THE NEWS.

Affairs in Maine Continue Mixed.

Gen. Chamberlain Issues a Proclamation and Takes Charge of the State as Acting Governor.

FROM MAINE.

Boston, Jan. 9.—An Augusta, Maine, special to the Herald to-day says: The feeling of doubt and distrust which prevails has increased rather than diminished within twenty-four hours. Military power, though no troops are called out, is becoming unusually conspicuous for Maine. Gen. Chamberlain is in constant consultation with the civil authorities, and is gradually becoming an important figure. Gen. John Marshall Brown, of his staff arrived from Portland this morning and other old army officers are expected to-day.

A conference at Blaine's house lasted till a late hour this morning. Teams were coming and going to and from the house late. At 1 o'clock in the state house, just beyond, all was quiet, the principal offices being brilliantly lighted. No man visible, but ten were there. At the Augusta house every person who entered or went out, up to 2 o'clock at least, was an object of suspicion and closely watched until his business was known. This morning politicians are somewhat nervous and the fusionists a little panicky. Some of them are anticipating a struggle for the possession of the house, while all are eager for the promised bribery revelations.

This morning when the house met, no republicans were in the hall and Mr. Locke was the only one in the senate. This at once gave a clue to the republican policy.

As soon as the reading of the journal was finished, Swan, of Mechanics Falls, rose to a question of privilege and gave the story of an attempt to bribe him. The name of the accused party is Wallace R. White, of Wintthrop, a republican lawyer.

Augusta, Jan. 9.—Early this morning Gen. Chamberlain issued a general order stating that in view of the extraordinary situation now presented at the seat of government, he would assume command and protect the public property and institutions of the state in trust for the people, till the governor's successor has been legally elected and duly qualified. By this order General Chamberlain assumed temporarily the office of governor and commander in chief. The entire police force at the state house was changed this morning, those indicated by Chamberlain taking the place of those drilling there for several weeks. The change was quietly made.

At the opening of the session but one republican appeared and took his seat, Senator Locke, of Cumberland.

The vote on the bribery order was reconsidered, and the order laid on the table. The committee appointed on the gubernatorial votes are Atwell, of Lynn, Thompson of Knox, Barrett, Locke, Dingley and Flint.

The committee on senatorial votes, who will proceed at once with their duty, are Strickland, Patten, Thompson of Knox, Rankin Coombs and Lamson.

Seventy-two members only appeared this forenoon in their seats in the house, all fusionists.

The house attempted to exclude all but official reporters but several were smuggled in.

Thomas B. Swann, of Minot, arose and read a statement that one thousand dollars had been paid him not to appear at the organization of the legislature. He stated the money had been paid him by William R. White, of Wintthrop, and that he, Swann, should not claim it.

Harriman, of Kennebunk, testified that the same offer had been made to him by White.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

Cincinnati, Jan. 9.—The charge of criminal libel brought against Richard Smith, of the Cincinnati Gazette, was dismissed in the police court this afternoon by the prosecuting attorney, on the ground that a criminal charge cannot lie against a corporation. Mr. Smith being charged as the representative of the Cincinnati Gazette company.

Stamford, Jan. 9.—T. B. Richards, father of Professor Richards of Yale college, was killed to-day at the depot by a Harlem railroad train. The coachman was seriously cut and the carriage demolished. A young lady in the coach was uninjured.

New York, Jan. 9.—It is asserted by the friends of J. Lloyd Haigh this morning that no criminal charge can be brought against him. They say the acceptances which are alleged to be forgeries were given as collateral security to secure the payment of his own notes which are not forged, and that he did not receive money on these certificates but on his own notes.

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—At Maniwake, on the Galena river, a man named Brisbane quarreled with his partner, and literally chopped him to pieces. The murderer escaped.

N. Y., Jan. 9.—The defalcation and death of Bozert, for 18 years treasurer of the produce exchange, is the sensation today in financial circles. Bozert kept his own bank account and that of the exchange at Merchants Exchange National bank. Bozert's private account with the bank had not averaged more than one thousand dollars and the produce exchange account more than $10,000, while of late the latter had not been more than a few hundred dollars.

SCHOOL OF APPLIED SCIENCES.

Cleveland, O., January 9th.—A trial deed executed by the late Leonard Case was to-day made public, by which he has conveyed to his attorney, to be held in trust, property estimated to be worth one and a quarter million dollars, the income from which, after his death, to be applied to the establishment of a school to be called the Case school of applied sciences.

THE IRISH LAND QUESTION.

Dublin, Jan. 9.—A conference of farmer's clubs has been held at Mallow, county Cork, to consider the land question. Several members of parliament were present, among them Wm. Shaw, home ruler member for Cork, who said the question involved was whether a million people, who might live comfortably in Ireland, were to be driven to the poor house or swept away to America. The Home Rule League has called a public meeting for the 21st inst. to consider the state of the country.

ARREST ORDERED.

Capetown, Jan. 9.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Paul Kruger, president of the committee appointed at the meeting of boers on the 10th ult., which adopted a resolution to maintain the demand for the independence of Transvaal and instructed Paul Kruger to summon the volkraad.

CASUALTIES AT SEA.

Halifax, Jan. 9.—Shipping returns to the 1st inst. show the losses the past year in vessels on the Yarmouth register has been unprecedentedly large, numbering thirty vessels, aggregating 15,955 tons, and attended with the loss of 94 lives, besides five seamen lost by falling overboard from other Yarmouth vessels.

ECCLIASTICAL SUIT.

London, Jan. 9.—The Times this morning says, we are informed that the bi-hop of London has signed letters of request to the dean of arches court, province of Canterbury in a fresh suit against Rev. Alex Mackonochie of St. Albans church, Holborn. New proceedings will be for the deprivation of Mackonochie of the rights of priesthood.

THE AFGHAN MURDERS.

Calcutta, Jan. 9.—Particulars of the proceedings of the court martial at Cabul, on the Afghans implicated in the attack on the British residence in September last, show that the whole fifteen men who have been executed were neither concerned in the massacre of Major Cavagnari and his staff; in the murder of wounded soldiers, or had taken part in the treacherous attacks on the British. All other prisoners will be released.

ALFONSO'S BRIDAL BED.

A Magnificent Piece of Furniture Which Cost 50,000 Francs. Madrid Special.

From the council chamber we pass into the king's bed chamber, which is simply but richly furnished. The walls are hung with beautiful specimens of the Gobelin tapestry, but the carpets are of Spanish manufacture. An exquisitely carved walnut bedstead occupies the center of this room, which, like the royal household, is principally remarkable for its elegant simplicity. Adjoining is a chambre de toilette with marble bath, washstand, etc.

A short corridor separates the apartments of the queen from those of her royal spouse. Passing through we enter the chambre a coucher, where is the nuptial couch, a gem of the Parisian upholsterer's art, richly carved and delightfully upholstered in silk. It cost 50,000 francs. The interior of the dome like canopy is richly upholstered in rose colored silk, on which cunning hands have wrought flowers and devices with golden threads. The headboard is surmounted by an embroidered shield, on which the initials of the royal spouse are wrought in gold. The shield is supported by two reclining nymphs, nude as Mother Eve in Paradise. As the workmen had just unpacked this jewel of a bed, it is impossible at this present writing to give any further description of its beauties. In addition, there is a chambre de toilette, a delightful salle de lecture, with windows opening on the Piazza de Oriente and on the splendid terrace, which affords a fine promenade, with a magnificent view of this city and the mountains. At present it is merely a stone roof, but, under the care of the queen, will no doubt soon be turned into a lovely hanging garden, a l'Arabe. A private reception-room, for ladies only, completes the royal apartment.

ETIQUETTE IN ARKANSAS.

From the Little Rock Gazette.
Last night two men from Philadelphia engaged in a quarrel at a hotel in this city. After using all kinds of epithets, one of them thrust his hands behind him as though about to draw a pistol, and then took it away. The quarrel terminated without damage to either party. An old man from South Arkansas shook back his long hair, and, advancing to the man who had made the hip-pocket motion, remarked: "Both of you men are strangers here, I reckon?"

"Yes."
"Not acquainted with our little rules of politeness?"
"How?"
"Why, you put your hand behind you just now."
"Yes."
"You didn't pull a gun?"
"I haven't got a gun."
"Now, young man, let me give you a piece of advice. While you are in this country don't put your hand behind you unless you intend to shoot. Don't even run your hand into your pocket for a chew of tobacco. Don't spit. Don't wink, for if you do your partner, if he's an Arkansaw man, will jolt you. You must learn these little rules of politeness. You may know how to conduct yourself at church, but you've got a good many rules of etiquette yet to learn."

A Fragrant Breath and Pearly Teeth

Are easily obtained by cleansing your teeth daily with that justly popular dentifrice, SOZODONT. Composed of rare antiseptic herbs, it imparts whiteness to the teeth, a delicious aroma to the breath, and preserves intact, from youth to old age, the teeth. Acidity of the stomach will destroy the strongest teeth unless its effects are counteracted by SOZODONT, and this pure tooth-wash protects the dental surfaces by removing every impurity that adheres to them. Ask your druggist for SOZODONT.
