EMPEROR'S FAVORITE SEEKS A DIVORCE

MRS. BURKE, ACTRESS WITH VARIED CAREER, WANTS FREEDOM FROM FARM HAND.

(Special from United Press.)

Taunton, Mass., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Emma Lynden Balabrega Burke, the one time beautiful Rainham, Mass., girl who became an actress of world wide fame and who set charms Emperor Dom Pedro of Brazil that he was known to be greatly in love with her, is seeking to divorce her husband, James F. Burke of Pittsfield. She charges Burke with being a confirmed drunkard. When Emma Balabrega was married to Burke, the latter was employed by her late brother Thomas Hawes of this city.

The once feted favorite was born a plain farmer's daughter in the town of Rainham. She spent a great part of her life in Providence. There she met and married Balabrega. They traveled the world in sleight of hand and "second sight" performances. When Balabrega and his wife visited Rio Janeiro and gave a performance Dom Pedro was in the Royal box. He was amused by the tricks and charmed by the beauty of the woman. Night after night he heard her singing and she was commanded to the Royal palace. There she was loaded with gems.

When Dom Pedro fled an exile to Portugal where he died in misery a few years later the Balabregas fled the country too and later returned to New York where most of their jewelry and possessions disappeared—stolen said the former favorite. Balabrega did not return until his wife came back to Taunton and became the wife of Burke.

Now the former favorite of an Emperor is suing for divorce from her farmhand husband.

RESUMES USE OF HATTERS' LABEL

DANBURY MAKER REQUESTS ITS RESTORATION WHICH IS GRANTED.

(Special from United Press.)

Danbury, Jan. 18.—The first break in the hatters' strike situation came today and was in the nature of a victory for the men. J. B. Murphy & Co.'s factory which had acted with the other national association shops in dropping the label asked to have the union insignia reinstated. This was done and work resumed in the place near a union shop.

Murphy explained his action saying that the label had been dropped while he was away on a business trip. He is a member of the local manufacturers' associations, he says, which has no grievance against the union but is not a member of the National Hat Manufacturers' association which dropped the union label. Consequently on his return to-day he says he asked that the label be put back.

The Murphy factory is a small one employing about 15 men but it is thought it will have some effect on the situation.

BITTER SUFFERING IN NEW YORK

Extreme Cold and Many Fires Add to Hardships.

(Special from United Press.)

New York, Jan. 18.—The mid-winter terror, near zero temperature and fire, are adding to the hardships of the present blizzard which holds New York and vicinity in its grasp. Twenty families were driven from shelter by a tenement fire in East 38th street early to-day. One woman was fatally burned, her husband was badly hurt and others suffered while making their way down an ice covered fire-escape.

A conflagration in a West 35th St. apartment house sent ten families scurrying to the street.

In Brooklyn a tenement fire drove ten families to the roof for safety. Police and firemen rescued them in a half frozen condition. The ice covered streets delayed the fire apparatus and weather ten degrees above zero was made to feel by the firemen. Coatings of ice have pulled down the fire alarm system in many suburbs.

Fearing big conflagrations, Chief Crocker ordered the firemen to patrol duty in their districts all during the storm. All sorts of traffic has been made dangerous.

Weather Indications.

(Special from United Press.)

New Haven, Jan. 18.—Forecast: Light snow and warmer to-night. Wednesday fair and warmer.

A slight disturbance central this morning over Lake Superior is producing cloudy weather with light snow in the Lake region. Pleasant weather prevails in the central section. The lowest temperature reported was 26 degrees below at Northfield, Vt. The temperature is rising this morning in the central sections.

KIERNAN FAILS TO REACH NEW YORK

HEAD OF FIDELITY CO. HEARD FROM IN PITTSBURG AND SAID HE WAS COMING.

(Special from United Press.)

New York, Jan. 18.—Patrick J. Kiernan for whom the police of every city in the country have been searching since December 9 because of his alleged high financial operations in managing the Fidelity Funding Company, and who surrendered to the police of Pittsburg, Pa., last night, did not arrive here this morning as he had told the police he intended. The conductor of the Pennsylvania train said he had no passenger of Kiernan's description.

The New York police said to-day that they had information of any outstanding warrant for Kiernan and any attempt to apprehend him would have to come from the district attorney.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Louis Sajoos, the well known vocal instructor of New York City and who teaches at the Bridgeport Art League on Wednesdays is recognized as one of the leading chrysothymus and vocal organs in the United States. Many singers who are before the public today, attribute their success to his accurate instruction of voice placing and tone production.

Henry H. Jennings, Jr., assistant manager of the Hartford Opera House and son of Henry H. Jennings, proprietor of the theater, is ill at his home, No. 112 Ann street, in Hartford, as the result of an attack of cerebral hemorrhage. His condition was somewhat improved to-day.

SUSPEND BUSINESS FOR CONSUL'S FUNERAL

(Special from United Press.)

New Haven, Jan. 18.—A plan was set on foot here to-day by Alderman P. S. Cunningham to suspend all business in the city for half a day when the funeral of the late consul at Messina, Arthur S. Cheney, is held. The bodies have been shipped to this country on the U. S. S. Ajax and are expected at his home here within two weeks.

CELEBRATE POE'S ANNIVERSARY

(Special from United Press.)

New Haven, Jan. 19.—The 100th anniversary of the birth of Edgar Allan Poe is being celebrated at all the public schools here to-day and to-night Yale will hold commemorative exercises of the great American poet and short story writer. Several readings from Poe will be given. Professors Hooker and C. S. Baldwin will tell of Poe as the poet and artist respectively.

MASTER PRINTERS DINE FOR 20TH TIME

Postmaster Wm. H. Marigold Presides as Toastmaster.

The twentieth annual banquet of the Connecticut Typothetae was held, last night, at the Stratfield, at which were present most of the leading master printers of the state and a large number from New York city and other places. Postmaster William H. Marigold acted as toastmaster in a most capable manner.

President Wilson H. Lee was introduced as the greatest farmer in the state. He told the gathering that it was one of the local captains of industry who had erected the hotel in which they were banqueting. He said that he wished New Haven had such men as Mr. Wheeler.

General Russell Frost paid a tribute to Mr. Marigold, remarking that he was toastmaster at the first banquet he attended in Connecticut twenty years ago, and that there never had been a banquet given in the city since that time that Marigold was not at the head of the table. Mr. Isaac H. Blanchard next spoke on the schedule of costs for the members and its necessity. He remarked that the reason for this discrepancy in the bids in contract work was that they were printers first and business men afterwards. Rev. Ernest J. Craft made one of his telling addresses, his theme being the sentimental side of man, of the artisan, as exemplified in the printer and in the home. The humblest artisan was no less a wheel in the onward progress than the minister of the gospel. President Robert Schalkenback of the New York Typothetae said that the association could learn a great deal. He thought that it was time the Typothetae should get together and demand some of the things the union printers have been fighting for. He would like to have shorter hours for himself for the longer he was in the business the longer were his hours. The following were present:

Everett S. Geer, Hartford; Duane E. Brewer, Bridgeport; James Clark, R. H. Cunningham, R. H. Gillespie, Stamford; W. S. Vanderbeck, Isaac H. Blanchard, W. H. Koush, Robert Schalkenback, William Green, Chas. S. Hadley, B. F. Reese, Edward D. Nesterolo, R. L. Wetnas, New York; E. E. Jameson, George L. Webb, Ernest S. Whitney, C. W. Knight, Boston; F. J. Bennett, George Seltman, Frederick H. Stevens, William H. Marigold, Carl Foster, Rev. E. J. Craft, O. Howard Hall, O. Howard Hall, Jr., J. E. Colgan, M. P. Foster, S. C. Jones, H. C. Oakley, George Bonnell, C. V. Jenks, R. Fredrick Dunham, William J. Morgan, Royal W. Sherwood, W. B. Bishop, B. G. Sashy, Bridgeport; Wilson H. Lee, George M. Adkins, George H. Tuttle, John Scoville, Arthur S. Bradley, Roger W. Tuttle, John H. Taylor, Lewis H. White, Marietta Grouse, Norman Gillette, Edwin F. Peckham, P. F. Norman, George A. Mathews, C. L. Briggs, New Haven; Russell Frost, South Norwalk; J. Henry Turner, New Britain; Charles J. Merrill, J. C. Baeuohle, Hartford; Francis A. Water, Meriden; Edward J. Thomas, Norwalk.

DR. BLUMER TO GIVE DEMONSTRATIONS HERE

Dr. Louis Blumer, a psychopathic physician who attracted considerable attention by his demonstrations at Hartford, last week, came to this city yesterday. Dr. Blumer is one of a force of physicians depending for success on the treatment of disease by psychological methods. It is related that fifty persons responded to the call to step on the stage and twelve of these it is said, were so crippled as to be obliged to enter with crutches, but before she left was able to discard them and walk across the hall unassisted. Another woman deaf and blind was able to describe the man sitting near her after treatment.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulents and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulents bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

Busy people who do not like to lose a day and those to whom time represents money all of them recommend Cyrus Plaster for Backache. Many of them have used this plaster and know from experience and many others have learned from their friends, that Cyrus Plaster gives relief when others have failed. Twenty-five cents will save a day's pay. Cyrus Pharmacy, Fairfield Ave. and Courtland St.

To Philip Sober.

When a woman who asked Philip of Macedon to do her justice was snubbed by the petulant monarch she exclaimed, "Philip, I shall appeal against this judgment."

"Appeal!" thundered the enraged king. "And to whom will you appeal?"

"To Philip sober," was her reply.
