MISCELLANEOUS.

Boston, Oct. 9.—Lucy Stone presided at the woman's suffrage state convention, and C. C. Burleigh made an address. Resolutions favored an equal distribution of wealth and censured the secretary of the treasury.

FUNERAL CEREMONY.
Baltimore, Oct. 9.—The obsequies of Archbishop Bayley took place this morning at the cathedral, and were attended by thousands of persons.

FRAUDULENT TRANSACTIONS.
San Francisco, Oct. 9.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of J. C. Duncan, manager of the Pioneer bank, and the principal stockholder of the safe deposit of the company, and Benjamin C. Lewarne, secretary of the deposit of the company, charged with over issue of the stock of the company. The amount of over issue is not ascertained, but is known to be a large over issue, manipulated by Lewarne while Duncan hypothesized the stock deposit in the vault of the company all right. Neither Duncan nor Lewarne have been seen since Saturday. The police in all the towns in the state have been notified to be on the watch for them.

POLITICAL.

STATE ELECTION.
Cincinnati, Oct. 9.—Reports from all wards up to noon indicate that the election is proceeding quietly. The vote will be small. The workingmen's ticket develops unexpected strength. It is estimated that the republicans will lose many votes in the German wards from this cause.

Cleveland, Oct. 9.—In this city the election is progressing quietly, a light vote being polled. The workingmen's ticket appears to have developed considerable strength, and a great deal of scratching being done on the county ticket.

NEW YORK.

EDWIN ADAMS BENEFIT.
New York, Oct. 9.—The sale of boxes and seats for the Edwin Adams benefit, netted $27,000, Southern paying $500 for the first choice. The box later was sold over again and additional $165 obtained. Southern giving the purchase money to the benefit fund. Mr. Florence was auctioneer in the absence of Southern, who had been called to the bedside of Adams in Philadelphia. The proceeds of the benefit will assure to own private property.

FOREIGN.

MACMAHON EXPECTS TO BE WINNER
Paris, October, 9.—Ministerial papers announce that of the 363 republican seats, the winning by the government of 117 is almost certain, while 40 more are favorable; so that the government will have a majority of at least 20. The left, however, still reckons confidently on 460 seats.

GAMBETTA IS AGAIN PROSECUTED
Paris, October, 9.—Gambetta is prosecuted for placarding his manifesto to the electors of the 20th arrondissement on the streets, not for its publication. The printer of the manifesto has been summoned before the correctional tribunal.

IMPORTATION AND EXPORTATION.
London, Oct. 9.—The Times says that since the beginning of the present year we have imported 23,000,000 pounds worth of wheat, against 19,000,000 pounds last year. It is curious enough that increased supplies have not yet come from the United States which sent us nearly four million one hundred weight less this year than last. Our chief sources of the extra supply have been British India, Russia, Germany,

France and Egypt. No doubt India, Egypt and Russia have been stimulated to export more largely than usual by their financial necessities, but the figures are none the less significant on that account. It is just possible that the corn dealers in the United States may hold back a little too long in hope of obtaining higher prices, and it is quite evident from the ease of the market at present that it will not yet, at all events, bear squeezing.

SHOOTING A ROAD AGENT

Custer, D. T., Oct. 6.—Yesterday while Henry Myers' freighting outfit with six men was camped twelve miles south of here they were visited by three men who cooked dinner at the camp-fire and made themselves so agreeable that all of the freighters except a son of Myers gathered about them. Young Myers was suspicious and went to one of the wagons where he got his shot-gun and remained away from the party. During the conversation around the camp-fire one of the strangers admired a shot gun belonging to the freighters and took it to examine it. Suddenly he cocked and levelled it, stepped between the freighters and their arms and ordered them to throw up their hands, saying they would take what money there was in the outfit. At this young Myers stepped from behind the wagon and fired the shot, striking the robber in the face and breast.

The robbers wheeled and fired at him, but missed. The robber then dropped the gun and ran, firing at the party with his revolver. One of the freighters shot at him with a rifle, the ball striking him in the arm. He fell and soon after died. The other two road agents fled and have not yet been captured. A party under a deputy sheriff from here is in pursuit. The body of the dead robber was brought here last night and identified as that of a man known as Texas Frank. It is believed that this was the party who robbed the Sidney coach a few nights ago. None of Myers' party were hurt.

NASSBY.

The President's Southern Progress—The Corners Expresses Itself.
CONFEDERATE X ROADS,
(Which is in the State of Kentucky)
Sept. 15, 1877.

Yesterday the corners wuz profoundly shocked. Jos Bibber wuz over to Secessionville, and wen he returned he said the news that the fraudulent President Hayes wuz on a southern tour, and had decided to make the corners a visit.

I wuz profoundly alarmed. I had red wuz overwakened he had received in the south, and had wore mourning on my hat for two days in consequence. The idea wuz dimorisy lovin the horns to this Abilish Deal and doing him honor, stung me to the quick. And to think that he should hev the impudence to come to the corners, and undertake, to conker the just prejudices uv our sterlin dimorisy—that dimorisy wich never yet remained troot to the cardinal pinte uv dimorisy—that he should come and try to corrupt them, wuz too much.

Suthin hed to be did, and that quickly, Bigler said he would be here the next day, and I convened a meetin to-wunnt.

It wuz a sad occashn I staid the objick in a few words. Here was a froudent president which hed bin goin over the entire south—a abilish president—a travlin thro Kentucky and Tennessee, and hedn't ez yet been killed. Not so much ez a single hiss or a groan hed bin heard at him. Hisses and groans and bricks! On the contrary this representative uv the abilish sentiment uv the north hed bin feasted, and wined and dined in the south, and by southern men!

He wuz a comin to the corners. Not content with pollutin Louisville, he wuz to continyoo his triumphal progress to the corners and it wud be expected that the corners wud put its neck under his yoke, and yelp hosannas to this yoeserper. Wood the corners do it? Cries of never! never!

With a nigger in the postoffice, and a radikel in the collector's office, wood the corners consider itself satisfied? Never! The troops hev bin withdrawn from Louisiana, but so long ez them offices is kep from dimorisy the remembrance uv a fratricide war still runks in our buzns.

[The cheers was so vociferus that I riz with the occashun.]
What does all this mean? Where is the dimorisy? Wat is dimorisy anyhow? Hez the old sperid died out? Do them Kentuckians wich are hurrahin for Hayes realize the fact that he wuz elected by abilish votes? Do they remember that his sword iz rusted with southern blood, that to sich az him they owe the loss uv their niggers?

Are they still dimocrats?
Who is this Hayes?
Does he believe in the resooloshens of '68?

Does he believe in free trade?
Does he believe that Jaxon wuz the greatest uv Amerikins, and that the volunteers from Kentucky and Tennessee wuz at Noo Orleans are deservin uv resooloshens uv thanks at every dimocratic convenshun?

Is he opposed to internal improvements, and does he still shout for "free trade and sales' rites"?

Is he in favor uv the extenshun uv slavery to the territories, and is he opposed to the hereby uv Douglas?

Did he vote for secession?
Does he believe in states' rites, and is he in favor uv hard money? Or ruther—well, on the hard money question I ain't so pertikuler, but I sum it all up—is he a dimekrat?

And then I perposed the adoption uv the follerin resooloshens:
"Whereas, A froudent president which is a yoeserper is making a tour uv the south and has bin received with demonstrashens uv approval by athern dimekrats; and
"Whereas, The sed president is president de fakto, and not president de jure—
Deekin Pogran—"Parson, wat is de fakto and jure?"

I explained to the Deekin that them terms wuz furrin in their strukter, but hed bin yoozed by eastern dimecratic noospapers and must, therefore, be good phrases, and that I would explain em to him at some fuchter time, and went on—and deserves the approbashes, instid uv the applause, uv all dimocrats; and,

"Whereas, We uv the corners, hev never heard that this yoeserper hev a single one uv the time-honored prinseples uv the dimocratic party, but it is in all respects a bloody-minded abilishist, therefore be—
"Resolved, That in antissipashen uv his comin the corners be dressed in mourning.
"Resolved, Ez a sense uv the humilishen the corners feel at his comin, that the day he is here shal be a day uv fastin and humilishen, and that to properly express our feelins, Bascom shal gnash on that day, and the corners shal gnash its teeth.

"Resolved, That dorin the stay uv the yoeserper the dimorisy uv the corners shal keep within their doors, and leave the welcome uv the sed frod to the niggers and radikals."

The resooloshen closin Bascom's was modified into dressin his front and also the bars in black crape, at Bascom's city, and the resooloshens wuz passed yooanimously.
