THE SITTING BULL COMMISSION.

THE "BIG INJUN" REFUSES TO TREAT.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—A Times special from the Sitting Bull commission at Fort Worth, British northwest territory, Oct. 17th, via Fort Benton 21st, received early this morning, says the commission have met Sitting Bull and utterly failed to obtain any satisfaction or terms of settlement of him. After detailing the difficulties through which the commission passed before reaching the Indian band and the reluctance of the Indians in yielding to the persuasions of the Canadians and allowing an interview to take place, they fearing some trap was about to be sprung on them. He describes Sitting Bull as a swarthy, black haired, beardless, pure blooded savage, with an air of judicial gravity and intelligence. He continually fears treachery on the part of the Americans, and distrusts his own tribe when they are near. He refused to shake hands with the commission, and said he wanted them to set out in full view, and not behind the tables. They complied, and Gen. Terry addressed them, stating the object of the visit, namely: That the president wished the hostilities to cease forever, for the sake of all parties. If the Indians would return and refrain from hostile acts against the United States government, a free pardon would be given for all past acts; no attempt would be made to punish "hem, and the past would be forgotten. This the president promised. He went on to say that all other hostile Indians had now surrendered to the United States authorities, and had received no punishment whatever, but had been received as friends; they had received, or would receive the proceeds of the sale of their horses and arms; they had been presented with cows, and otherwise received honorable and just treatment. The same terms were offered Sitting Bull's people. The savage warrior smiled broadly at the mention of surrender. The speech produced no effect, and the offer of peace was rejected. The council broke up and the commission turned their faces homeward.

Agreed to. The resolution passed as amended.

Mr. Chaffee submitted a resolution directing the secretary of the interior to transmit to the senate the last annual report of the government directors of Union Pacific company. Agreed to.

A number of bills were introduced. Adjourned.

FOREIGN.

RESUMING WORK.

London, Oct. 22.—The lock-out of the iron workers, in the Clyde ship yards, who demanded an increase of wages, began Saturday in the Forrest of Dean iron district. The foremen received notice that they must accept 5 per cent. reduction on their wages or terminate the contracts.

WAR ITEMS.

Mondon, Oct. 22.—Eighteen thousand men and forty cannons were captured by the Russians in their recent victory over Ghazi. Moulkar, Turkish reports, of a part of their army holding fortified positions on Alarja Dagh, is unfounded.

The Russian loss, carrying Alarja Dagh, is officially reported: 1441 killed and wounded. The losses on the other parts of the battlefield are not stated.

PARIS UNIVERSAL EXPOSITION.

Paris, Oct. 22.—The principal buildings on the Champ De Mari, and Trocadero, for the exhibition of 1878, have been completed and the interior arrangement completed. Great progress has been made in the foreign department, particularly British, where an immense building for agricultural machinery are finished. The United States minister has had an interview with the director of the exhibition relative to the American department.

EXPLOSION.

London Oct. 22.—An explosion has occurred in the colliery at Hight Blantyre, near Glasgow, four hundred men were in mine and a large number killed.

ANOTHER MINING DISASTER.

Glasgow, Oct. 22.—The most intense excitement prevails over the colliery explosion. Exploring parties are endeavoring to get at the miners but have little hope of rescuing any. The bottom of the pit is said to be full of dead bodies.

LATER.

A special train sent to bring the injured of the colliery explosion to the Glasgow infirmary has returned. No one having been got out alive. Twenty dead bodies have been recovered. It is feared the entire four hundred, in the colliery when the explosion occurred, have perished.

LATEST BY MAIL.

Canada is now sending beef and beer to England. Owing to the competition of India the tea trade of Shanghai is declining.

A sleep-walking young lady in Cottonwood, Cal., while passing through her father's sleeping chamber was awakened by his hand upon her shoulder. She fell down dead.

A man in Wilmington filled a sprinkling pot with benzine, and dampened the carpet in his parlor with it, as a protection against moths. Gas generated by the benzine caused a violent explosion, killing two women who were in the apartment.

Poreidin, Oct. 18.—The czar, addressing the general staff on Wednesday, declared that he and all the members of the imperial family would remain with the army to share in the labor and fortunes of the war and witness the deeds of the soldiers. He concluded: "I myself will care for the wants of the army, and if necessary all Russia will, as once before, take up arms."

Havana, Oct. 19.—News has been received that a Spanish column recently surprised thirty insurgents, killing fifteen and wounding the rest. The killed were taken into Puerto Principe for recognition. Among the dead whose recognition was established as an undoubted fact were Senator Machido, president of the Cuban chambers, and Senator Larrua, insurgent secretary of war.

New Orleans, Oct. 19.—Pinch back has written the chairman of the senate election committee, renewing his claims to the senatorship, calling attention to his credentials of January 13th, 1877, duly presented by senator West and referred, but never acted on. He says Senator Morton early last session promised to investigate this matter. The credentials are as valid as those of Eastis or Kellogg, and should receive careful consideration.

White Bird, one of Joseph's chiefs, failed to come in with the other leaders, and declined to give himself up on the morning of the 6th. Finding that he would not appear.

General Miles and General Howard, accompanied by Mr. John Healy, the scout latest here from the scene of the surrender, went down into the camp and explored the Nez Perces' intrenchments, but found that White Bird was missing.

A gathering of seventy murderers is not a common thing. That number of Indians, from the Cheyenne agency, have for two years been kept in the famous old fort at St. Augustine, Fla., and each had murdered one or more persons whom he was sent away for an experiment in reformation. A correspondent of the Springfield republican, who has recently visited them, says: "Their faces, though by no means attractive, one is particularly striking. I saw few faces fiercer than those of these Indians. It was easy to see that they had been ugly brutes, whose recreation was torture and butchery, and yet the beginnings of a better life were there, which patience and kindness had discovered and called forth."

A special communication of St. John's Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M., will be held at the lodge room to-morrow (Tuesday) evening.
