGOR, Maine, June 22.—The republican state convention to-day heartily applauded Blaine, and unanimously commended his appointment to the U. S. senate, vice Morrill. A message was read from Mr. Blaine saying that every effort must be made to give Gov. Connor an old-fashioned majority in September. Maine must lead the way for the triumphant election of Hayes and Wheeler. Gov. Connor was renominated. W. W. Thomas of Portland, and N. A. Farwell, of Rockland, were nominated presidential electors at large.

The resolution endorsing Blaine for the senate closes thus: "Massachusetts will please take notice."

Resolutions were also adopted accepting the Cincinnati candidates and platform, and thanking the republicans of other states for their enthusiastic support of Blaine, and reaffirming adherence to prohibition.

REPUBLICANS IN HOUSTON.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 22.—Gen. Morton C. Hunter, the present incumbent, was not nominated for congress by the republicans of the eighth district to-day.

KANSAS.

ST. LOUIS, June 22.—The republicans of the second congressional district of Kansas, in convention at Fort Scott yesterday, nominated D. C. Haskell for congress.

THE SCALPERS.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Steps were taken here to-day to reorganize the scalpers of 1864, under the name of

SCALPERS.

A name suggested by Gov. Hayes in letter in 1864, in which he said any man who leaves the army to go home to electioneering for congress, should be scalped. The uniform will be of enameled cloth of continental style.

ILLINOIS.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 22.—At a meeting of the democratic central committee held this evening, the state convention to nominate a state ticket was called to meet here the 27th day of July next.

WASHINGTON.

THE BANKERS BEFORE CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—A delegation of the bankers' convention, in session here, appeared before the committee on banking and currency this morning, and explained how the banks were injuriously affected by the present taxes on capital and deposits. The committee asked for a uniform tax on the par value of stocks throughout the United States, and that surplus capital should be exempt from taxation as surplus, to invite confidence and strengthen the banks. Representative Payne said no legislation was now contemplated on the subject of taxation. The committee would, however, be pleased to receive any suggestions, as legislation might be had at the next session of Congress.

NOMINATIONS.

The president nominated W. J. Hoppin to be secretary of legation at London, and James Day, of New Jersey, second secretary, and George H. Fisher, United States district attorney of Delaware.

BLAINE WORSE.

Mr. Blaine has not been so well since Monday. His speech to the senators greatly exhausted him, and he has grown weaker every day since. For the past two days he has suffered greatly from exhaustion, and has been confined to his bed. His physicians say he is suffering from extreme nervous exhaustion and from severe malarial poisoning, and recommend absolute rest for several weeks.

INVESTIGATING THE NAVY.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—J. O. Bradford testified to-day before the naval committee concerning his transactions as disbursing agent for the navy in 1872 and 1873 that he had deposited with Jay Cooke & Co. 100,000 pounds, by order of the secretary of the navy, thus preventing the destruction of the fund and protecting Emerson's interests.

CONFIRMATIONS.

The senate confirmed the nominations of Jas. A. Williams, of Iowa, to be commissioner of the general land office, vice S. B. Burdett resigned; W. J. Hoppin, of New York, secretary of legation, London, vice Wickham Hoffman, resigned; Jas. Day, of New Jersey, second secretary of legation, London, vice Wm. H. Chesbrough.

CHARGE OF DEPARTMENT COMMANDERS.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—An order has been issued by the secretary of war relieving Genl. Schofield from the command of the military division of the Pacific, and assigning him to the command of the West Point military academy, relieving Col. Ruger.

Genl. McDowell will take command of the military division of the Pacific. The division of the south will be discontinued. The department of the south will be under the command of Col. Ruger.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HIS WIFE ACCUSES HIM.

LOWELL, Mass., June 22.—At a business meeting of the Second Advent church last night, Mrs. Bell Place, wife of the pastor, charged him with adultery, abuse and lying. The committee waited upon him, and he confessed the truth of the charges, and to-day resigned his pastorate and Christian ministry.

DOM PEDRO.

PHILADELPHIA, June 22.—Dom Pedro and suite visited the University of Pennsylvania to-day. The party will spend a few days visiting the Lehigh coal region.

HANGERS.

CLEVELAND, O., June 22.—Wm. Addin, who killed his wife, step-daughter and Miss Benton last December, was hanged to-day. He maintained to the last that the deed was not premeditated.

TOO BARE TO LIVE.

LOUISVILLE, June 22.—Another negro was arrested at Clarksville to-day and confessed that he had killed the switch last week causing the destruction of the train on the Louisville & Great Southern Railroad, and seriously injuring James Hammett, of the Kentucky. Hammett has been in the habit of carrying money to say to plunder injured passengers.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 22.—The first Hayes and Wheeler club was formed to-night. Membership over 800. Col. Horace Scott was elected president.

WALKING.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—O'Leary jumped the track this morning, having accomplished but two hundred and seven miles. Amateurs retired this evening with a sport of three hundred and fifty-one.

BRISTOW AND THE WHISKY RING.

Whisky dealers, distillers and others, more or less intimately connected with the whisky ring, express undignified satisfaction at Bristow's resignation and seem hopeful that it will be followed by the removal of a number of special treasury agents who have been active in unearthing frauds on the revenue. Custom house officials are also reported in improved spirits. Special Agent Mills, of that department started east to-day.

FIRES.

DETROIT, June 22.—J. W. Sheldon's mills at Archison, burned to-day. Loss, $15,000, insured.

BASE BALL.

BEECHER'S SALARY.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher's salary, as pastor of Plymouth church was last night fixed at $20,000.

FOREIGN.

EXTRADITION.

LONDON, June 22.—The Telegraph supports Lord Derby's position on the extradition question, and says it is better that there be no treaty than that England should yield to any power her immemorial right to know upon what ground and for what offense the meanest refugee is surrendered from her soil.
