

REDDING FONDLY CONTEMPLATES LAND SCHEME OF EAST MAGNET

THE AIM TO PROVIDE AN ELYSIUM TO WHICH THE TRULY CULTURED WILL FLOCK.

Incidentally There's Wealth in it for Present Land Owners—Welcome Highbrows, Avant Highballs—No Trolley, Hotel or Factory, But Only Rural Beauty and Repose.

Redding, Jan. 9.—A land project now widening in its scope and almost bewildering in its ambitions and idealistic character has lately become an engaging part of the serious attention of a good part of Redding's citizens.

Several meetings have been held, each with an enlarging circle of the initiate who pledged themselves to secrecy until the injunction was removed.

Broadly speaking the plan seeks to preserve and even enhance the town's natural landscape attractions and to enlarge the population by the addition of desirable citizens only, preserving in this respect the exclusiveness which still pertains to the community.

The grand project had its inception in the brain of Joseph Tomlinson, a brother of Mrs. D. S. Sanford. He was formerly an editorial writer on leading Western papers and is now vice president and general manager of the Cox Multi-Mallor Co. of Chicago.

Mr. Tomlinson next draws a gloomy picture if outside speculators, actuated by greed, acquire large tracts of the land and dispose of it indiscriminately to all comers.

Mr. Tomlinson next draws a gloomy picture if outside speculators, actuated by greed, acquire large tracts of the land and dispose of it indiscriminately to all comers.

Mr. Tomlinson next draws a gloomy picture if outside speculators, actuated by greed, acquire large tracts of the land and dispose of it indiscriminately to all comers.

Mr. Tomlinson next draws a gloomy picture if outside speculators, actuated by greed, acquire large tracts of the land and dispose of it indiscriminately to all comers.

Mr. Tomlinson next draws a gloomy picture if outside speculators, actuated by greed, acquire large tracts of the land and dispose of it indiscriminately to all comers.

Mr. Tomlinson next draws a gloomy picture if outside speculators, actuated by greed, acquire large tracts of the land and dispose of it indiscriminately to all comers.

Mr. Tomlinson next draws a gloomy picture if outside speculators, actuated by greed, acquire large tracts of the land and dispose of it indiscriminately to all comers.

rather gaze the hearers. They wondered if it were not an iridescent dream. Its most powerful appeal doubtless lies in the promise of big prices to be realized on the market.

Some also demur to the restrictions proposed in regard to the cutting of these foresting timber obstacles to getting fire wood and timber.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor of the Farmer, Sir: In your issue of December 29, an article appeared headed "Want Medical Inspection in Public Schools."

The modesty and disinterestedness of these philanthropic gentlemen is plainly shown in their demand for that insignificant amount.

Who wants this medical inspection? Have the parents objected? What is the real object of this sudden awakening to the dangers that beset our school children?

What good will be accomplished by saddling this additional expense upon the tax payers? What particular evil will this inspection business discover, invent or destroy?

Have the people of the city demanded any supervision as these gentlemen presume to lay upon us (provided they are well paid for it)?

It is because the good sense of the Board of Education deprived them of the opportunity of securing vaccination fees, that they seek this means of recompensing themselves?

The fact that seventy four other cities have adopted the system argues nothing in its favor; other cities have compelled vaccination as a condition of admission to school; but that does not prove it to be right.

If the Board of Health would devote their energies to the proper work of their office, attend to the cleaning up of the many filthy places in our city, and encourage a compliance with well known sanitary requirements, they would be doing more towards warding off epidemics than they can by exercising their scientific mania for hunting the bugs in school children's heads and the germs in their noses.

One-half of the appropriation asked for medical inspection could be expended in furnishing our teachers with some of the many excellent magazines which teach true hygiene, and our janitors were compelled to observe strictly the necessary sanitary rules in the care of school houses, more definite good could be accomplished.

In plain English, is this another means of putting the people in the power of this medical oligarchy, and securing so much graft?

Will this system be of any great assistance to the people in the various tuberculosis hospitals?

E. H. DILLON & CO. 1105 Main St.

Table with columns for 'Of Furs, Scarfs, Fur Muffs, Fur Sets', 'Greatest Bargains ever offered', and 'SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE'. Lists various fur items and their prices.

THE THEATRES

SMITH'S

The half week's engagement of "The Man of the Hour" closes with this evening's performance, and those who have not yet seen the play should be sure to avail themselves of this last opportunity to see one of the strongest dramatic offerings with which this city has ever been favored.

THINGS IN FEATHERS

There will be over 500 birds in the show of the Bridgeport Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock Association at Lincoln Hall, Tuesday Evening Jan. 12.

The fanciers, of course, are conversant with the many different kinds of birds, but to most people "chickens is chickens" just as "eggs is eggs," and to that class of patrons the show will be a disappointment.

BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED FOR WEEK

Aggregate $28,370

Building permits were issued last night with an aggregate value of $28,370, as follows:

John C. Claska and Michael Trisay, six family farm dwelling, south side of Ogden street.

George C. Johnson, frame barn, east side of Elmwood avenue.

C. Louis Bill, one family frame dwelling, north side of Livingston street.

E. A. and M. A. May, six family frame dwelling, south side of Cherry street.

C. C. Thompson, one family frame dwelling, south side of Park place.

McFarlane Bros., one story brick addition to factory, south side of State street extension.

E. W. and G. H. Griffin, one family frame dwelling, north side of Jewitt avenue.

Samuel Horwitz, one story frame addition for store, east side of Main street.

THE SPIRIT OF WINTER

The Spirit of Winter is with us, making its presence known in many different ways—sometimes by cheery sunshine and glittering snows, and sometimes by driving winds and blinding storms.

VALUABLE HORSES DISPOSED OF AT AUCTION

On Thursday, A. Elwood & Son, Inc., the auctioneers, sold all the valuable colts and blooded stock at Ridge-wood Farm, which is conducted by Messrs. Rundle & White, at Danbury.

POLI'S

A thoroughly splendid bill has been arranged by Manager Poli for his Bridgeport patrons for next week.

CASTORIA

The finest, brightest and cleanest place in town, thoroughly renovated and refitted and strictly up to date.

THE THEATRES

SMITH'S

The half week's engagement of "The Man of the Hour" closes with this evening's performance, and those who have not yet seen the play should be sure to avail themselves of this last opportunity to see one of the strongest dramatic offerings with which this city has ever been favored.

THINGS IN FEATHERS

There will be over 500 birds in the show of the Bridgeport Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock Association at Lincoln Hall, Tuesday Evening Jan. 12.

The fanciers, of course, are conversant with the many different kinds of birds, but to most people "chickens is chickens" just as "eggs is eggs," and to that class of patrons the show will be a disappointment.

BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED FOR WEEK

Aggregate $28,370

Building permits were issued last night with an aggregate value of $28,370, as follows:

John C. Claska and Michael Trisay, six family farm dwelling, south side of Ogden street.

George C. Johnson, frame barn, east side of Elmwood avenue.

C. Louis Bill, one family frame dwelling, north side of Livingston street.

E. A. and M. A. May, six family frame dwelling, south side of Cherry street.

C. C. Thompson, one family frame dwelling, south side of Park place.

McFarlane Bros., one story brick addition to factory, south side of State street extension.

E. W. and G. H. Griffin, one family frame dwelling, north side of Jewitt avenue.

Samuel Horwitz, one story frame addition for store, east side of Main street.

THE SPIRIT OF WINTER

The Spirit of Winter is with us, making its presence known in many different ways—sometimes by cheery sunshine and glittering snows, and sometimes by driving winds and blinding storms.

VALUABLE HORSES DISPOSED OF AT AUCTION

On Thursday, A. Elwood & Son, Inc., the auctioneers, sold all the valuable colts and blooded stock at Ridge-wood Farm, which is conducted by Messrs. Rundle & White, at Danbury.

POLI'S

A thoroughly splendid bill has been arranged by Manager Poli for his Bridgeport patrons for next week.

CASTORIA

The finest, brightest and cleanest place in town, thoroughly renovated and refitted and strictly up to date.

SMITH, MURRAY & CO.

Table with columns for 'SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE' and 'PYROGRAPHY DEPARTMENT'. Lists various goods and their prices.

SMITH, MURRAY & CO.

Sam Harris' Values are Famous. Get Wise. Pants Sale. $2, $3, $4, $5 Pants now $1.65 and $2.65.

CONN. OFFICE & LIBRARY SUPPLY HOUSE

FURNITURE, STATIONERY and SUPPLIES. For the Business Office and Home Library. Cor. Fairfield Ave. and Water St. Tele 1237-2.

NEWSY NOTES OF NEWTOWN

Charles Glover is critically ill at his home on the Boulevard Dr. F. J. Gale is in attendance.

THE COURTLAND SCHOOL

431 Washington Ave. A few vacancies open for Jan. 1, to be filled in the order of application to the secretary.

LOUISE WOODSIDE

Order of Notice. CLARENCE WOODSIDE, State of Connecticut, Plaintiff vs. FAIRFIELD COUNTY, ss. SUPERIOR COURT.

FRED W. TRACY

Asst. Clerk of the Superior Court for Fairfield County. Order of Notice. CLARENCE WOODSIDE, State of Connecticut, Plaintiff vs. FAIRFIELD COUNTY, ss. SUPERIOR COURT.

FRED W. TRACY

Asst. Clerk of the Superior Court for Fairfield County. Order of Notice. CLARENCE WOODSIDE, State of Connecticut, Plaintiff vs. FAIRFIELD COUNTY, ss. SUPERIOR COURT.

ARLINGTON HOTEL

25th St., Near Broadway, New York. NEW MODERN FIREPROOF. Most conveniently located, just away from the noise, in the centre of the shopping, theatre and hotel district.

THE MAN WHO DOES NOT

Advertise is "not in it." The names which stick in the public mind, are those of the advertisers—those who let their light shine.