SPECTER AMONG NEGROES OF SOUTH NOW COCAINE

America's Worst Drug Habit Has Made Great Inroads With More Menacing Portent Than Whisky

CHIEF PROVOCATIVE OF RAPE Courier Commission Finds Growing Dope Addiction is Becoming the Most Frequent Cause for the Lynching Bee—Contractors Use "Coke" to Spur Laborers.

Chicago, July 20.—Inroads of the cocaine habit, which the Courier Commission has found to be the American curse as opium is the curse of China and hemp of India, have recently developed a new and ominous phase of the race problem in the United States, particularly in the South.

"Cocaine now ranks with whiskey as the chief provocative of rape and its consequences lynching in the South," declares Charles W. Collins and John Day of the commission in a preliminary report just published in full by the Chicago magazine "Everyday Life."

They add: "Already among the 'friends' and the policemen who have to deal with them, there is talk of 'the new field.' The phrase, with its commercial suggestion, comes from the dealers in the drugs, retailers and perhaps wholesalers also. Every 'friend' it should be said, is more than likely to be a peddler of the 'stuff,' taking his commission in the same miserly that he distributes. This 'new field' is among the brutalized negroes of the South, who, denied easy access to liquor by the prohibition movement, are turning to drugs as a substitute."
