HUNTERS FIND GAME PLENTIFUL

Fine Specimens of Woodcock and Partridge

The hunters who took advantage of the first day of the open season yesterday all fared well and reported that there was plenty of woodcock and partridge in these parts. And the best part of it all is the partridge are in good healthy condition and plump. Many of the hunters started flocks of quail but refraining from shooting them because of the feeling among good sportsmen that the quail should be left for a while. Among the hunters who went out yesterday for a tramp through the woods with their dogs and guns were ex-Mayor Frank E. Clark, James Coughlin, Ernest G. Southey, Dr. J. M. Johnson, George Eckart and Thaddeus Adams. All the hunters have their favorite hounds and all were pleased with the outworn. At this time of the year the hunting is most all found on high ground and in fields on the edge of woodland as the weather has not driven the birds to the cover of the low places. An unfortunate happening was that a very valuable pointer owned by E. G. Southey became caught in the wire fence and suffered a long cut in its side that it required 15 stitches to close.

THE FLYING BOISES

Sensational Aerial Attraction for the Danbury Fair

The Five Boises who appear at the Danbury Fair all five days, Oct. 5 to 9, in their "high air" acts, are said by the New York papers to have the most sensational bar casting act ever staged at the New York Hippodrome. In the company are two men, two young and pretty women and a boy, and the way they toss each other about in the air is thrilling in the extreme. They do casting acts from lofty horizontal bars, and their feats are entirely new and neatly executed, and bring exclamations of astonishment and admiration from the spectators. Unlike the majority of aerial athletes the Boises work in evening clothes. Most athletes protect themselves by wearing tight. The Boises take what appears to the spectators to be perilous risks, but they are as much at home away up in the air as those who view their thrilling leaps, twists, slides, tumbles and willies in the Danbury Fair grand stand. The Boises have the reputation in New York of having the best act of their kind ever exhibited in this country, something extraordinary, and the Hippodrome's overflowing audiences gave them a hearty enthusiastic ovation of appreciation every time they appeared. They have the most elaborate paraphernalia of any troupe on the road and when it is set up on the Danbury Fair Grounds it will make one of the prettiest sights ever seen on the grounds. Woodcock, Dog, Bear and Monkey Circus and a number of other high-class performances will keep the platform opposite the grand stand fully occupied with pleasing acts, and Prof. Herzog and his horses will take up a portion of the people's attention each afternoon.

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY.
The G. & C. Merriam Company of Springfield, Mass., have just issued Webster's New International Dictionary, 1890 and 1900. The revision has been so radical and complete as to constitute a new book. The work has been in active preparation for many years, by a large staff of experts, assisted by the contributions of eminent specialists, under the general supervision of Dr. W. T. Harris, recent U. S. Commissioner of Education. The number of words and phrases defined has been greatly increased, mainly from the fresh coinage of recent years both in popular speech and in the various arts and sciences. The revival of early English studies is recognized by such an inclusion of obsolete words as to make a key to English literature from its earliest period. The title-words in the vocabulary are more than doubled in comparison with the old International, now extending 400,000. The number of illustrations is increased to over 6,000. The book contains more than 2,700 pages of text, and is designed to emphasize the quality rather than the quantity of the work, calling attention especially to the thorough scholarship in all departments and to fulness of information under important titles. By ingenious methods of typography and arrangement, the increased amount of matter is contained within a single volume, not perceptibly larger than its predecessor, and no less convenient for the hand and eye.

SHEFF RUSH TONIGHT

Yale Senior Class Masquerade, Parade and Wrestling Matches.

The Sheffield Scientific school student body takes notice of the freshman class at Yale to-night, beginning at 7 o'clock, when the classes assemble at Byers' hall. The senior class will all be in costume. There is to be a parade after the picture of the senior class is taken, and the wrestling matches between members of the two lower classes follow.

The academic and Scientific school freshmen were given a reception by President Hadley at Dwight hall and Byers' hall respectively. The captains of the football, baseball and track teams, the crew, and the heads of other student bodies addressed each other. President Hadley spoke at both, welcoming the new men to Yale and wishing them well.

Football Captain Edward Coy of New Haven made his first appearance in the Yale class at an operation. He spoke at the Dwight hall meeting, but Acting Captain Logan spoke for football at Byers' hall. Captain Coy startled his audience by saying: "I advise students first of all to make Phi Beta Kappa."

Professor Percy Smith, Ph.D., spoke for Director Chittenden at Byers' hall. Among other things, he remarked that the chief place where Yale spirit shows is in the graduates. Captain Wood called a call for freshmen crew candidates and over a hundred and thirty handed in their names, the largest squad in the history of freshman rowing.

TRYOUT TO-DAY OF BIG COLLEGE TEAMS

(Special from United Press.)
New Haven, Oct. 2.—Yale to-day will meet what is considered her strongest opponent among the eastern colleges when she lines up against Syracuse on Yale Field this afternoon. Last year Old Eli defeated the New York boys by the close score of 6 to 4 after a hard game. The Yale team to run up a heavier total to-day as the Syracuse eleven is much lighter and will have only one veteran—Harman in the line-up. Special interest is attached to to-day's contest as it will offer an opportunity to compare the styles of coaching employed by Head Coach Howard Jones of the Yale team and his brother, "Tad," head coach of the Syracuse eleven.

Yale's line will be slightly stronger than the one used against Wesleyan as Goebel will be at his old position as guard. Owing to a muscle bruise, Hobbs will be out of the game and Brown will take his place at tackle. The presence of Captain Coy, who returned yesterday from a New York hospital, will also act as an incentive to the Yale team although Coy is not expected to play before October 23rd. Boston, Oct. 2.—With Bowdoin hoping to score at least one on the Crimson gridiron warriors, the Maine college will line up on Soldiers Field 3 o'clock this afternoon. Harvard's men are the same as those who played against Bates in the first game of the season and they look for an easy victory. The same officials will work in to-day's game as in the Bates game except that H. E. Farmer of Dartmouth will take the place of the referee. The Dartmouth line will be ref. and H. H. Packet of West Point umpire.

Big games in the west to-day: Chicago vs. Purdue at Chicago. Northwestern vs. Illinois Wesleyan at Evanston, Ill. Illinois vs. Milliken at Urbana, Ill. Indiana vs. DePauw at Bloomington, Ind. Minnesota vs. Iowa at Minneapolis. Ohio State vs. Wittenburg at Columbus, O. Nebraska vs. South Dakota at Lincoln, Neb.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—All the eleven in the "West Eight" football conference in the west will begin their seasons to-day with the exception of Wisconsin and the games this afternoon are expected to give the fans a good line on the relative strength of the teams during the remainder of the season. The most important contest in this city and the Minnesota-Iowa game at Minneapolis will be the most important. The game between the two teams will have a hard task to get out with a victory. Easy victories are conceded to Indiana and Illinois in their games with DePauw and Milliken, Michigan and Wisconsin will open their season next week.

FOOTBALL

The football schedule for to-day is extensive and finds all the teams in action except the Navy eleven, which does not take on an opponent until Friday. Princeton and Princeton Army start their campaign of games this afternoon, the Tigers getting under way with Stevens as an opponent at the Soldiers Field.

The most important game, however, will be between Yale and Syracuse, for in the New Yorkers the Elis have a tough opponent. The Syracuse team has a list of opponents. The Syracuseans are hard game at any time and strike the Blue when the latter has had but little preparation. Tad Jones is coach of Syracuse and doubtless has shown them a few Yale wrinkles. Last season Howard Jones coached Syracuse, while this season he is head coach at Yale, and it will be interesting to see how the brothers fare against each other as compared to last year.

Another team which will begin its schedule to-day will be Cornell. The schedule follows: Harvard vs. Bowdoin, at Cambridge, Mass. Yale vs. Syracuse, at New Haven, Conn. Princeton vs. Princeton Army, at Princeton, N. J. Pennsylvania vs. Dickinson, at Philadelphia, Pa. Cornell vs. Rensselaer P. I., at Ithaca, N. Y. West Point vs. Tufts, at West Point, Mass. Carlisle vs. Bucknell, at Carlisle, Pa. Brown vs. Colgate, at Providence, R. I. Amherst vs. Springfield T.S., at Amherst, Mass. Dartmouth vs. Vermont, at Hanover, N. H. Franklin and Marshall vs. Lehigh, at South Bethlehem, Pa. Holy Cross vs. New Hampshire, at Worcester, Mass. Chicago vs. Purdue, at Chicago, Ill. Fordham vs. Rutgers, at New Brunswick, N. J. Trinity vs. Worcester Tech., at Hartford, Conn. Wesleyan vs. Norwich, at Middletown, Conn. Williams vs. Bates, at Williams-town, Mass.

Steamer Roseale, John Sylvester and Isabelle will make hourly trips around warships every day until Oct. 10th. Leaving foot of West 22nd and 12th streets, New York. G 2 *

Told By The Farmer's Experts

JENNINGS, COBB AND CRAWFORD OF TIGERS, WHO FACE PIRATES FOR WORLD'S FLAG

Baseball experts look for a far more even and spirited series of games between the Detroit Tigers and the Pittsburgh Pirates when they meet for the world's championship than Jennings' men put up against the Chicago Cubs last year under similar circumstances. Jennings really believes he has a good chance to take the majority of games, insisting that his team is in better shape than it was at the close of last season. The national commission has arranged the following schedule for the world's series: Oct. 8 at Pittsburgh; Oct. 9 at Pittsburgh; Oct. 11 at Detroit; Oct. 12 at Detroit; Oct. 13 at Pittsburgh; Oct. 14 at Detroit. In case it becomes necessary to play a seventh game the national commission will decide which city it shall be played in, giving notice through the press. The umpires selected for the series are J. E. Johnstone and William Klein of the National League and Frank O'Loughlin and William G. Evans of the American league. The following players are eligible to participate in the games and share in the receipts: Pittsburgh—Abbatichio, Abstein, Adams, Brandon, Eymre, Camnitz, Clarke, Frock, Gibson, Hyatt, Leach, Leever, Liefeld, Maddox, Miller, Moore, O'Connor, Phillippe, Powell, Simon, Wagner, Willis and Wilson. Detroit—Beckendorf, Bush, Crawford, Cobb, Delehanty, Donovan, Jennings, Thomas Jones, David Jones, Killian, McIlhenny, Moriarty, Mullin, O'Leary, Stange, Schmidt, Speer, Summers, Willets and Works.

By defeating the Athletics yesterday Chicago won the series between the two clubs 12 to 10. It was the only series in which the Athletics were on the short end.

Joe Casey, last season with Hartford, and who did such brilliant work with Little Rock in the Southern league, that he was bought outright by the Detroit, played his first game with the big leaguers yesterday as back stop. Joe got in a hit out of four times up, nailed a runner at second and got in a double play in which he was the middle man.

According to the Pittsburgh Dispatch if Hans Wagner, the hard-hitting Dutchman of Smokedom, annexes the batting championship of the National league again this year, which he will do unless he drops dead before the season ends, it will be the seventh time in his remarkable baseball career. His years are 1900, 1902, 1904, 1906, 1907 and 1908. The great feat is by a big margin the performance of such stick artists as Pop Anson, Dan Brouthers, and Larry Lajoie. Anson grabbed the National batting palm in 1879, 1881, 1887 and 1888; Brouthers led the list in 1882, 1883, 1889, and 1892, while the American league sticklers were led four times by Lajoie in the years 1901, 1903, 1904 and 1905.

JIMMY O'ROURKE HOME

He Had Prosperous Season in American Association.

James O'Rourke, Jr., is home after playing second base for the entire season with the Columbus team in the American Association. He is suffering from a badly smashed third finger on the right hand and will probably have to undergo an operation to have the nail removed. Jimmy's batting average for the season was .275, which is considered excellent in that league because of the fine grade of pitching. The pennant was won by Louisville. The American Association allows the major leagues to draft only one man from each team each year. The man drafted from the Columbus team this year is a pitcher named Pickett who will go to St. Louis.

Games To-morrow On Local Diamonds

The West Ends have accepted the challenge of the Newfields to play a series of three games for $50 a side and 60 per cent of the gate receipts. The first game will take place at West End Park to-morrow at 2:30 o'clock. The Newfields have a very good record for the season and with Wells, the young south paw "phenom" in the box ought to make the West Ends go some to win. "Red" Rorty will umpire in the series.

Out on Yost Field to-morrow the St. Joseph's and North Ends will clash in their first meet this season. The St. Joseph's recently won a series from the Orioles, while last Sunday the North Ends trimmed the latter team handily. Battery for Joe: Keating and Lavery; for North Ends: Jagers and Meerbach.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

The New York Americans bade farewell to the hilltop grounds yesterday by taking a double header from the St. Louis Browns. Both games were easy for the Highlanders. They left last night for Boston, where they play their last games for the season of 1909. As the White Sox defeated the Athletics again yesterday the New Yorks must be satisfied with fifth position. The Bostonians defeated the three time champions, while the tallenders defeated the Naps. The results: New York 6, St. Louis 0. New York 11, St. Louis 6. Boston 9, Detroit 6. Chicago 4, Philadelphia 3. Washington 4, Cleveland 2.

BASEBALL NOTES

C. Webb Murphy, president of the Chicago National baseball team stated yesterday that he would refuse to pay the fine of $500 imposed by the National Commission on charges of having tampered with a member of the Toronto Baseball team. When has Murphy not been kicking?
