The Serald

PERLICHER SYRKY PATERNAN BY

W. SWINDELLS. TIGHEMPH

ADVENTIALNO, as a bolaries ADVENTIALNO, and a square then times of Disside types 40 26 for flot dust, and 55 cents for each additional investion. Service charge for announcing a conditione for any official is parable invariably when the announcement is inserted. ESTABLISHED, 1849.

AGENTS:

Bichard H. Griffin, Adverti o. (South street, Italtimore, thought & Co., 37 Park Row, J Mesars, Coe, Wetherill & Co., Ber Messis, Dashiell & Waters, Bankers, Ber Messis, Dashiell & Waters, Bankers, Ranfman, are anthorized agents for THE HEIALD in Kanfman county, Ber M. Smith, Eq. at Level wille, Denton Ref M. Smith, Eq. at Level wille, Denton Far and we call the attention of all our fair readers to its suggestions.

eral favor, and will undoubtedly be would and should of the Beecher case, one of the evils corrected by the con- Mrs. Tilton is to reaffirm her innostitutional convention.

THE St. Louis Globe-Democrat (re- fore she sinks into helpless obscurity; publican), speaking of the vigorous Mrs. Moulton to repeat her story; and war Governor Tilden is making on even Bessle Turner to make a final apfraud and corruption, concludes a com- pearance before the incredible type of plimentary notice of him with the fol- womanhood disappears from the stage. lowing significant sentence: "As a candidate for public approbation, Til-source as the Sherman Register, are sent without his consent or request is government at the earliest pos-doubly appreciated, and serve to not a subscriber, and that double tran-

Alternation of Dallas county meet and for the procession of the independence of the United States, at Philing, for the fourth of July next, endness will appear in our column, during a date at the attention of all our states will appear in our column, and we call the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the column at the attention of all our states will appear in our column. The committee of arrangements were the column at the column at the column at the attention of all our states in the column at the attention of all our states in the column at the attention of all our states in the column at the attention of all our states in the column at the col

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

The present inquisitorial grand jury of the present inquisitorial grand jury system, has been taken up by the press of the state, and is being very general-lŷ discussed. It meets with very gen-eral favor, and will undoubfedly be would and should of the Beecher case, eral favor, and will undoubfedly be kept in congenial employment, to the detriment of all hon-est and industrious men in boh countries. The "free zone" is governed by Cortina and a ring of Mex-ican adventurers, and it is the home of the lawless men who carry the torch and the sword into Toyas whenney f and the sword into Texas whenever trimmings of silver and flowers, and

THE postmaster general has issued drinking and other vices of a fine decomposition, Til-den is competing with the whole cab-inet of Washington, and for our part inter subscription must be for not less met of wasnington, and for our part we are willing he should." THE HERALD desires to return its most complimentary notice. Such ation of the efforts of the appreci-source as the Sherman Register, are source as the Sherman Register, are almost daily. Several Mexican papers acknowledge the raiding, and criticise President Lerdo for keeping Cortina on the frontier, charging him with be-ing the leader of the banditti. ze the association. As the writer is not one of their number, but only moved by respect for their character and a desire to promote all good works in our community -Mr. McPherson, living eight miles mote all good works in our community, it is not amiss to repeat some of the old family names, and urge a full attend-ance of the survivors, viz: Bryan, Rawlins, McComas, Beeman, Coombes, Griffin, Taylor, Witt, Weatherford, Sloan, Cochran, Thomas, Collins, Pat-terson, John C. McCoy, Harwood, Browder, Baird, Carter, Webb, Haught, Keenan, West, Overton, Dixon, Prig-more, Mooneyham, Jackson, Glover, Lavender, Bennett, Badgley, Coats, Hord, Reed, Horton, Hart, Cole, Con-ver, Jenkins, Stodden, Previtt, Brew-

DALLAS, TEXAS, SATURDAY, MAY 29, 1875.

The Dallas Weekly Herald.

-An outrage and murder was com-tavender, Bennett, Badgley, Coats, Hord, Reed, Horton, Hart, Cole, Con-ver, Jenkins, Stodden, Prewitt, Brev ton, Elam, Lumley, Narboe, Husted, Traughber, Leonard, Riley, Dye, Cock-rell, Nanny, Ray, Anderson, Bledsen, Husted, Toring, Smith, Daniels, Hunter, Man-ning and James, all names more or less familiar to the people of to-day, commanding the respect of the later comers as much as they did that of each other in their first struggles in our then violence toward her, but was after her paramour, whom he did not find. The of the departed statesman and soldier paramour, whom he did not find. The affair has created much excitement. A large crowd appeared at the Jall when O'Brien was brought in by Officer White. The Texas State Fair.

nounces the death of General William Larimer, one of the oldest and most the situation a mile from the heart of so majestic. respected citizens of the state, who has been prominently identified with the interests of Kansas, Colorado and Ne-braska during the past twenty years. -At a reception given Cardinal Me-naky by the public of the experience in housing the past twenty years. -At a reception given Cardinal Me-taky by the public of the expanded the exhibition did not come up —At a reception given Cardinal Me-Closky by the pupils of the convent of Mt. St. Vincent, on the Hudson, he was presented with a casket of flowers containing a pietorial cross. The cross was of diamonds and topaz. It is worth $20,000, and was the gift of the com-munity of Mt. St. Vincent.
 —A dispatch from Brownsville, says

ing driven across the river above there in their power to make a successful be sustained. Texas is a great and growing state; emigrants are flow-ing into it by the ten thousand suggest that both withdraw from the end of the democratic party, he commission-startle the listener with the wonder-end a friend to visit Mr. Douglas and fully brilliant ideas expressed and the suggest that both withdraw from the end of the democratic party is the suggest that both withdraw from the suggest that both withdraw from the partial spirit, comparing first the ad-verse agents of fortune, and it last dis-straining doubt of its terrors. Now he bes in Lexington, so sold and still, the gives of the noised man to when Kentucky has every of given birth. The what shall we say of a minut so the distance of a minut so effect and a genius so commanding 7 As a reasoner and logician he was the equal of any adversary of his time. As a rhetorician and an orator he was periaps the superior. But he never allowed the latter to overshadow the ormer. In parts of his best arguments in the senate, during which his feel-ing were excited by conflict, he finds yent for bursts of patriotic and poetic raptures but he was the master and not the slave of his emotions. The vivid imagery which adorned his speeches never impaired their strength or discussed the deer common senarch doption of the French Army Cadres ill has dangerous to the peace of Europe.

—An article in the London Times resents the contrast between English and American efforts to reduce the national dott. "We cannot but feel with fired States in this respect show ione to the spirat of a great destiny, and anxion conclus of a great destiny and environments.
—O'Brien, who killed his wife in focuston some days since, has surrent ineight of the great Keunckian who has just passent generation stated to the police. O'Brien stated to he officer, after he had delivered him.
—O'Brien, who killed his wife in focuston some days since, has surrent inverted away from carth. The private and convinced a bench of august judges. He was not only a statesman and an orator he was also a soldier. His was the mind to grasp extensive military plans, and his was the courage to execute with him during.

the best qualities of the great and good who lived and died before him, that we can not, without difficulty, fit his genius to the mold of any one. He had the valor and energy of Hampden, the ardent public spirit of Sydney, the discernment and eloquence of Burke, the humanity and moderation of Lee! dwell with affectionate feelings upon the strong and noble face, the furrows of the check, the clear cut lines of the mouth, the large and cloquent eyes, as the portrait bends down upon us from the infection of the furrows mouth and the spot consecrated by the breathing an atmosphere still instinct with the spirit of the departed hero, the infection of the spirit of the departed hero, the infection of the spirit of the departed hero, the infection of the spirit of the departed hero, the infection of the spirit of the departed hero, the infection of the spirit of the departed hero, the infection of the spirit of the departed hero, the infection of the spirit of the departed hero, the infection of the spirit of the departed hero,

FORT WORTH.

The Political Quid Nuncs- A Homily on the "Smart Alecks" of the Fort-Barvesting-The City of Railroads-The Cattle Trail-General Peers En leavoring to Secure an Interest in the"Democrat,"

[Special Correspondence of the Herald,]

The all absorbing desire of our people just now is "moisture." The con-vocation of our "devout men" for the purpose of offering up prayers for rain, was most unceremoniously broken up by a suggestion from Dr. Burts that, men in Houston, and they did all in their power to make a successful exhibition, and to make every vis-itor feel at home. The attendance was quite large, and the fair a pecu-niary success. Another year, we prior to the successful distribution of a generous mind in a generous mind which possessed faculties transcending experience. Immediately after the all professional limitations, and which is change of the lunar orb, offerings pinel only for wider fields of useful-be month of the successful in the success. Another year, we press, and nobler theaters of action, he expected vania. A young girl named Whilby was the victim. Her body was found under a table, her ears torn off, and head terribly beaten. A tramp was seen in the vicinity, and it is supposed that the crime was committed by him. The excitement is intense. —The Roman Catholic bishops of Russia, who addressed a petition to the emperor and received a reply last -The Roman Catholic bishops of Russia, who addressed a petition to the emperor and received a reply last month from the minister of state, have wilderness country. Rest assured that we a later day,will rejoice at your annual reunions and in-voke blessings on the organization. Remember the day and the hour, which, by the way, is also the anni versary of the last bloody battle with saw, as we traveled through the state, sleek and fat, that had not re-ceived a mouthful of food during the past winter, but such as they plucked from the prairies. - - -This stock, however, ought to be the presence of the assembled senate, "to follow it over the ruins of the con-On the whole, after taking in and digesting the experiences of the past ten years, coupled with the "Indian irauds", the "revenue steals," the "civtake their stock to Texas to vie with with ambition that true heroism is il service" abortion, the "whisky ring" and the "third term" idea as a politic al dose, savored with a few whills of idea as a politictake their stock to Texas to vie with one another for the patronage of the farmers of Texas. We have never follow duty when aspiration points in farmers of Texas. We have never met or mingled with a kinder, truer, follow duty when aspiration points in the same direction, but when the hour the moral atmosphere engendered by the Tilton-Beecher affair, and we find or more hospitable people. The right hand of fellowship is extended to every worthy person, however which is extended to every worthy person, however ourself wrought to the pitch where we can truthfully exclaim in the language of the Tennessee poet, "Sie transit gloria mundi." The wheat harvest is going on, the humble his means, who wishes to cast his fortunes with her people During our stay in Houston of step of the martyr who takes his posi-tion the state of the martyr who takes his posi-tion the state of the martyr who takes his posi-tion the state of t nearly a week we did not see or tion at the stake and stands uncaunted mand and business dull. The Texas and Pacific road is not yet in sight, and the Lord only knows when it will be. All is peace and hear of a quarrel. We did not see or hear of a quarrel. We did not see a drunk man, or a man under the influence of liquor, while in Texas.

miles north of Galveston. The fair of the cheek, the clear cut lines of the the gallery of memory. And as we are reminded that the picture has vanished. and he proposes to give one hundred and he proposes to give one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars toward erecting a permanent and capa-clous music hall in that city. the work of sketching a character so exalted and of embalming a -memory

In disposition he was as gentle and large droves of Mexican cattle are be- men in Houston, and they did all out ambition, but it was not the am- in his opinion, it could not amount to

was quite large, and the fair a peed-niary success. Another year, we understand, it is the intention of the directory to offer a larger and more varied premium list, and we believe their efforts in that direction will the grave and the fair a peed-and conjust in the intention of the understand, it is the intention of the varied premium list, and we believe their efforts in that direction will the grave and the fair a peed-varied premium list, and we believe their efforts in that direction will the grave and the fair a peed-ting the peril to his country, which he the grave and the fair a peed-directory to offer a larger and more varied premium list, and we believe their efforts in that direction will the grave and the fair a peed-ting the peril to his country, which he the grave and the fair a peed-ting the peril to his country, which he the grave and the fair a peed-ting the peril to his country, which he the grave and the fair a peed-ting the peril to his country in the proving the provide the proper-tice of the lunar or of the difference the grave and the fair a peed-ting the peril to his country in the peril to he country is not the peril to he country is not the peril to he country is the peril to he country is not the peril to he peril to he country is not the peril to he peril to he country is not the peril to he peri yearly; hundreds of thousand siggest that both withdraw from the conclusions arrived at, and metal siggest that both withdraw from the conclusions arrived at, and metal access of her rich prairie soil is being might be selected who would be able to restore harmony and invoke peace. The was always the master and not the slave of that love of fame which Mil-

VOL. XXII, NO. 37

[Colman's Rural World, St. Louis.] We have just returned from the Texas state fair, and have now only time to make a very brief note in regard to it. The fair was held at Houston, a thriving city about fifty love of liberty and their souls be en-kindled by a new and more glowing inspiration

"The Prayers of the Wicked," Etc.-

Four Worrn, May 21, 1875.

signt rates of postage rassing and overburdened task. and collected.

JESSEE D. BRIGHT, ex-United States THE extracts which have appeared by the United States government in relation to flrearms for the south. A FARMER of large experience from one of the most extensive tobacco re-gions in Virginia, informs the Lynch-burg Bepublican that the prospects for a future crop are very gloomy, as the a future crop are very gloomy, as the control of the war department, but are more emphatic than in his advocacy of urge upon them prompt and vigorous cence for the benefit of the public, be-sencd. FOURTEEN thousand dollars a month is one hundred and sixty-eight thou-sand dollars a year, an independence for any prudent man. And yet the Lexington Dispatch chronicles and au-thenticates the fact that Colonel Burnonneed if our telegrams, was a sena- gift to his son is raised from $5,000 to States, and as a statistician on agricultor from Indiana previous to the war. $150,000, and for himself he gives up ture and commerce, he stood unrivated mittees throughout the state, but shall and was compelled to remove from that state during the existence of hos-agross sum of $500,000. The estate be-Davis family, for generations, have that state during the existence of hos-tilities between the two sections, on ac-count of his out-spoken advocacy of democratic doctrines and bitter demun-ctation of the Lincoln administration. He took up his residence in Kentucky, where he devoted himself to private pursuits for several years, and more repursuits for several years, and more re- and no doubt is entertained as to the was his remark that "When brothers cently removed to Baltimore. He was acquiescence of those not yet heard tight, neither should struggle under the sixty-three-years of age at the time of from.

SEVERAL of our rural contemporaries his death. BEN. BUTLER is the defendant in a are anxious to know how THE HERALD twenty thousand dollar suit in Brook. obtained its knowledge that the demolyn. The plaintiff, Herbert, is a New crats of Dallas county are opposed to York lawyer, who some years ago was a convention. If they will refer to the employed by Gazaway B. Lamar to proceedings of the democratic county prosccute some claims for a large convention, held on the 12th of April, amount for cotton which had been in accordance with the call of the seized by the government. Mr. Her- chairman of the county executive com- A Thriving Community-lirief Items bert was promised twenty thousand mittee, and published in THE HERALD he was successful. He em- on the morning of the 13th, they may ployed Butler to assist him, and the possibly gain some information. For claim was at once settled in Washing- the benefit of the Fort Worth Demoton. Mr. Lamar gave honest old Ben. crat, Standard, and other "snappers up To the Editor of the Dallas Herald : the twenty thousand dollars, expecting of unconsidered trifles," the following I left Dallas this morning at five him to divide with his associate, who is republished from THE HERALD of o'clock, and when we reached Forney, is now forced to sue for his half of the April 13:

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

fee. THE London correspondent of the New York Times chronicles the occur-rence recently of a dreadful scandal in the house of commons, from which the shaken nerves of society have hardly yet recovered. The rince of wales was actually turned out of the house of commons, along with Prince Chris-tian, the German ambassador, and a number of distinguished people. In this, however, no insult was leveled at sumption of protectorate authority one that was here to-day will acknowl over this district of Mexican territory edge. edge. It is tributary to our own great city of Dallas, and every increase in wealth and population to our thriving senator from Indiana, died in Balti- from General Sherman's book have not should be the ultimatum. If the Mexmore yesterday of rheumatism of the only redoubled interest in the war re- lean government will not clean out little neighber directly and indirectly heart. It will be recollected that Mr. cords, both of the union and confeder- that portion of her domain so the ufits us. Bright was expelled from the senate at armies, but labor in preparing them frontier of the two nations can be proat the commencement of the late war, for publication. Material for two vol- teeted in such a manner as to make owing to the discovery of a letter unes has already been put in type raids both dangerous and unprofitable, written by him to Mr. Jefferson Davis since congress adjourned, consisting it is the manifest duty of our govern-

a future crop are very gloomy, as the plant beds that escaped the weather of April, are now being devasted by the tobacco fly. The recent dry weath-er is very disastrous to the plant beds, and should it continue, the prospects for a crop this year will be greatly les-sened.

thenticates the fact that Colonel Bur-gess Hunt, of that city, spurned a bribe of that amount which was offer-ed him by the whisky ring of thesouth-frn district of Kentucky, and preferred to be honest on his regular salary. HON, JESSE D. BRIGHT, whose death donation to the mechanics' art school he was widely recognised as one of the that the shares are held at ten dollars, Hox, JESSE D. Buttoffer, whose death in Baltimore, on Tuesday last, was an-nounced if our telegrams, was a sena-strated from $300,000 to $540,000. The gift to his son is raised from $3,000 to 10 km strated from $1,000 to 10 km strated from $1,000

The Centennial.

Chew, Mrs. Judge Munger, Austin-Mrs. Rosa Ryan, Mrs. Dr. Wallace, Mrs. Charles West. San Antonio-Mrs. Judge Devine, Mrs. Dr. Chew, Miss Maverick. Columbus - Mrs. Scott Anderson, Mrs. William Darden. Bronham-Mrs. Giddings, Mrs.Shep-Gala Day-The Great Picule a Grand

ord. Palestine-Mrs. Judge Reagan. Corsicana-Mrs. Winkler. Waco-Mrs. Judge J. Walker, Mrs. Herriott.

Herriott. Dallas-Mrs. J. F. Brown. Jefferson-Mrs. Colonel Penn. Indianola-Mrs. Milby. We propose to hold tea parties, on the 17th of June, the anniversary of the battle of Bunker's hill, and hope that every lady in the state will lend her aid and presence to make them a grand success in every town and neighborhood throughout the land. The children of the Alamo and Goliad should know how to do honor to the memory of our revolu-

LAWRENCE, May 19, 1875.

r leit binks the nereached Forney, at seven, a delegation to the picnic was waiting to go down. It was headed by Miss McGee, bearing a fine silk ban-ner, and under the superintendence of Mr. Rivers, assisted by Mr. Sowel and Miss Wiggins. When all the little ones were safely seated, the train start-ed, and we reached Lawrence at eight o'clock As all the delegations had not arrived, there to wait for them, while for to make the little ones comforta-ble. About nine o'clock the Terrell and Wills Point delegations arrived, colors of his mother."

LAWRENCE.

Success-Music, Mirth and Pleasure.

About the Town.

which, by the way, is also the anni-versary of the last bloody battle with the Indians east of the Trinity, where DALLAS our flag was borne by Albert Sidney Johnson, President Burnet, Rusk, Bur-leson, Kaufman, Douglas, McLeod, Landrum and other wortby chiefs, The time for the great centennial is drawing near, and as yet Texas, con-trary to all her antecedents in matters pride, rear, beard ber of others, since distinguished in our state. ONE FOR MANY.

Dallas, Texas,

While on a recent visit to Dallas we while on a recent visit to ballas we were kindly shown around the city by our old friend and family physician, Dr. M. A. Cornelius, whom the good people of Dallas justly complimented with the position of city physician and general health officer. We made a careful examination of the hospital, and found it near and clean in even the sevent of the seventy-five Indians on their way to the Florida prison manag-cut two soldiers and then stabbed him-self, while the train was standing at Management of the sevent of the sevent of the sevent of the cut two soldiers and then stabbed him-self, while the train was standing at and found it neat and clean in every department. Dallas is building up very rapidly. She has now completed one line hotel, proprietors of the Commercial hotel will take charge of the one now nearly finished, with our friend J. M. Smith to act as first clerk. The other hotel is

There are two new iron and brass foundries just being put into operation, and were crowded with orders one hundred and fifty miles off before they were prepared for work. Arrangements are being made to es-tablish a paper mill at Dallas by a

Arrangement of tablish a paper mill at Dalias by a tablish a tablish a tablish a tablish a tablish at tablish a tablish at tabli ing everything into consideration, Dai-las has done more building than any standard. Ten thousand persons attended the opening of the ladies' centennial tea party, in the exposition building at Cincinnati. The proceeds go to the Ohio branch of the centennial com-mission. The halls were tastefully ar-ranged, and books representing the principal countries of the world were opened. Many of the costumes were imported from Europe for the occa-sion. The affair is to be continued during the weak and nearborks. In the directors' meeting in New York city next week. mission. The hais were tastentify ar-ranged, and books representing the principal countries of the world were opened. Many of the costumes were imported from Europe for the occa-sion. The affair is to be continued in New York city next week. during the week and promises to be a -A fifteen thousand dollar fire co-curred at Kansas City yesterday. The great success.

-The Boston Evening Journal states that one of the most prominent law-yers of that city and a former partner of a safe manufacturing company, dis-appeared from that city last Friday, and investigation of his affairs since then has developed the most astound-ing dishonesty on his part, involving

-France, Austria, Italy, Belgium

-The anniversary of the Union Li-brary Society of Hampden, Sidney Col-lege, Virginia, will take place on the sth of June next.

-Two commissioners will be appointed to represent France at the Philadelphia centennial. One is to reside in the United States and the other in France. carpet weavers, in resolving to send no goods to the Philadelphia exhibi-

Was autually furned out of the houses of opmound and present, that unless some unforces in the point of distinguished people. It is however, no insult was leveled at his royal highness. He was ejected, with the obters, simply as a "stranger, and in conformity with the old rate of the house that if a member explex autoing the base that if a member explex autoing the base that if a member explex autoing the house of the house that if a member explex autoing the house of the house that if a member explex autoing the there are a stranger, and in conformity with the old rate of the states and and delegation took the prime they formed in line. The state of affairs at Reinosa, not withstanding the stationing of eavairy of the base that if a member explex autoing the they contract the speaker must at once order them to be removed.
 Mass M. JEXNIK YOUNO, of Houston, one off the brightest gems in all Texas womanhood, Texas member of the "Women'a Centernial Kxeentive committe, "A mass and between Charage and Matamoras, is a said commentary on the ability of the Mexicang overnamentary on the ability of the maxicanded press induced their to the special is and and delegation to to wait at the finange as the indiange as and commentary on the ability of the Mexicang overnamentary of the adventary and they were adventant and the delegation to the the transformity with the old the of the special term and the delegation to the the trease astrates overe and the transformity wi proper decisions of the state govern-

-A Kansas City dispatch says farmers from various parts of Jackson and Clay counties continue to bright news of the ravages of grasshoppers. The grass has been nearly destroyed, and white, but stick as they plucked from the prairies. improved by the addition of better blood; liberal premiums offered by state fairs for the best stock will in-duce the breeders of other states to and wheat and oats have suffered ter-ribly. The only salvation is their de-parture, which many are making. Thousands are dying, the ground being covered in many places. The crops in Kansas beyond the western tier of counties are excellent.

self, while the train was standing at Madison station, five miles from Nash-ville. It is reported that the soldiers are not seriously hurt. On the arrival of the train in that city the Indian was

There is no state in the union, in our judgment, where life and property are safer. We say this in perty are safer. We say this in justice to the people of Texas, who, we believe, are not properly under-stood. We admit that we have a higher appreciation of the intelli-gence of her people; of their en-terprise and public spirit; of their moral character, and of the re-ter the people of the intermeter of mankind, and which are visibly stamped with the image of crape and mourning goods have been discovered as having extended through the past two years in the ap-praisers' department of the custom house, and one of the examiners has realigned sources of that great state, which must, from her vast extent of terri-tory, her genial clime, her producttory, her genial clime, her product-tory, her genial clime, her product-ive soil, her great mineral wealth, her vest fields of lumber, her man-ufacturing resources, her commercial -At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Missouri, Kansas advantages-yet become the great empire state of the nation. image and the superscription of God. His mind was one of those rare gifts

A Poor Opinion of Red Cloud.

The Cheyenne Leader says of the noble reds now on their way to Washington : Professor Marsh may or may not be as good a "fossi sharp" as he is a judge of the veracity of an Indian, but he is making himself ridiculous in trying to im press upon those who will consent to be bored by him that Red Cloud is a truthful, reliable man. We in Wyoming know this distinguished

Indian to be a treacherous murharborer of Indian murderers and thieves. We can instance nurders after murders, since the massacre of Colonel Fetterman and his men in 1866, down to the massacre of Mis. Hall and her niece, in Wind river derer and a treaty-breaker, and a Coloncl Fetterman and his men in 1866, down to the massacre of Mrs. Hall and her nicce, in Wind river valley, by his son-in-law, in 1873. He has violated and encouraged violations of the treaty of 1868, right along since he signed it. Why should Professor Marsh, who has had little or no experience with Indians, the base states of the source of the so

Up to this writing there have passed clay. A philosophic historian, in explor this point, for northern markets, 119,-367 head of cattle this season, and still ing the records of men, has remarks that there are few characters which

There exems to be great rivalry ex-isting between the proprietors of the Commercial hotel on one side, and the Trans-Continental hotel and Fort Worth Democrat on the other. They, the latter, having been so vituperative against the character of General Peers as to arouse his anger, and now he sues for ten thousand dollars damages. The new and elegant stage coach, "Dallas," arrived this evening laden with passengers. This is her first trip, and she eclipses anything that we have ever seen in the shape of a stage.

Buffalo Gnats-How to Prevent their Attacks.

His mind was one of those rare gilts of nature which is capable of contract-ing itself to the humblest duties or of expanding itself to the highest require-ments of human effort. We see him, the leader of a great party, conde-scending to become the commander of a small origade, and declaring that he was reader to about the humbert with It is estimated, says the Arkansas Grange, that within the past ten days $100,000 worth of stock has been killed by gnats, within a raa small brigade, and declaring that he was ready to shoulder his musket with his sons and become a private in the ranks of an army which he subse-quently commanded. After being sec-retary of war and directing the move-ments of all the armies of a confeder-acy that hundered for four years for peace at the gates of the north, and more than once lighted its camp fires dius of a hundred miles, taking Memphis as a center. It also says that Colonel L. S. Griffith, of Little Rock, has given them permission to publish the following letter from his brother, a druggist : I send you a recipe for preventing nore than once lighted its camp fires the attacks of the "buffalo gnats. in the foreground of Washington, he offers his services to the sheriff of Fay-ette county to put down the petty dis-out we self during the war, both in southwestern Arkansas and north-

The indication of the stations, "And the stations," as quite a public conversion. This was the magnetic titles and essential, and, while readily disting the indication of the stations," as quite a public conversion. This was the magnetic titles all the advantages possessed by the other stations," ple in defense of whom he had shown his with the same intrepid and in.
ple in defense of whom he had fourther titles are experienced.
ple in defense of whom he had shown his with the readily disting the professor is "cracked" a little on this matter, and that it is not from his in the advantages possessed by the other stations."
ple in defense of whom he had shown his with the same intrepid and in.
ple in defense of whom he had shown his with the same intrepid and the readily disting the professor is "cracked" a little on this most able and essential, and, while ready that will be advantages possessed by the other stations."
ple in defense of whom he had shown his with the same intrepid and the same intrepid and the same litter pid and the same to the fuel and the same of the south.
ple in defense of whom he had fourther to adjust of the souther to adjust of the souther to adjust of the souther stations. The same intrepid and the souther stations is the same intrepid and the souther stations.
Ple in defense of whom he had shown his with the same intrepid and the souther station.
Ple in defense of whom his with the same intrepid and the souther station.
Ple in defense of whom his with the same intrepid and the souther station.
Ple in defense of whom his with the same intrepid and the souther station.
Ple in defense of whom his with the same intrepid and the souther station.
Ple in defense in the same intrepid and the souther station.
Ple in the same intrepid and the souther station.
Ple in the same intrepid and the souther station.
Ple in the same intrepid and the souther station.
Ple in the same int

fire broke out in the American express stables, a light frame building, on Grand avenue and Fifth street, imme-Grand avenue and Fifth street, imme-diately wrapping it in flames. The ouilding was stored with grain, hay, four wagons and ten horses. All were lost but the two horses nearest the door. Two other frame buildings were burned, one a carriage factory and the other a carpenter shop. The whole loss is fifteen thousand dollars. All the insurance is not over three thousand dollars. neavy losses to many persons.

and Deumark are all in the same boat in regard to Prussia. Each one has a quarrel against her, and each one a good reason to apprehend the continuance of Prussian supremacy in Europe. United these powers can whip Prussia, even with Russia behind her.

THE action of the Kidderminster