

DASTARDLY REMORS WITHOUT FOUNDATION Convincing Proof That World's Series is Honestly Conducted.

THREE DETROIT PLAYERS HURT

(Special from United Press.) Detroit, Oct. 15.—No more convincing proof that there is nothing in the nature of frame-up connected with the world's series between the Pittsburgh and Detroit clubs could have been secured in a year's diligent search than the trio of accidents which marked the closing inning of yesterday's bitterly fought contest. The Pirates had an even chance to win and played so desperately that three of the Detroit players were injured, one of them so badly that he will not be able to participate in the final game of the series tomorrow. It is a dead certainty that no ball player would run the risk of serious and possibly fatal injury in a framed-up series.

and simple. Hans Wagner, the big Pirate shortstop, will probably carry off the batting honors of the series. The "Flying Dutchman" has made eight hits good for an average of .380. The general admission tickets were placed on sale to-day and the demand for seats was such as to open the eyes of the officials of the club and the members of the National Commission. Every reserved seat probably will be sold within a few hours after the sale opens. An order for a large block of seats for Pittsburgh rooters was received by President Navin and the rooting of the opposing factions promises to be one of the interesting features of the contest.

BOSTON'S BEST CUBS WIN AGAIN

In 5-4 Victory Over Giants, American Leaguers Take Four for Their Share of Five Game Series.

For Third Time the White Sox Are Beaten.

GREAT IS "TRIS" SPEAKER

It's good night to the Giants, and the laurels to the Boston "Speed Boys", the youngsters who are picked to represent the American League in the world's series of 1910. A 5-4 victory by the Sox yesterday, made the series tied with it the third place champion of the world. The series produced the irrepressible "Tris" Speaker, who needed only to go against a National League club to establish beyond a doubt his claim to greatness. "Tris" was not content with making a record in the first four games, but accomplished more yesterday. He was the hero in the first inning that drove in the first two Sox runs and his sacrifice fly in the third that produced another. Then in the fourth inning he pitched a grand throw, he launched a double play which according to reports was the snappiest shown at the Polo Grounds this season. Pitches were short, his arm was strong and Murray singled to center. Snodgrass attempted to make third, but Speaker's lightning hit cut him off. Murray's hit was meanwhile had overruled first, but a quick throw from Lord to Stahl which was high, and which the latter muffed after a great leap doubled Murray.

DOUGHERTY BENCHED

The Cubs by winning from the White Sox yesterday 2-1 made it three victories to one for the American Leaguers. The game was another pitcher's battle between Overall and Walsh, the former fanning nine and the latter six. Both pitchers allowed five hits. The White Sox can give the credit of their defeat to Johnny Evers, the "Human Crab" whose base running was too high for the Sox. Evers scored in the first session on a base on balls, a stolen base and two infield outs. In the third he started with a single, went to second when Sheppard walked, to third on Schiefel's short hit and Tannehill and scored on an infield out of Steinfield's after Chance had fanned. The lone Sox run happened along in the fourth. Cole started with a hit, went to second when Messenger walked, to third on Parent's sacrifice and scored on Carrigan's grounder to Evers. Pat Dougherty, the pride of Bridgeport, in the first inning objected so strenuously to a strike called on him that he was sent to the bench. Messenger took his position. A crowd of 9,917 saw the contest. This was the last game in which the players share the receipts, which share is $23,916.65. If the Cubs win to-day's game the series is ended. The score:

DETROIT AND PITTSBURGON EVEN TERMS

Desperate Pirates Go Down to Defeat 5 to 4.

FINAL GAME TOMORROW

Detroit, Oct. 15.—Hughie Jennings' game bunch of Tigers lowered the black flag of the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday afternoon, winning, 5 to 4, in one of the most sensational games ever played for the highest baseball honors. The score gives no idea of the desperate struggle in which the Pirates jumped away with a big lead, but the Tigers would not quit.

They were there to die game, and a finer illustration of staying powers and gameness was never seen on the ball field. It was a game of ball that tried the hearts and nerves of two great ball teams, representing the two greatest baseball organizations known. When the Pirates crew opened on George Mullin with 25 each, Noonan also led in the number of runs with 29 tallies. Halpin was second with 22, McGuire led in stolen bases having 20, with Noonan second having 18.
