An experimental supply of poslam may be obtained free of charge by writing to the Emergency Laborator- 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York.

Detective Warning On Envelope Game

The detective department issues a warning just at this time for people to beware of the so-called envelope game which it has reason to fear may be tried here again in the near future. This game is usually worked by a man who comes in and asks to have a twenty dollar bill in exchange for $20 in small bills as he wants to send it away in a letter. He gets the twenty and passing over the bills which are counted amount to but $19 and when told of this he expresses surprise and suggests that he go out and get the extra dollar from the nearest bank. He sent him in. Meanwhile he has sealed the envelope, presumably containing the twenty dollar bill and taking the nineteen dollars gives the sealed envelope to the victim to hold. He fails to come back and on opening the envelope it is found that there is nothing but paper inside, the twenty dollar bill having gone with the man.

His skull was fractured and both legs were broken. It is believed that he stepped off a moving train.

Holds World's Records

De Palma to Drive Fiat Cyclone Against Time at Danbury Fair.

Ralph DePalma, who is conceded to be the greatest track driver of automobiles in the world, will be at the Danbury Fair Saturday, Oct. 9, having signed a contract to that effect with the fair management. De Palma holds all world's track records from one to twenty-five miles, and will make attempts against his own one and five mile figures at the fair. He drives a Fiat cyclone, the most powerful of its weight in the world, and as this will be its first appearance in Connecticut there will be an immense gathering of motorists from all over the state to see him whip the corners and burn up the stretches.

Tuesday, Oct. 5 and Saturday, Oct. 9, are Automobile days at the Danbury Fair. Today's events include parades, sports and races, and Saturday's program is confined to races and speed trials against time. Alex S. McLean, of Danbury, who has charge of these events, being assisted in an advisory capacity by Fred J. Wagner, the most widely known and successful promoter of automobile races in the country, and although the entries for the big races do not close until Oct. 6, the classes are filling fast and nearly every manufacturer who maintains a racing outfit will have his fastest cars and best drivers at the Danbury Fair Saturday, Oct. 9, as the races are sanctioned by the American Automobile Association and will be conducted under their rules.

SEE THE FLEET.

The mighty fleet of warships assembled in New York for the Hudson-Fulton Celebration attracts thousands and thousands of visitors each day. The Hudson River is thronged with excursion boats from early morning until toward midnight, the decks crowded with sightseers. This gathering of battleships, the greatest of its kind ever in the New World, is one of the most interesting spectacles of the Hudson-Fulton Celebration.

That Bridgeport folks may have the opportunity to view the fleet, the steamer Bridgeport will make a special trip to New York next Sunday, stopping at Pier 70, East River, and thence encircling the battleships. The Bridgeport excursionists will be particularly interested in viewing the battleship Connecticut which but recently returned from her round the world cruise. The Bridgeport in her voyage up the Hudson will pass very closely to the Connecticut and the other warships, enabling all the passengers to obtain an intimate view of the great ships.

The trip will be of considerable educational value to children. They will have the opportunity of comparing the fighting vessels of foreign countries with those of the United States.

GENERAL HUBBARD BACKS UP PEARY IN POLE DISPUTE

General Thomas H. Hubbard, president of the Arctic club, took strong sides with Robert E. Peary in the latter's contention that Dr. Cook never reached the North pole.

General Thomas H. Hubbard, president of the Arctic club, took strong sides with Robert E. Peary in the latter's contention that Dr. Cook never reached the North pole. General Hubbard went to Eagle lake with the commander and went over the public statement that Peary drew up with the idea of disputing Cook's claims. The main points of Peary's contention are that Cook was insufficiently equipped, that the speed he alleges he made over the ice was impossible and that the Eskimos deny that Cook went out of sight of land in the direction of the pole.

CAUGHT IN TRAP SET BY MOORS

Two Hundred Spanish Troops Including General Vicaris, Wiped Out Today

MAIN COLUMN FALLS BACK

(Special from United Press.) Melilla, Oct. 1.—The hundred Spanish troops, headed by General Diez Vicaris were wiped out by the Moors in a reconnaissance near Zelwon today. The Spanish were caught in the trap set by the Moors when they abandoned Mt. Gurguru and retired almost entirely from the peninsula of Melilla.

The leaders of the Spanish forces were convinced when they occupied Mt. Gurguru without resistance that the rebellion was almost over. An attack by the Moors, made as soon as the Spaniards had cleared the ridges, soon undeceived them. General Vicaris and his column advanced from the Gurguru ridge for several miles without a single tribesman. Upon reaching the plateau where the force was stationed the Spaniards were attacked and the Moors wiped out the advance column of 200, among them General Vicaris, the main column falling back. The Spaniards retired to the shelter of the fortifications on Melilla peninsula.

MOROCCAN TRIBESMEN TO JOIN THE REBELS.

Paris, Oct. 1.—It is rumored in officialdom here that the Moroccan tribesmen are gathering in force at Tazet and are expected to join the troops at Melilla. Large numbers of tribesmen from the interior are expected to join the rebels.

NEGRO WHO WROTE SEVEN LANGUAGES DIES AT FIFTY

EDWARD S. STEPHENS HAD FOR YEARS CONDUCTED SCHOOL FOR COLORED CHILDREN OF CITY.

A black man with a wonderful mind who has lived in partial obscurity in this city for several years, died yesterday at his home in Lafayette street. He was Edward S. Stephens, formerly of Georgetown, British Guiana, and America. He spoke fluently in five of the modern languages and was a splendid Greek and Latin scholar. For years he was an instructor in a college at Georgetown and why he came north he kept to himself. Coming from a country where the negro stands on an equal footing with the white man, when he immigrated he came to Connecticut to avoid the chagrin he knew would be his if he went to any of the Southern States.

He devoted his time to a little school he established in the old fashioned white house at the head of Gilbert street, in Lafayette street. It was for negro children, and Mrs. Stevens conducted a school in domestic science for colored girls. Of his fine education he never made much use after coming to Bridgeport. Besides Greek and Latin, he could read and write in English, Spanish, Dutch, French and Portuguese. He had dreams of some day returning to Georgetown. He was an attendant at the First Baptist church and there were many members of the church society who knew of his attainments. The deceased was 50 years of age and had been ill for several weeks. Besides a wife he is survived by a son.

MODEL FOOD MARKET PRIOR TO REMOVAL OFFERS RARE BARGAINS

Within a short time Louis Isenburgh's Big Model Food Market will be a bigger and a more model market than ever. This important change will take place when the concern gets in its new location in Main street in the heart of the shopping district and where the city bakery now is. Mr. Isenburgh has had his eye on a Main street location for a long time and in gaining the premises he has, shows marked business sagacity. It is no easy matter to get on center Main street these days as everyone in the city not already there is looking for a location besides innumerable people from outside the city. Having secured a long lease on the city bakery property, there is no doubt that Mr. Isenburgh will do the location justice by establishing there one of the most complete and up-to-date provision houses in the State, and 'Let's run in to Isenburgh's—it's so hot' will be the shoppers' motto.
