Volume 3.

YANKTON, DAKOTA TERRITORY, THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 4, 1877.

Number 137.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1878.
THE WEEKLY Press and Dakotian
FIFTEEN MONTHS FOR $2.00.

The WEEKLY PRESS and DAKOTIAN, published at Yankton, Dakota, by Bowen & Kingsbury, is the largest and oldest newspaper in the territory. It furnishes to readers an average of THIRTY COLUMNS OF READING MATTER in each issue, making an aggregate of FIFTEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY COLUMNS in one year, all of which will be furnished to subscribers for TWO DOLLARS.

Its news columns contain the freshest information from all parts of the world, being made up from the telegraphic dispatches published in the Daily Press and Dakotian.

Its miscellaneous department contains carefully selected articles upon current topics, always interesting and full of instruction.

The Press and Dakotian makes a specialty of LOCAL AND TERRITORIAL information, and in this particular is the best news medium in the whole northwest. This feature, besides making it of great interest to our own people, renders it an exceedingly valuable source of information for people residing in the states.

Recognizing the fact that the people of the east are in search of all the information they can obtain regarding the resources of the new west, the publishers of the Press and Dakotian make a specialty of gathering together and putting in presentable shape everything pertaining to the territory of Dakota.

With these for its prominent features, and with all the lesser requirements of journalism faithfully observed, we feel that we can recommend our paper as a representative journal of the capital of the most important agricultural and mineral territory in the west.

For the purpose of still further extending the circulation of our weekly edition we make this offer: To every subscriber paying two dollars in advance, we will send a copy of the Weekly Press and Dakotian during the balance of the year 1877, and during the whole of the year 1878—FIFTEEN MONTHS FOR TWO DOLLARS, which is the usual price for a year's subscription.

Young beginner (sol): "This is getting duced absurd! WARRING FOR WAGES.

Laborers on the Kansas Pacific Defying a Sheriff's Large Posses.

Leavenworth, Kan., Sept. 30.—The laborers on the Kansas Central narrow gauge railway at the end of the line, near Circleville, have been on a strike for two or three days past, because they were not paid their wages. Early yesterday morning a party of about twenty citizens left this city on a special train for the scene of the disturbance. When at Holton they were joined by Sheriff Williams, of Jackson county, and a posse of fifteen men. The Leavenworth party were also made part of the sheriff's posse, and the train proceeded to the end of the track beyond Circleville. Here a large body of the strikers congregated, many of them on horseback, headed by a man named William Hartman. The posse was met by hoots and yells and all kinds of abusive epithets. Hartman, especially, was very offensive in his language and demonstrative in his actions. Captain Tough, formerly United States marshal for the district of Kansas, who had been selected as leader of the sheriff's posse, commanded Hartman to halt, and was answered by a pistol shot. The posse was then ordered to fire over his head, which was done, and Hartman replied with two shots from his revolver. The fact that he was shot through the body, and inflicting wounds from which he died in the evening. The train then returned to Circleville, where it was met by a great crowd of strikers, and a warrant was sworn out for Captain Tough, who was arrested, but released upon his own recognizance. At 11 o'clock the train was again met by a body of strikers, who took possession of the switch, and would not let the train pass until the posse gave Captain Tough up to them. This, of course, was not done, and the train backed out. Subsequently the posse left the train and marched into Holton and took up quarters in the hotel, which was soon surrounded by armed strikers, but finding the posse well prepared for them they did not attack the house. Captain Tough was again arrested last night and released on $10,000 bail.

All the northern Indians that have been brought into the reservation have been brought in by Spotted Tail and myself."
