Our local baseball team has recently reorganized and will soon play the Beacon Falls team.

Owing to the fact that some horses hitched to a team gave a sudden jerk, the team collided with a passing trolley, bound for the hot distant university city of New Haven.

The pole of the team was broken and some damage inflicted upon the trolley. All this happened on Main street near the Leeds residence.

It is said that everybody on Barnum avenue wants the new Hollister Heights school built next door to their lot.

It is thought there may be some hitch about renting the basement of the Neighborhood church for a school room, for it is said that the deed of the land requires that it be used forever for church purposes, otherwise the property reverts to its donor, Mr. Porter.

It is now said that motor boats must have mufflers by October 1. Passengers will also need them if out much later in the season.

The School Board holds a regular meeting the first Monday in each month.

Both Allan Wilson and Edward H. Beers are taking a fortnight's vacation.
