

LAVENDERS' CASH Grocery House!

CONTINUES TO BE THE Favorite Trading Place IN TOWN AND COUNTRY. Because it supplies the very best goods to be had in the world. Because every article required for family use on the line of Groceries can be found there at all times.

BECAUSE Its prices are uniform and so low as to defy competition. Because its CASH system is successfully established and gives to its customers advantages which the credit system does not possess.

Grateful for the continued favors of the people, this popular House assures its patrons that every effort will be made to keep its stock and prices fully up to the demands of the times. No other Grocery House in the Territory will be permitted to surpass in either quality of goods or prices.

Very respectfully,
A. W. LAVENDER

The cigar sales at Westfield, Mass., for March, amounted to 1,192,500, showing an increase of nearly 200,000 over the previous month, and 180,000 more than in March, 1879. In the three months of this year a total of $3,275,000 were sold, from which the government received a revenue of $19,000.

Uncle Joe Cooper of Dryden, N. Y., had a cancer forty years ago, and he summoned his friends and told them his remaining days would be few. But it did not reach a vital spot, and after it healed he enjoyed good health until he had a paralytic stroke recently in the one hundred and third year of his age.

For the last forty years Barefoot Walker has not had his feet covered. He was employed as a farm hand near Columbus, Ga., although in his eighty-sixth year. On Sunday he apparently died, and at his funeral when persons were bending over his coffin, he sat up and asked why he was thus treated. He still lives.

"After all," remarked the young man, skimming lightly over the gravel walk in the general direction of the front gate, "after all, what boots it?" And the muscular-looking old gentleman at the top of the porch steps with his spectacles jostled a little crooked, said that if that young man himself didn't know, he didn't know of anybody in that townshipp that did.

Texas has just completed marketing 1,000,000 bales of cotton as her crop of 1879, or one-fifth of the total crop of the south—estimated. For this she has received between $55,000,000 and $60,000,000. Aside from this she has sold $15,000,000 worth of cattle, sheep, wool and hides, making a grand total of $75,000,000 for one crop alone every dollar of which has been sent there from other states and from Europe.

Brigham Young's grave is said to be "neglected and stoneless." He left too many afflicted widows. What is everybody's business is nobody's business. When the condition of her late husband's grave is mentioned to Mrs. Young No. 10, she replies: "That would, stuck-up Belinda Jane Young get him one—it's as much her business as it is mine!" And when the subject is brought to the attention of Belinda Jane, who is Widow Young No. 14, she retorts: "Let Sarah Jerusha Young attend to it. She has known him longer than I." And it looks as if he never would get a tombstone.

A man was asked how he and his wife got along with so little friction in the family machinery. "Well," said he, "when we were first married we both wanted our own way. I wanted to sleep on linen sheets, my wife preferred cotton, and we couldn't agree. Finally we talked the matter over and came to the conclusion that it was unchristian-like to live in constant bickering, so we compromised on linen and have got along all right ever since."
