No. 249

GENERAL NEWS.

Radical Administration of Justice by Judge Lynch at Los Vegas.

Farnell's Attacks on the Mansion House Committee Denounced by His Friends at Home.

Destruction by Fire of the Theatre Royal at Dublin.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

Judge Lynch.
Los Vegas, Feb. 9.—The cow boys Jim West, Jac. Dorney and Tom Henry, implicated in the shooting of Carson, two weeks ago, were dragged from their cells this morning by a mob of seventy-five armed men, who broke into the jailer's room and forced him to give up the keys. They were dragged to Central Plaza, and ropes were thrown over the beams of the wind mill pumps. West was hauled up and strangled. The impatient crowd then began firing, and in a short time Dorsey and Henry were riddled with bullets. There was no resistance to the mob. The bodies were removed this forenoon.

Explosion.
Detroit, Feb. 9.—A boiler in the malt house of the Hawley malt works, this city, exploded this morning, demolishing the engine room, and injuring the malt house to the extent of $20,000. Two men in the engine room escaped with slight injury.

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

Scandalous Intrigues.
Paris, Feb. 9.—The Debats denounces a scandalous, liberal intrigues with home rulers at Sheffield and Liverpool.

Nihilist's Troubles.
London, Feb. 9.—Intelligence has been received from St. Petersburg that the editors of the Will of the People, a Nihilist organ, have published a notice that in consequence of the seizure of their printing press, the issue of the third number of that paper has been interrupted, but will be resumed shortly.

Fire at Ayt.
Paris, Feb. 9.—Sixty houses burned at Ayt, near Foix. The people are in great distress.

Farnell's Language.
London, Feb. 9.—A Dublin dispatch says that Farnell's attacks on the relief commissioners are condemned, even by some of his most ardent admirers. The Irishman, a newspaper, strongly depreciates his language about the mansion house funds.

Passing the Sun.
London, Feb. 9.—Director Gould, of the national observatory of Cordova, Argentine Republic, telegraphs that a great comet is passing the sun in a northwest direction.

A Gentle Hint.
London, Feb. 9.—A Vienna correspondent says: Lybapoff, Russian ambassador at London, has received fresh orders from his government to hint in his discussion with the English cabinet on Asiatic affairs, that Russia considers Herat as lying beyond England's sphere, and that she could not therefore suffer Herat to be exclusively subordinated to British influence.

Distress in Ireland.
London, Feb. 9.—The members of the government and heads of the Irish deputies, met to-day at the official residence of the chancellor exchequer, to devise means of meeting the distress in Ireland.

Races.
London, Feb. 9.—The match over the Tote for the championship of the course, between Elliott and Boyd, was won by Boyd, the favorite, by four lengths.

On Fire.
Dublin, Feb. 9.—The Theatre Royal is burning.

Dublin, Feb. 9, 3:30 p. m.—The Theatre Royal is completely destroyed by fire, and is still burning, and adjoining houses endangered. The police inspector, and one workman were injured. The military keep order and assist the fire department. There was to have been to-day a performance of a pantomime, at which Duke and Duchess of Marlborough were to be present. The fire was occasioned by the ignition of the curtains of the state box.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.
Washington, Feb. 9.—The resolutions of the Louisiana legislature in favor of Spoford and against Kellogg were ordered printed.

Logan, from the military committee, presented a minority report on the bill for the relief of Fitz John Porter. Tabled.

Mr. Davis of Illinois, spoke on the bill reviving the court commissions of the Alabama claims.

Mr. Davis said that $9,553,800 of the $15,500,000 awarded by the Geneva tribunal remains in the United States treasury. He argued that by the principles of the marine insurance law, the underwriters who have indemnified the owners of the vessels for losses, become entitled to all proceeds afterwards recovered, whether from sea, from capture or from the justice of foreign states, from the property on which the insurance was paid. He supported the bill on this ground, making an elaborate legal argument.

HOUSE.
Washington, Feb. 9.—Bills were introduced as follows: By Kelly, for the issuance of government bonds to replace the 8 1/2's; by Sperry, to prevent general legislation on appropriation bills; by Young, creating a department of manufactures, mechanics and mines.

Mr. Bliss offered a resolution giving the use of the new museum in the Smithsonian grounds to the national democratic convention. Referred.

WASHINGTON.

The Weather.
Washington, Feb. 9.—The weather indications for the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys are: Partly cloudy and slightly warmer weather; falling barometer; winds generally from southeast to southwest.

Elected President.
Washington, Feb. 9.—The American Congressional temperance society elected Secretary of Navy Thompson, president.

Marine News.
N. Y., Feb. 9.—Arrived steamer Nederland, from Antwerp.

A Saw Mill Burned.
White Hall, N. Y., Feb. 9.—Bradley and Underwood's saw mill burned. Loss $30,000; insurance $18,000.

Ready for Business.
Indianapolis, Feb. 9.—The Indianapolis, Decatur, and Springfield railroad was opened for business from this city to day. The first through passenger train went out this morning.

THE DOMINION.

Two More Arrests.
Lucan, Ont., Feb. 9.—Two more arrests have been made in the Donnelly tragedy—Thos. Ryder, age 30, and Wm. Carroll, 19.

LATEST BY MAIL.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Entries for the June and July running meetings of the jockey club number 405, the largest ever yet recorded. They represent fifteen states.

Spring Lake, N. J., Feb. 6.—A large iron tank, supposed to be that of a steamer foundered at sea, and bearing the inscription, "McKeogh Bros., Liverpool," has come ashore.

Quebec, Feb. 6.—All travel and traffic on the Lewis and Kennebec railroad has stopped. The old board of directors refusing to recognize the new board chosen at the annual meeting of the English bondholders.

Lucan, Ont., Feb. 6.—Over 500 attended the funeral of the murdered Donnelly family to-day. The cortege was half a mile long, and after leaving the church proceeded to the Catholic cemetery. Arthur Connolly's words were very impressive.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Sixty rates to the seaboard continue firm, but it is stated that shippers have been promised a five cent reduction next week. The reports of low rates from St. Louis and Kansas City caused some talk to-day. Lumber rates from Chicago to Missouri river points have been lowered from 25 to 21 cents per 100 pounds and proportionally from Mississippi river points.

Cincinnati, Feb. 6.—The Gazette's special from South Charleston, O., says: John Campbell, aged 17, shot his sister Hilda, aged 19, to-day accidentally. He was standing six feet from her in the kitchen. In the presence of another sister, when he playfully pointed a pistol at her, demanding her money or her life. She answered "neither," when the pistol went off and the ball pierced her heart. The boy said he didn't know it was loaded.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The select committee of the house on the inter-oceanic ship canal met to-day and laid the foundation for a critical examination of the subject. A resolution was adopted calling on the president for all correspondence between this government and the foreign countries relative to the ship canal. Also a resolution providing for the collection of all possible statistics, showing the present amount of commerce passing around Cape Horn with a view of ascertaining approximately how valuable to the commercial interests of this country an inter-oceanic canal would be.

Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris wears a miniature of Queen Victoria set in precious stones, a gift from the royal dame at their first meeting.

This is erected to the Memory of Thos. Faulkner who was accidentally shot by his Brother as a token of his Affection. For of Such is the kingdom of Heaven.
