The Great Ranch known by the name of Ojuelas situated within the County of Valencia and Territory of New Mexico, containing four thousand acres of land, conveniently adapted for cultivation of all kinds of vegetables such as Corn, Wheat, Oats and Potatoes and all kinds of fruits can be raised as well, and no other can surpass it as a pasturing country, where Corn, Oats, &c., may be not needed to have animals in a very good condition. As for raising stock, no better can be found throughout the Territory of New Mexico. There is a spacious dwelling house containing ten rooms and two warehouses, one fine stable, two corrals, in one of which can be put one thousand head of cattle; one tank attached to the said house, twenty-five feet deep and about a thousand yards in circumference, which can irrigate from three to four thousand acres of land. Four excellent springs within five hundred yards of the house, continually affording sufficient water to all the Tank and supply the whole community. An abundance of wood and timber can be had in the neighborhood. To the above mentioned property will be given good deeds and titles, and will be delivered in good order and condition. This property is valued at $5,000 00
