The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows Meets In Baltimore.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury In the Iowa Railroad Disaster.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE R. R. COMPANY CLEARED.
Des Moines 14, Sept. 17.—The coroner's jury this morning rendered a verdict on the Little Four Mile creek disaster, after an examination extending over seventeen days, and the hearing of nearly fifty witnesses, including engineers of the best talent and practical skill. The jury find that the culvert was of sufficient capacity to pass the water, of what have heretofore been known as our greatest storms or rainfalls; that the material used in its construction was of good quality, and the workmanship was a fair job of second class masonry; that owing to the sudden and unprecedented flood rise, the morning of August 29th, 1877, the existence of wing walls would not have prevented the destruction of the culvert, and from the testimony of witnesses residing near the scene of the late wreck, and the testimony of engineers and conductors who had passed over the culvert during the night, and only a short time previous to the disaster, together with the testimony of the conductor and fireman who were on the fated train, that William Pakestraw could not have realized the character and terrible severity of the storm, which was the primal and responsible cause of the accident. Therefore, the victims of the disaster came to their death by means of the cars being precipitated into the chasm, caused by the washing out of the culvert, and blame cannot be attached to the company. An examination of the extensive and clear evidence before the jury shows the strong weight of it to be in full support of this verdict.

DEDICATION AND ACCIDENT.
Boston, September 17.—The dedication of the monument to-day to the memory of soldiers who fell during the rebellion is the occasion for a general holiday and the largest procession this city ever witnessed. Five tiers of seats extending the whole length of the square from the fence on Washington street fell with hundreds of occupants. The following are known to be injured, receiving fractures of limbs, &c.: Mrs. Ellen M. Crowley, Jackson E. Hall, Henry Clinton O'Brien, Mrs. N. Apolloni, Miss Belle Bartlett, Chas. W. Sullivan, Mrs. Hannah Buckley.

NEW YORK.
CLOSED.
New York, Sept. 17.—The Evening Post says the Clearmont savings bank on Greenwich street has been closed by the state bank department, because it has been combining a general banking business with its regular savings business, contrary to law.

DENYING TWEED'S TESTIMONY.
New York, Sept. 17.—The editor of the Commercial, whose name Tweed mentioned in his testimony on the charter of 1870, says a republican senator caucused upon it and it passed the senate and assembly, after which the bill was taken in charge by Tweed's confidential clerk and carried to the Delavan house, where it was doctored to suit the purpose of the ring and then sent to the governor in the regular way. If Mr. Cole and the committee would like this information, Cornelius Corson, if he is so disposed, could furnish it. The story that he paid Hastings $2,000 for advising him to see Senator Woodin and secure him, is a little absurd of anything Tweed's friends have ever known him to indulge in. There are fools, however, that will believe it.

CRIME.

FORGERY.
Boston, Sept. 17.—Timothy W. Ray, of the firm of Ray & Sirvant, brokers, Congress street was arrested on the charge of forgery in the Boston & Albany depot, about to take the cars for California.

LET THERE BE LIGHT.

THE BEST LIGHTED STORE in town is that of W. H. Wasson & Co. The BRIGHTEST HOTEL OFFICE is at the Jencks House. The LIGHTEST SHOW WINDOW is that of Hoffman the tailor and the FINEST CHANDELIER in Yankton is at Peterson's Jewelry Store, all eye that grope in darkness should follow the scriptural injunction to let your light so shine that it may be seen of men. In other words buy Harvey's patent chandeliers.

Desperate Fighting About Plevna.

Gen. Skobelev Sacrifices 7,000 men in a Vain Effort.

Only one Regimental Commander of His Forces Remains Alive.

The Turks Follow up Their Success by The Capture of Ft. St. Nicholas.

FOREIGN.

ONLY ONE COMMANDER ALIVE.
London, September 17.—The following has been received:

BUCHAREST, Sunday Night.
Col. Wellesley just arrived from the Russian headquarters before Plevna. He reports all quiet except intermittent firing around Greveca. The redoubt is still held by the allied forces. The military operations really closed Wednesday evening, when the Turks recaptured the Dub'e redoubt taken by Skobelev. The Russian commander in chief could not, or would not, send reinforcements to hold this redoubt. It was only too evident the attack was at end. Gen. Skobelev lost 2,000 men in attacking the redoubt. He lost 3,000 more in holding it. An immense proportion of officers are killed or wounded. Only one commander of regiment is alive, and scarcely a head of battalion is left. Two officers of staff are killed, one of whom was Vorstschagen, brother of the great artist, and another was wounded.

The correspondent writes: "I saw Gen. Skobelev in his tent at night. He was quite calm and collected. He said, 'I have done my best. I could do no more. My detachment is half destroyed. My regiments do not exist. I have no officers left. I have lost those guns.' 'Why did they refuse you reinforcements?' 'I asked, who was to blame?' 'I blame nobody,' he replied. 'It is the will of God.'"

The Russians have not, however, abandoned their position, and do not seem disposed to do so. On the contrary, they are fortifying them. Suleiman Pasha has, it is said, effected junction with Mehemet Ali. It seems probable their combined forces may attempt something against the army of the czar, which, already obliged to retire before this junction was effected, may now be forced to retreat still further. Although the imperial guard is now arriving rapidly, it may put another face on the affairs. The town and fortress of Bielka have unconditionally surrendered to the Montenegrin's OFFICIAL REPORT.

New York Sept. 17.—The following is furnished by the Turkish minister to the United States: "A telegram from the governor general of Adrianople, under date of the 21st of August reports that fourteen Israelites of Kezantiek were massacred by Russians and Bulgarians have been buried in the synagogue, with the exception of one who was devoured by dogs. Among these victims were a woman and a girl, the latter aged 15, named Thodi Braha, and of great beauty. She was slaughtered after having been violated by from eight to ten Russians and Bulgarians. Forty-three Israelites, of Kezantiek, men and women, the greater part wounded and sick, have been saved with Mussulmans, by the imperial troops. Others, to the number of 300, have been carried out by the enemy into Shipka pass.

WAR ITEMS.

London, Sept. 17.—An official Russian bulletin, dated Poremin, Saturday says: "The bombardment of Plevna continued yesterday. The Turkish batteries scarcely replied. Major General Skobelev, Dragomiroff, and Imeritinsky have been promoted lieutenant generals on the 13 inst. The Turks placed three 80 pound mortars between Shipka and Fort St. Nicholas, and bombarded the fort the 13th. We lost 40 killed and 117 wounded on the 14th inst.

THE TURKISH FLAG FLIES HIGH.
Constantinople, Sept. 17.—A dispatch from Shumla to-day states that Suleiman Pasha yesterday took Fort St. Nicholas, and the Turkish flag now floats over the Russian fort. Previous to the capture of the fort, the Russians, who had received considerable reinforcements, made several unsuccessful attacks upon the Turkish position commanding the GAMBRAVA road.

CONFIRMED.

Constantinople, September 17.—A dispatch from Suleiman Pasha confirms the report of the capture of Fort St. Nicholas in the Shipka Pass, at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, by assault. The fighting continues.

ROASTED COFFEE.

If there is any luxury more generally appreciated than another, it is GOOD COFFEE. Few persons can roast coffee well, and to meet this want Messrs. Bell, Conrad & Co., Chicago, have imported and roasted a coffee called which is the nearest approach to Java of any heretofore offered to consumers. It is not glazed, is brittle and will grind easily. Your grocer has the goods for sale, as also the famous

ANKORIA,

PERFECT BAKING POWDER, made by the same firm. Ask him for them and obtain the best goods in the world.

ASTONISHING SUCCESS.

It is the duty of every person who has used BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German SYRUP cannot be too widely known. Ask your Druggist about it. Sample Bottles to try at 10 cents. Regular size 25 cents. For sale by Mills and Purdy.
