OBLIGED TO SEEK MORE SPACIOUS QUARTERS

Having grown out of their quarters on the second floor of the McMahon & Wren building, the Sargent Cigar Company, manufacturers of the famous "Humidor" and mail order and wholesale cigar merchants, have been obliged to seek larger quarters, having succeeded in leasing for a term of years, the location at 232 West Street formerly occupied by J. H. Ludington & Co., which is also in the McMahon & Wren building but on the ground floor. The fact that this enterprising concern has moved into new quarters does not mean that they have done away with the old, but on the other hand they have retained the quarters they now make the "Humidor" or modern cigar chest. What lover of a good cigar has not heard of the "Humidor." This chest is a novelty in itself and the greatest preserver of cigars yet manufactured. Their latest novelty, however, is the "College Humidor" and is for cigarette use. It's a necessity and ought to be in the smoking room of every good student who enjoys the fragrance of a good cigarette. This company also carries "Humidors" of various sizes, from the small one cigar box affair up to the size for hotel and cigar store use. These will be found not only useful for storing and preserving of cigars but most of all a money saver, which is what the universe at large is looking for.

However, the mail order department of this concern is rapidly assuming large proportions, it being principally because of this branch of the business that the new quarters had to be procured. It is an almost every day occurrence for the office force to read orders from patrons in frigid Canada, the far West, and even from the balmy south, where a good smoke is appreciated, to say nothing of the constant streams of orders that flow in from the Eastern States. It is the intention of the company, in fact, orders have been placed with the most popular monthly magazine for the advertising of the mail order branch of this concern, thus bringing to notice all over the world another feature of the varied industries of the Park City.

The Sargent Cigar Company carry the best there is to be obtained in both domestic and imported cigars, which are used exclusively in their mail orders.

FAIRFIELD

The season at Elm Cottage, or the Fresh Air Home, closed today, and the last shipment of children, 24 in number, left for New York on the 8:40 train this morning. The whole number of children who have been cared for since the home opened in June is 106. There has been but one case of sickness, and that was during the very hot days in June. The little girl was sick when she came from the city, but speedily recovered. The children are sent to the home by various benevolent organizations and churches in New York, such as the Bethany M. E. Church, 106th and 35th street; the Warren Goddard House on the East Side; from Mrs. Mary W. Knox of 7th avenue; from Mrs. M. E. Coburn of the King's Daughters; from the Olivet Memorial church; from Rev. Mr. Pirazzini of East 106th street; also from the Sunshine Mission and the Spring Street Presbyterian church. Before the girls returned to their homes this morning all were weighed and it was found some of them had gained seven or eight pounds.

"No more pencils,
No more books,
No more teachers,
With saucy looks."

Now they are going back to school, but some of the girls said yesterday they wished they could remain all summer. Mrs. Tingley, who is in charge of the home, said that the girls persisted in eating, but she has changed her mind, and lets them have all they wish, since no harm has come to them from the indulgence.

Charles Wiley and family left the beach on Wednesday for their home in Hartford.

Stewart Travis, an artist, who has been occupying Camp Maybell cottage, has returned to New York. Before leaving, he visited the Devil's Den, and took various other places, taking a large number of photographs, which he will use as suggestions for future art work.

Jordan and family, of Jordan & Miller, of Bridgeport, have returned to town from their cottage, "The Light."

George Purdy and family, who have been occupying the "Sea Shell" at the beach, returned to New York on Thursday.

David Norman and family of Bridgeport, who have been passing the summer at "Sedgehurst," have returned to the city.

It is understood that Mr. Malcom will keep the Hawthorn Hotel open until the last of this month, and perhaps well into October.

Thursday the Fairfields had a game of baseball with the Austin Juniors of Bridgeport, winning by a score of 3 to 2.

J. C. Neal and family left "Sunny Side" cottage at the beach for New York, last Tuesday.

Miss Charlotte Glover is expected to arrive in New York on Sunday, from a summer in Europe, on the Baltic. The family will go on to meet her, and on Monday evening it is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Glover will give a dance to welcome her home.

A. H. Ross and family have closed their cottage, "Sandmere," for the season.

The schools of the town of Fairfield will re open Tuesday, Sept. 7, with the exception of the 8th grade room at the center. This room will reopen Sept. 13.

Miss Mary Birdseye of Bridgeport, is the guest of Mrs. Bertha Ferris.

A party of fourteen from Bridgeport enjoyed a moonlight drive to Long Hill Monday evening and attended a dance at "Hedley's" hall. All reported an enjoyable time.

Miss Edna Kilbride of Jersey City, is spending a few weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. James Corbett.

Misses May and Alice Donohue of Flushing, L. I., have returned to their home after enjoying one week with Miss Catherine Keating of Palestine.

Michael Keenan of Hawleyville, is in poor health.

P. H. McCarthy is the guest of friends in Holyoke, Mass.

Miss Margaret Lerner is entertaining Miss Mollie Maher of Jersey City.

F. E. McGuire has accepted a position as baggage master at Hawleyville station.

Mrs. R. N. Betts is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Betts of New York.

Miss Miriam Taylor and Miss Jessie Henderson of New York, were Sunday guests of Miss Edith Peck.

GREAT INDUSTRIAL GAIN AT HARTFORD

Statistics Show 7,000 More Persons Now Employed Than Ten Years Ago

Hartford, Sept. 3.—Industrial and other statistics, which the board of trade has been gathering for the past ten days, are now sufficiently complete to show the prosperous stride Hartford has developed on the basis of the depression. They show that practically every factory in town is again on full time and that 17 concerns are on overtime in one or more of their departments. The consensus of opinion of the local chiefs of industry relative to the future business outlook is highly optimistic. The reports received by the board of trade, coupled with the building operations since January, and the banking conditions indicate that Hartford is entering upon a period of prosperity akin to that which prevailed prior to the panic. Orders are constantly coming in in all branches of trade, thus insuring permanent employment for the thousands of factory hands during the winter and spring.

The statistics were procured from forty factories, giving employment to 14,000 hands. They show that there are at least 7,000 more workmen employed in local industries than there were ten years ago, thus illustrating the steady growth of the city as a manufacturing center, besides indicating the chief source of the additions to our population.

Building operations since January 1 cost approximately $2,000,000. Of this total over one-half of $1,457,900 has been for dwellings and apartments which more than anything else indicate the growth of the community. There have been erected 143 one or two-family houses at a cost of $391,100, and 67 tenements or apartments, the expenditure for which has been $556,800. These figures show the popularity of the one and two-family house as against tenements. The tendency is away from tenement life and toward the cottage type of dwelling.

Factories and storehouses to the number of six and value of $190,000 have been erected; alterations cost $199,845, and public buildings $250,000. The total cost of building construction during 1908 was only $3,107,348, the total number of dwellings erected being 117. A comparison of figures shows that dwelling house operations for the first six months of this year are about one-third larger than they were for the entire period of 1908. The number of tenements and apartments to the number of 67 were erected in 1908, exactly the number constructed during the first half of the present year.

HALL BRINGS SUIT AGAINST WOODMONT

Claims $72 Due Him in Connection With Firebug Search Last Spring.

As a result of the serving of papers on Clerk Carl F. Schlicht of Woodmont yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Will in connection with a suit against the Woodmont association for the sum of $72 which he claims is due for services rendered in connection with the firebug search last spring, Elmer Hall will not have his case taken up by the board of wardens and burgesses as has been planned at the meeting to be held in Woodmont to-morrow night. The case was to have been given a hearing, and possibly settled to-morrow night, but on account of this case, which comes up before the Milford town court on September 12, the officials will leave the matter over until that date before acting any further upon it.

No new cases of typhoid were reported yesterday in the borough, and the case of all those who are ill were reported quite favorable. Those in the hospitals are also doing well. No milk licenses have been issued yet, but they are being printed now and will soon be given out. In the meanwhile Dr. Hartshorn has been busy looking into conditions and making inspections of milk being served in the borough.

Because of a disagreement between the officials of the Woodmont association and those of Milford regarding the amount which should be rebated to it from the assessment taxes paid by the association to the town for the coming year no result was reached at the meeting held Wednesday night. Last year the association paid taxes of $7,500 and received $4,000, and this year $4,500 was demanded while the town officials offered $4,000, and no compromise could be effected. The association officials are still hoping they will get the sum asked if it is said they may make a fight in court to determine to what they are entitled.
