TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 24.—At 8 o'clock, Dick Henderson, sheriff, entered the jail to lock up the prisoner, when he was attacked by Osborn, a prisoner confined for murder, with a small billy made of wood. The sheriff grasped the prisoner and the two struggled to the outside of the jail. Another prisoner escaped during the struggle. The sheriff held to the prisoner till the crowd of citizens came to his assistance. The citizens got a cotton rope from an awning and immediately hung the prisoner to a locust tree near by until he was dead. He begged for a respite and for a priest, but was told there was no time. The murderer was a desperate man.

THE GREAT UNTERRIFIED.

The Democratic Clans Assembling at St. Louis.

The Ohio Delegation Favor Fog Horn Allen as a First Choice.

A Bitter Feeling of Hostility Toward Tilden from the N. Y. Delegates.

The Democratic Convention.

ST. LOUIS, June 23.—A part of the Nevada delegation arrived last night. It is unpledged, but the members of it are for Tilden, Hancock and Hendricks. They say they have many favorites in and west of the mountains, but there seems to be a general preference for Tilden, he being regarded as most likely to carry the democratic party to victory.

All the delegations from the Pacific slope seem anxious to have the Chinese emigration question discussed, and there will no doubt be an effort made to incorporate into the platform of the convention a plank on this subject. Individual members desire an acknowledgment that the people of the Pacific states are right in their opposition to Mongolian immigration.

A small part of the Ohio delegation has also arrived. The delegation is instructed for Allen, but members here say they would accept Thurman and perhaps Hendricks, although they do not consider him a strong candidate. He could hardly carry Ohio, or any other thoroughly sound man and sterling democrat. There seems to be a very strong objection to Tilden among the delegates, yet under certain circumstances they would no doubt vote for him.

Hancock is considered a weak candidate and hardly to be thought of, and some of them fear the nomination of Hendricks would be the precursor of a democratic Waterloo.

Delegates have been arriving from every state to-day. But few delegations have arrived. Consequently it is difficult to ascertain the real position that different states will take in the convention. A prominent delegate from Michigan says the delegation is not instructed, but will vote for the best interests the party seems to demand. It is claimed, however, that eighteen of the twenty-two delegates are for Tilden, and it is probable the state will be united on him. Most of the Indiana delegates have arrived, and they all express a preference for Hendricks. They will not hear to any proposition looking to Gov. Hendricks having the second place on the ticket with Tilden.

Three-fifths of the Pennsylvania delegation are for Hendricks, two for Tilden. The remainder are for Hancock, who will support Hendricks in case Hancock cannot be nominated. It is now claimed that Illinois will give twenty-seven votes for Hancock, eleven for Tilden, and four for Davis, and the Hendricks men claim that the Davis vote will go to them ultimately. A prominent member of this delegation states that he intends to make a speech in the convention and bring charges against Tilden of a very damaging character. He says Tilden does not deserve the respect of the nation, and is anything but a reformer.

The Maine, New Jersey and Georgia delegations arrived this morning, and others will come in this afternoon and evening. There have also arrived some seventy gentlemen from Arkansas, who will hold a meeting or sit in the convention here and elect delegates to the national convention.

The Tammanyites are united for the defeat of Tilden at all hazards, and assert that he can't carry New York, and that his nomination will defeat the party. Morrissey and his friends, on the other hand, contend that Tilden's reform record will enable him to sweep New York by a larger majority than ever, as well as New Jersey. With these two states and Connecticut the democrats think they can concede the doubtful western states to the republicans and still win a victory.

The New Jersey delegates are a unit for ex-Gov. Parker. There has been some talk about a compromise to-day, and among those most prominently named is Henry B. Payne, of Ohio. Senator Kernan, of New York, was serenaded to-night and made a speech advocating the nomination of a man who can wrest the government from the party of corruption, and place it in the hands of those who will administer it in the interest of honesty, reform and justice to all.

The New York delegation to-night elected Senator Kernan chairman. A prominent incident of the day was the public opening of Forest park. A statue of Edward Bates, a distinguished citizen of Missouri, and a member of Lincoln's cabinet, was unveiled and addresses made by Lieut. Gov. Dorsbeler, Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, and others.

All but four of the Ohio delegation are here and are a unit for Allen, who, they say, can carry the state against Hayes. The probabilities are that when the delegation leaves Allen they will go to Hancock. It is believed that Allen can carry New York and Indiana, and perhaps Wisconsin. The southern sentiment is emphatically against Tilden. Some of the delegates say the country will be disappointed and the result disastrous if the convention does not put a republican plank in the platform, and on this issue they believe they can carry Ohio with any acceptable democrat. Calculations made by persons who claim to be advised give Tilden 404 votes on the first ballot. Under the two-thirds rule, it will require 492 votes to elect.

POLITICAL.

ANY ONE BUT TILDEN.

PEORIA, Ill., June 24.—The National Democrat says editorially that the nomination of Tilden will give Hayes a majority of 30,000 in Illinois. Give us Davis! give us Doolittle! give us Hendricks, and we will carry thirty congressional districts, make Logan step down and out of the senate, and cast our entire vote on the side of honesty, reform and good government.

HAYES.

FREMONT, Ohio, June 24.—A reception, this evening, was tendered Gov. Hayes by the citizens of Fremont, irrespective of party. It was the grandest affair that was ever witnessed in this city. The governor arrived at 6:40 p. m., and was met at the depot by the mayor, city officials, reception committees, Light Guard band, and thousands of people, and escorted to his residence. At eight o'clock he was escorted to the court house park, where speeches were made by Mayor Dickson and others, after which the procession formed and marched through the principal streets to his residence. Everybody spoke in glowing terms of the speech of Gov. Hayes. The city was beautifully illuminated.

Dubuque, Ia., June 24.—A large and enthusiastic Hayes and Wheeler meeting was held in this city to-night. Mr. Woodruff, of the Times, presided. Speeches were made by Judge D. S. Wilson, Col. D. E. Lyon, Rev. J. H. Rhen, and Dr. E. A. Guilbert.

RATIFYING.

CINCINNATI, June 24.—The republican ratification meeting at Exposition Hall was largely attended. Ex-Governor Noyes in speaking of Hayes says he is in full sympathy with the spirit of reform and under his administration thieves and rascals will not grow rich.

In speaking of civil service reform, Bristow said the convention has given us a simple and easy method of reforming our civil service, which is neither more nor less than the practical application of a rule which works so well in private life, that every man should mind his own business, and leave others to do the same. The platform pledges the party to a speedy, thorough and unsparing prosecution and punishment of all public officers who betray official trust. Bristow strongly endorsed the non-sectarian sentiment as expressed in the platform. In speaking of the ticket he said no names better calculated to insure success could have been placed on it. No language I can use is too strong to express my confidence in the patriotism, purity and trustworthiness of the men.

Letters and telegrams were read by the chairman from Senator Morton, Gen. Harlan, Senator Sherman, G. W. Curtis and others, all endorsing the nomination.

LATER.

Gov. Noyes was followed by Ex-Secretary Bristow, who was received by the greatest enthusiasm, the audience rising to their feet and cheering several minutes. Mr. Bristow said the great outpouring of people to-night testified to the fact that the republican convention did its work wisely. The platform is one upon which any patriotic citizen may safely stand. It commits the republican party squarely to the resumption of specie payment.

SENATE.
WASHINGTON, June 24.—Mr. Allison gave notice that he would on Monday call up the house bill for the support of the army for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1877.

Mr. Ferry submitted an amendment to the sundry civil bill, making appropriations to build light houses and fog signals at Starnard's Rock, Lake Superior.

Mr. Wright, of Iowa, called up the house bill for the allowance of certain claims reported by the accounting officers of the treasury, when verbal amendments were agreed to, and the bill passed.

On motion of Mr. Bogy, the house bill for the issue of coin was made a special order for Monday at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Caperton was appointed a member of the conference committee on the Indian appropriation bill, in place of Ransom, excused.

Mr. Paddock called up the bill reported by him on the 25th of May, to restore the franking privilege, so as to have it come up as unfinished business on Monday.

The senate then went into executive session, and when the doors were opened adjourned.

HOUSE.
In addition to the proceedings yesterday we have the following on the sundry civil bill:

The amendment for appropriations for western rivers was agreed to and the bill soon afterwards passed, and the house at 2:25 this morning adjourned.

The house met at noon to-day, and in the absence of the speaker and speaker pro tem, elected Saylor temporary speaker, and adjourned.

The following resolution was reported, after which Mr. Holman offered the same resolution with the exception of the use of Saylor's name in place of his own, which was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That Hon. W. S. Holman, a representative of the state of Indiana, be the speaker pro tem of this house during the present absence of the speaker and of the speaker pro tem heretofore elected by the house. Saylor was not in the hall and after a few moments the clerk entertained and put a motion to adjourn which was carried.
