No. 220

THE NEWS.

No Particular Change in the Maine Mix.

The Difficulty Between the Union and Non-Union Butchers of Chicago Assuming a Serious Aspect.

Geo. W. French, Formerly Chief Justice of Dakota, Confirmed by the Senate as Chief Justice of Arizona.

FROM MAINE.

Augusta, Jan. 13.—Both branches of the legislature quietly assembled to-day—republicans away. The night at the capital passed very quietly, a full guard on. The only thing irregular this morning was when G. W. Martin attempted to pass the guard in defiance of police regulations, and was summarily handled by the police.

The fusionists are very reticent about expressing an opinion of the events of last night. They seem surprised and entirely unwilling to converse upon the subject.

Wallace R. White, whose card of denial of bribery has been published, has been summoned before the bribery committee, but refused to appear. The following is his card:

To Henry Ingalls, chairman, investigating committee—I have received your summons to appear before your committee, charged with the investigation of the alleged bribery of T. B. Swan and Moses Harriman. I decline to appear for the reason that you are not competent to send for persons and papers, and not competent to administer a legal oath to witnesses before you. You could swear to anything without incurring the hazard of a prosecution for perjury. If Swan and Harriman had secured a bribe they would naturally swear falsely about it, and if they merely put up a job they would be still more likely to testify falsely. When I meet them I want to be before a tribunal that has power to enforce its decrees and to administer punishment. Your house of representatives is illegitimately organized, or not organized at all, and you have no doubt on that point I shall be glad to have you arrest me for contempt, and then have the authority of your process tested by a writ of habeas corpus before the supreme judicial court. I am not sustained by that tribunal I shall cheerfully appear before your committee.

WALLACE R. WHITE.

Augusta, Me., Jan. 13.—The reported scheme of electing state officers and governors has apparently been abandoned, both parties seeming willing to await the decision of the supreme court before proceeding further.

Lansom, who claims to be acting governor or, has as yet performed no official act that at all interferes with the prerogatives of Gen. Chamberlain.

The house took a recess till 2 o'clock P. M.

Augusta, Jan. 13.—At a quarter to two the committee of the house to report questions to ask of the supreme court submitted a series, which it was voted to submit to the court. The questions are both long. Both branches adjourned at 2:15 till Saturday, January 17th at 2 p. m.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Several senators presented petitions numerous signed for the suppression of the liquor traffic.

Mr. Davis presented petitions from Quincy, Ill., for a reduction of the duty on zinc.

Mr. Morrill offered a resolution and will speak on it Thursday, instructing the committee on finance to consider the practicability of refunding the national debt at a less rate than 4 per cent, whether it is not practicable to secure bonds by subscription for small sums, and to report by bill or otherwise.

HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 13.—A resolution for printing the Glover report was discussed.

The committee on printing was finally instructed to ascertain how the house lost possession of the report and where it is.

Mr. Wilson from the committee on printing, reported a bill for the election of congressional printer. Referred to the committee of the whole on a point of order.

Mr. Bicknell, from the committee on counting presidential votes, reported a bill regulating the counting and questions arising therefrom. Made the special order for January 29.

WASHINGTON.

SHEEP CAN GO TO IRELAND.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The treasury department is informed that the British government has issued orders permitting sheep from the United States to be landed in Ireland without quarantine, and without being slaughtered at the place of landing.

SENATOR LAMAR SICK.

A reliable dispatch says Lamar's condition is serious. His trouble was vertigo, not paralysis.

CONTESTED CASES.

Washington, Jan. 13.—In the Kellogg case to-day five witnesses testified for Kellogg in rebuttal of the testimony taken in New Orleans.

In the McCabe-Orth case, by a vote of 8 to 6 the committee refused to dismiss the claim of the contestant, McCabe, democrat, without further definite action.

APPROPRIATION AGREED ON.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The house committee on appropriations has agreed to report a bill appropriating six hundred thousand dollars as suggested by the attorney general in his annual report.

CONFIRMATIONS.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Senate confirmed Samuel Speckman, of Pennsylvania consul at Ghent; Jacob Wheeler, United States marshal for the southern district of Illinois; G. W. French, chief justice of Arizona territory.

FITZ JOHN PORTER'S CASE.

The senate military committee failed to obtain a quorum to-day, but by common consent the chairman was authorized to appoint a sub-committee to consider the bill for the relief of Gen. Fitz John Porter.

INDIAN NEWS.

Washington, Jan. 12.—A telegram, bearing date Mesquite Agency, New Mexico, Jan. 5th, via Mesquite, New Mexico, has been received by the commissioner of Indian affairs announcing serious troubles between Mexicans and Indians. Agency employes and property reported all right. General Pope has ordered all cavalry in southern New Mexico to march rapidly against these Indians. Advice at the war department state that the renegade Apache Indians, recently followed across the border into Mexico by Gen. Morrow, have returned. The Mexican authorities have requested that they be permitted to assist in the pursuit of these Indians on the American side, and the secretary of war has granted the request. Secretary Schurz had a long conference to-day with Chief O'Quay.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

Baltimore, Jan. 12.—George Peck, colored, was arrested for attempting an assault on Ida Hayes, daughter of a well known citizen of Batesville, Montgomery county, yesterday. He was taken from the jail by a mob and hanged in front of the Presbyterian church.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—There was considerable excitement at the stock yards this morning, owing to assaults made by union men, who, being unable to secure their old places in the packing houses busied themselves in going about the yards abusing the non union men, stoning them and striking them with sticks as they passed in and out of the gate. About 400 in all were engaged in these outrages and several of them were arrested and marched to the police station at the point of the revolver, followed by a boisterous crowd of their friends. The most of the strikers and all of the more reasonable ones are at their homes, but should the arrests continue it is feared they will join in the trouble and cause blood shed. The police authorities regard the situation as critical and have transferred a large force to the stock yards.

While the mob of union men were attacking a workman named Andrew Deichman, on Halted street, this morning, he drew a butcher knife and stabbed Frank Gough, a leader of the malcontents, who is largely responsible for the excitement, inflicting serious but probably not fatal injuries. Deichman was arrested and taken by the police into a street car, whereupon the mob nearly demolished the car with sticks and stones. The superintendent of police has ordered the saloons in the vicinity of the stock yards closed for the present. At latest accounts all was quiet and no further trouble is anticipated.

New York, Jan. 13.—An explosion took place last night while workmen were filling a large tank in Pratt's astral oil works, Williamsburg, and three men were slightly injured. Windows of houses in the neighborhood were demolished.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

RAILROAD EXTENSION.

St. Louis, Jan. 13.—The Kansas extension of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad made connection yesterday with the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road at Severing, Kansas. The permanent connection with the latter will be made at Emporia, Kan., in a short time, when St. Louis will have another through line to Colorado and New Mexico.

THE WEATHER DOWN EAST.

New York, Jan. 13.—At noon to-day snow commenced falling, having reached a depth of 8 inches, and considerably drifted. The storm was more severe west of the Alleghenies. In Maine a foot fell, and in other parts of New England six to eight inches. Little snow throughout the south, but sleet followed by colder weather.

IN FAVOR OF MORTON.

San Francisco, Jan. 13.—A petition is being circulated here and receiving signatures from prominent bankers, merchants and business men, asking the California senators to withdraw their opposition, and requesting the finance committee to report favorably to the confirmation of J. N. Morton for internal revenue collector. The petition recites that there is no pronounced opposition to his nomination among the business classes, and further recommends the confirmation as an acknowledgment of the services of the late Senator Morton.

FRANK LESLIE'S FUNERAL.

New York, Jan. 13.—Frank Leslie's funeral had a large attendance to-day.

ARRIVAL OF GOLD.

New York, Jan. 12.—$100,000 in gold arrived by the Britannic.

FOREIGN.

RUSSIA'S INTENTIONS.

London, Jan. 13.—A Vienna correspondent says new developments in Russia may be very significant of what may happen there hence, but those persons who are conversant with military affairs do not think Russia is preparing for any great action in the immediate future. The work of re-organization and introducing the standing order of battle in time of peace, which was greatly disturbed by the Turkish war, entails much moving of troops and material. The movements are very apt to be construed into something quite different from their real intention.

SOUTHERN DAKOTA.

Olivet has not one saloon.

Skating on the Jim at Olivet is excellent.

The Olivet Chronicle is what we intended to say, Bro. Williams.

Canton has improved nearly $70,000 worth since last spring.

Menno has a new blacksmith shop and dry goods store and a new saloon.

Canton News: This office is in receipt of as neat and tasteful a calendar for this year as it has ever been our fortune to behold.

It is a superior article from a first class house, the Yankton Press.

Three little girls have died from the family of Nelson Deebolun, who lives a few miles west of Canton, with that dreadful disease diphtheria. They were all buried on the same day, Jan. 3rd.

Parker Era: Ote Burgess takes the place of C. P. Leavitt as manager of Hesselton's saloon in this place. Hesselton is authority for saying that $300 of his money has "leaked" out of his saloon during the last five weeks. Leavitt employed too many tramps as assistant beer jerkers.

The first number of Folkebladet, the new Scandinavian paper, appeared on New Year's at Sioux Falls. It is a clean looking, seven-column paper, and has a business appearance about it. The matter is set in German type. The paper will be devoted to the interest of the territory at large.

The Brookings County Press gives vent to its feelings in the following manner, just because its little neighboring town Volga, is going to have a paper of its own: It is reported that Volga is soon to have a newspaper. We welcome the gentlemen who are to run it. We know we will not be alone in our misery. We have lived nearly on the ragged edge of despair, and the coming year we will have the satisfaction of knowing that some "other cuss" is as bad off as we are. A year hence and we will draw cuts to see who will take both offices as a gift. Yes, we welcome you for merry likes company. Do not fail to come. You would sorely disappoint us if you should fail to make connection. You must come with a goodly supply of meekness, patience, long suffering, gentleness, cheerfulness and any amount of cheek. The first five qualifications you will find necessary to enable you to borrow money to pay your weekly bills and the latter necessary to save off the lenders. Friends take this advice kindly—it comes from one who has had a year's experience in these matters. You must come with the idea of making martyrs of yourselves. You cannot come with the supposition that you have ideas and opinions of your own on politics and religion and minor local affairs. O, 'tis a glorious avocation this running a newspaper if it isn't money making. We repeat it, come, and if at any time there is anything we can do for you to make you more miserable we shall be happy to accommodate you.

THE BLACK HILLS.

Pneumonia is raging to an alarming extent in Deadwood.

Whitehead, Lawrence county, postoffice has been discontinued.

Dr. Gardner and child of Central, are both sick with diphtheria.

Mrs. John Scholz and three children of Deadwood, are lying very low with diphtheria.

The only daughter of Judge Dixon, aged 5 years, died in Deadwood of diphtheria Jan. 6th.

Six thousand ounces of gold was the late result of a two week's run of the Home-stake's two mills.

Two children have died from John Cushing's family in Lead City, inside of three days with diphtheria.

Twenty of the men on the night shift at the De Smet mine are laid off sick, fifteen of them being taken down sick one night.

The death rate of Lawrence county for 1879 is as follows: Natural deaths, 92; deaths by accident, 22; murdered, 5; suicides, 3; total, 122.

Old times are revived again in Deadwood by one desperado deliberately shooting and fatally wounding a man by the name of Jim Coburn, who died in a few hours. It is claimed he had previously threatened the life of the former.

Deadwood Pioneer: "An English medical journal says: 'The more nearly a woman approaches the natural, the closer she comes to loveliness.' Well, yes, there was Eve; pretty near natural and doubtless lovely enough; but hardly adapted to polar waves and sewing societies. Besides, if we remember correctly, instead of coming to loveliness, she came to the devil and to grief, and didn't seem to care A-dam."

THE SOUTHERN HILLS.

An Interesting Description of the Mines and Their Development.

[Deadwood Press Correspondence.] Hill City, Jan. 1, 1880.—Editor Press:—As there has never been a thorough description of the mines on our mammoth belt published, I submit you a somewhat full description. This belt commences on the north of Slate creek, and runs southeasterly twelve miles to Spring creek, with an average width of about two miles. From the northern extremity south the first mine of note reached is the Queen Bee, situated on the south side of Skull creek, near the junction of California gulch, which has a shaft down to the depth of 26 feet in a conglomerate of decomposed and glassy ore, and abounds in free gold. The vein has been crosscut about 20 feet, and but one wall seen as yet. This mine is owned by F. H. Griffin and Wm. Hall. From this mine south, over several undeveloped locations, we reach the Dowry, situated on the west side of Friday gulch. A shaft has been sunk to the depth of 40 feet in solid, sandy and slaty ore. No free gold to speak of, but good prospects and a large amount of ore in sight. It is owned by Ryan, Pease & Co. Three hundred feet west of this location is the Rose Lee shaft, which is down to a depth of fifteen feet in solid glassy ore, somewhat struffed with slat. This location has a cropping prospect for about 200 feet in width, and is owned by Robert Gibson.

From this camp south, we travel over many locations that are very little developed but showing fine prospects, until we reach the Bengal Tiger mine, situated on the divide between Marshall's gulch and Newton's Fork, at the head of Black Hills gulch, about one-quarter of a mile from the former gulches. It has a shaft down 56 feet, in very rich ore of a glassy nature, some of which runs as high as $3,000 per ton. The property is owned by the Home-stake company and Riley Gibson, and is the most thorough shape of any on the belt. From here we cross Newton's Fork and reach the Spotted Horse, situated about one-quarter of a mile south of the Bengal, and on the south side of the fork, which has a shaft down 30 feet in a fine body of ore of a solid, rusty appearance, prospecting from $25 to $100 per ton, without a single barren spot to be seen as yet. The lucky owners are Cockins and McCleary. From this mine east and west for several locations, big prospects are obtained, but little development is shown, and southerly many locations are undeveloped until we reach the St. Louis lode, situated on Spring creek and on a water level with it, thus making it hard to develop. It has a shaft about 15 feet in depth in very rich rock.
