OUDDLING A SMOKY, SMUTTY NUISANCE

Springfield has abated the smoky nuisance, and without injury to its interests as a city. Factories and railroads have been required to quit blackening the town and have obeyed.

And look at Hartford! We have belching volcanoes all over town. Ede out to Prospect Hill and see the cloud that hangs over the city.

Bridgeport can sympathize with Hartford, and equally with it, covet the smokeless condition of Springfield.

The stidding of automobiles at Flint's corner is now getting to be an almost daily occurrence. People are wondering what can be the matter. Heretofore this has not been considered a dangerous turn in the road.

In his weekly letter, Banker Henry Clews attributes "the rising tide of confidence" in part to "lessened opposition towards corporations which, with two or three notable exceptions, are recommending themselves with more regard for public welfare and legal requirements than formerly."

Senator Bulkeley, with a probable eye to the votes of the Connecticut and Housatonic valleys in 1910, when members of the next General Assembly will be elected, delivered a speech in the Senate, Monday, against free trade with the Philippines.

It is not probable that the methods of the English suffragettes have advanced the cause of woman suffrage in England, and there could be no more crushing blow administered to that cause in this country than the adoption of similar methods here.

The present high price of flour has, we are authoritatively informed, "so checked consumption as to cause supplies to accumulate and force prices out among the mills."

for flour, but to also so reduce consumption as to embarrass the flour mills. And all this merely to line the pockets of a few Chicago gamblers in wheat! The dear public is mulcted on every side.

When Mayor Reynolds withdrew his candidacy for re-nomination two years ago, his action was practically forced by his party's fear that the odium of the twenty year water contract would prevent his re-election.

The foundation cause of the two distinguishing marks of the Reynolds and Lee administrations, is that the Republican party itself is on the side of the corporations as against the people.

Skidding—Arrival of Mr. Perry—Beach Notes—Surprise Party—Looking for Trouble—About Schools—Entertainments—The Stars.

The skidding of automobiles at Flint's corner is now getting to be an almost daily occurrence. People are wondering what can be the matter. Heretofore this has not been considered a dangerous turn in the road.

Mrs. Julia Watts Morris Curtis is expected at her Sasco Hill place today from New York. It is denied that the place is in the market for sale.

There was a report in town yesterday to the effect that a large number of young men came out on Monday evening from Bridgeport, looking for trouble. The origin of the difficulty is in the market for sale.

The Hawthorne, a beach hotel run by the Malcolms, will open tomorrow for the reception of guests. A cottage at the beach known as Sunny Side Inn has taken possession of yesterday by its owners.

Mrs. F. D. Hotchkiss has returned from a visit to Waterbury. The carpenter work for the new and large shipping room for the Fairfield Rubber company has been completed.

a little toddy is a wonderful help and invigorator—but if you want something rich and delicious say to the man "a little mark rogers, please"; you'll be delighted and will smack your lips with satisfaction.

Miss Dorothy Hard has finished her visit and returned to Bridgeport. Wilton Hotchkiss is sporting a new wheel—a Pope-Hartford.

Considerable satisfaction is expressed over the action of the School Board on Monday in increasing the salaries of a number of teachers that their services may be retained for the next school year.

Friday afternoon, at her beautiful country seat, "Walding," Mrs. Mabel Osgood Wright will open her house to the executive board of the Audubon Society of Connecticut.

In the Fairfield Stars the town has a team of which it can well be proud. They have played together for three successive seasons and all are clean cut young men.

CUTICURA MET WITH ITS USUAL SUCCESS

"I have two little girls who have been troubled very badly with eczema. One of them had it on her lower limbs. I did everything that I could hear of for her, but it did not seem to do any good until I used Cuticura Ointment."

Cuticura Ointment is one of the most successful remedies for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, in infants, children and adults, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with it, preceded by hot bath, will cure itching, scaly humors, eczemas, irritations and inflammations, permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy cure when all else fails.
