

YALE STUDENTS

IN ROUGH HOUSE

(Special from United Press.) New Haven, June 8.—Four students were fined $5 and costs yesterday for their part in a rough house on a local trolley car coming from Savin Rock last night.

How to Dress a Dog.

A dose of castor oil is as disagreeable to the sitting dog as to the sitting human being. He kicks against it, and the dog right when he is grabbed by the back of the neck, and with his jaws yanked apart with a towel, awaits the nasty dose.

What Patients.

The artist who had found Marabhy full of "palatable" places and friendly people was much attracted by one of the young women of the village, whom he met at a social gathering.

From Jail to the Bench.

Francis Pemberton (1803-97) was imprisoned in the Fleet for debts contracted during a period of youthful extravagance. While in jail he applied himself to the study of law and came to be regarded as a kind of legal oracle by his fellow prisoners, who nicknamed him Counselor.

The Oldest Paper Books.

What is believed by antiquaries to be the oldest paper book in existence is the "Red Book of Lynn," an ancient register belonging to the corporation of King's Lynn, England.

Terse About.

An Irish doctor was asked to attend a patient on Tory Island, off the Irish mainland. The doctor said that he was willing to go, but that the fee would be £2 ($10), payable in advance.

An Unfair Fling.

Mrs. Wickwire—If woman were given the credit she deserves, I don't think man would be quite so prominent in the world's history. Mr. Wickwire—I expect you are right. If she could get all the credit she wanted, he'd be in the porchouse.

A Funny Will.

Comforting Friend—Has your husband made his will? Prospective Widow—Yes, the wretch. He's left everything to the doctor if he cures 'im, and not a blessed farthing to his widdler an' orphans.

Interested.

An English magazine tells a court story. A counsel in the middle of his cross examination was handed a telegram. "Hello," he said, as he read it. "So-and-so has won the Derby." "Mr. A.," said the judge severely, "it is very unseemly that in the course of solemn judicial proceedings, where a man's liberty and reputation are at stake, you should be talking of the winner of a horse race. Be—by the way, does the telegram say which were second and third?"

The Weight of the World.

A cubic foot of earth weighs about five and a half times as much as a cubic foot of water. A cubic mile of earth then weighs 25,649,800,000 tons. The volume of the earth is 259,880,000,000 cubic miles. The weight of the world without its atmosphere is 4,699,250,000,000,000,000 tons.

Next Answer.

"A woman's bonnet would not cost much if it wasn't for the trimming," said the miserly husband. "Neither would a man's whiskers," answered his wife.—Chicago News.

Beauty is the Face of the Soul.

Beauty is the face of the soul, as the light is the face of the sun. Beauty is the face of the soul, as the light is the face of the sun.

Strange Reward For Life Savers.

"I have seen a good many drowning accidents," said an old sea captain, "and I have seen a good many queer rewards. Once a young man rescued a young widow's little son from the sea. The widow, in her gratitude, asked for the young man's photograph. He sent it to her, and two months later he received a magnificent painting, by Smith, that showed the scene of the rescue accurately, with the little boy and him, both perfect likenesses, struggling like mad in the water.
