Yours of the 9th inst. west duly received. A remarkable wine was effected by the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam, in the winter and spring of 1835. The person, Mr. Moody, had been sick a long time with the consumption. His physician had iven him up. He was reduced so low as to be unable to help inself, and was raising a large quantity of blood when he commenced using the Balsam, which effected a complete cure, nit he is now as hale and hearty as he ever was. Mr. Moody as removed from this town, but he has promised me with a more detailed account of his case which I will forward you.
