

ISSUES
Pittsburg Just Spent Itself
in Glorifying its Champions.

(Special from United Press.)
Pittsburg, Oct. 19.—The baseball season of 1909, the fight for the world's championship and all that goes with it, and the celebration in honor of the champions is history today. All these things were brought to a glorious close by Pittsburg fans last night and the ceremonies were not over until the last stick of red fire had gone out and the last voice was quieted by hoarseness.
Pittsburg tried to outdo herself in showing Fred Clarke and his crew that the winning of the world's championship was appreciated, city officials, police, companies of militia, representatives of various unions and athletic organizations, headed just recently to the number of about 10,000 accompanied by bands marched in the parade that wound its way through the crowded streets from the downtown district to Forbes field.
Here all the pent up enthusiasm that had been holding over ever since last Saturday was turned loose and each member of the team was cheered to the echo as he came forward to receive the check for his share of the world's championship prize.
Mayor McGee made a short address, but few heard what was said, and George Gibson and Tommy Leach attempted to say a few words. The crowd was there to look at their idols and yell, however, and speeches were cut short.
While all the players were constantly cheered both during the parade and at the ball park, Fred Clarke, "Babe" Adams and Hans Wagner were the heroes of the night. Adams was presented with a check for $124, a gift of fellow players and admirers, that swelled his total earnings for the series to $3,117.

HIGH DUFFY
MAY MANAGE
WHITE SOX

(Special from United Press.)
Chicago, Oct. 19.—With the baseball now a thing of the past, Comiskey, president of the Chicago White Sox to-day began the task of building up a brand new team for next season and incidentally the task of selecting a new manager to manage the Sox. The various clubs in the American League yesterday between Comiskey and Hugh Duffy, manager of Providence of the Eastern League, revived the report that Duffy would be selected as manager.
Neither Duffy nor Comiskey would discuss the report. Simultaneously close friends of Fielder Jones declare that the fielder had told them that he would lead a major league club next year. This was taken to mean that Comiskey will choose him. Comiskey will not say whether Jones or Duffy will be selected.

DELEHANTY BEST
BATTER IN SERIES

In the course of a baseball season scores of arguments arise over the respective playing strength of the two clubs. Fielder Jones declares that in following up the three post-season series between the Pirates and Tigers, Giants and Red Sox and Cubs and White Sox, he was able to get away with a line on the merits of the two leagues.
The National league, on the face of the results, overpowered the American league in taking the world's series honors again, while the Cubs trimmed the White Sox; the Johnsons organization credited itself with victory in the Red Sox-Giants series.
In the grand total of playing records in the games the American league clubs outbatted the Nationals 342 to 327, but the major organization excelled in fielding 963 to 922. The National league displayed more speed on the bases and in general all-around work.
WAGNER OUTSHONE COBB.
In the world's series, Jones was naturally centered on the individual work of Hans Wagner and Ty Cobb. As the records show Cobb failed to class with the Dutchman. Wagner carried off the batting honors in the duel with a mark of .376 to Cobb's .214. Wagner was also the superior of Cobb on the bases, as in the series he led with eight thefts to his credit.
DELEHANTY BEST STICKER.
Individual batting honors in the big series went to Frank Delehanty. He led in stickwork with a mark of .385, and was followed by Wagner and T. Jones.
Pittsburg had the best of the argument among the pitchers, and it was largely due to the splendid twirling of "Babe" Adams that the Pirates captured the gonfalon. Adams was a regular in every game. In the three contests the Tigers were able to garner only eighteen hits, six in each game.

JOE THOMAS TO MARRY
SISTER OF MAN HE DEFEATED IN RING

Joe Thomas, former lightweight champion, who makes his home in this city while not doing stunts around the padded arena, and who only last week bade his friends in this city "Good Bye" as he anticipated a trip to Europe to fight Willie Lewis, has changed his mind owing to a social engagement of importance next January. Thomas is to be married on New Year's day to a Miss Gardner, a sister of Jimmy Gardner, the Lowell, Mass., boxer whom Thomas has conquered. In the meantime Joe will engage in bouts in Philadelphia and Boston.

NEW SCRUB STAR ON YALE FIELD

An incident on Yale field yesterday afternoon illustrates what a large number of men there are in the squad that are of varsity caliber but who are not good enough in some minor details to be regulars, men who would be stars on the smaller colleges, and who are all but wasted at Yale. The incident was the playing of Robinson, a heretofore unknown scrub, who was one of the best half-backs seen in scrimmages at the field this year. He played on the varsity against the strong scrubs, tearing holes in the line of the latter, making a few good gains around the ends, recovering a forward pass and an outside kick, and regaining a fumbled ball, scoring the only touchdown made by the varsity after a pretty run of 40 yards.

"JIM" O'ROURKE
TO HAVE SALARY

League Managers Rise to Idea that Secretary Is Worthy of His Hire

Salary Limit May be $2,000

The directors of the Connecticut League in conclave, yesterday, at last got wise to themselves, taking note of the work some of the officers have to do to make the organization what it is. They voted to give Secretary James H. O'Rourke a yearly salary of $200. The salary was entirely unthought by the local manager, and is but small remuneration considering the amount of work the secretary has to do. There is not another league in the country to-day even among the Class B organizations, that does not pay a secretary. It has been Jim O'Rourke all along who has fought the legal battles of the organization, he being the guiding spirit the many years of its organization. President W. J. Tracy refused to accept remuneration for his office, as he desired to establish a precedent, as he did not think the work connected with the office was worth it. In declining to accept any reimbursement President Tracy informed the directors that he would not accept the office for another term. President Tracy was not among those elected to office yesterday, he being elected a year ago.
There was no opposition to the plan of fixing a salary limit that will be lived up to but the directors were anxious to have it stated that they do not intend slashing salaries. The salary limit is supposed to be $2,000 a month which is high for a Class B league and the league directors emphasized the statement that there is no idea of cheapening the league or taking any step backward. The idea is to put the league on a business basis.
Though no plan was adopted, the sentiment seemed to favor the methods used by the Tri-State League and after the meeting it was predicted that the Tri-State plan will be chosen. That scheme is to place an individual salary limit and if the Connecticut League adopts it, a $200 limit is almost sure to be adopted. The plan also carries with it a rule that not more than four players shall be named by any club after the first month of the season when try outs are in order.
The only deal torn off at the meeting was the result of a complaint put in by three Holyoke players to the effect that they haven't been paid in full. Catcher Ahearn was given over to Waterbury. Ahearn claimed Holyoke owed him $50. McCabe claimed same, and pitcher Crowley was given $250. Treasurer Winkler told the directors that Ahearn was fined $50 for a fist fight with Piles and that McCabe was fined the same for a run in with Romer.
Owner Durant of the Authors offered to pay what Ahearn claimed, providing Ahearn would give up his title to the player. Winkler quickly snapped up the offer. The directors voted to accept the offer, the fine still standing against him. Winkler explained the Sandler case by saying that there had been a misunderstanding. He had paid Sandler's doctors and hospital bills after the little pitcher had broken his arm and had agreed to pay Sandler a certain sum weekly. Sandler's claim is for his full salary.

TRUBE NOT TO COMPETE FOR MILE RECORD

Herbert L. Trube of the local Y. M. C. A., and former Cornell runner and who recently held the world's record for the indoor mile which record he obtained at a meet in Madison Square Garden in New York last winter, while running under the colors of the Y. M. C. A., was somewhat surprised when informed this morning that he was going to enter into active competition again this winter. All the New York publications this morning that Trube was to again do the trunk and go publications stated to-day that Trube said today that the report was untrue. At the present time he is training to enter with a number of Cornell alumni in a cross country run against the present Cornell team on Nov. 21st, which date will mark the tenth anniversary of the beginning of cross country work at Ithaca. His present training is just to get the bugs out of him for that occasion and not for any further laurels on the elder path. Mr. Trube is a draftsman with the Crane Valve Co.

"JEFFRIES WILL KNOCK JOHNSON'S BLOCK OFF SURE"

(Special from United Press.)
Chicago, Oct. 19.—"Jeffries will meet Johnson just as soon as details for a bout can be arranged; and he will knock Jack's head off sure."
The above statement from Sam Berger, recently sparring and vaudeville partner of Jeffries, is being discussed by eight fans following his sojourn in town between trains on his way to New York. Berger left last night for New York where he is expected to meet Jeff Thursday and begin operations for signing final articles for the fight with Johnson.
About our west looks queer in a good many ways," in commenting on the Ketchel-Johnson fight. "It was a mistake to send Ketchel against a man so much heavier than himself in the first place. It was just putting money in Johnson's pocket."

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—When James J. Jeffries steps off the Lusitania Thursday he is expected to find awaiting him, Jack Johnson. Friends of the negro champion declare he will "camp on Jeffries' trail" until the latter signs articles for a fight or admits that he will not return to the ring. Word received from the west to-day states that Johnson is hurrying east, intending to challenge Jeffries as soon as he lands and inasmuch as the last word from Jeffries after he heard the result of the Ketchel-Johnson fight was that it was up to him now, it is expected that articles will be signed within a week.

There can hardly be any quarrel over the division of the purse as Johnson has repeatedly declared he will "cut the money" any way Jeff says. Both Johnson and Sam Fitzpatrick believe the negro will be the winner and Johnson is expected to suggest that they fight winner take all, with a side bet of $10,000.

WILLIAM I. BUCHANAN

William Inesco Buchanan, the American diplomat, who died in London, was born in Covington, O., and was fifty-six years old at the time of his death. He was formerly minister to Argentina and had performed several important diplomatic missions. In South America he was regarded as the man who contributed most to rescuing the republics from the chaos of petty conflict. Mr. Buchanan first came into prominence through covering his conditions. The Pan-American exposition at Buffalo was one of his triumphs.

GAUDERT JUMPS
FROM BI-PLANE

Juvisy, Oct. 19.—M. Gaudert, losing control of his Voisin bi-plane during trial flight at the Aerodrome to-day, crashed to the ground from a height of forty feet. The right engine of the aeroplane was smashed but Gaudert jumped from the machine as it struck the ground and escaped with a slight shaking up. No other accidents marked the trials but no spectacular jump was attempted.

NEW TOWN

Mrs. W. L. Allen and son Addison Allen have been guests in town. Mr. and Mrs. Steven Keam, Chief of Police, returned from their wedding trip which included Toronto, Montreal, Quebec, St. Ann's, Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands and other points. The wedding was completely surprised, Monday evening by about 75 neighbors at their home in Zoar. A delightful evening was spent in the enjoyment of dancing and cards, after which a fine supper of many good things was served, the guests departing at a late hour. The occurrence of the event was the fact of its being the 10th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Keane of Sandy Hook, who were the guests and who in turn received congratulations with the bridal couple.
Frederick Chambers and family have closed their summer home and returned to Waterbury.
Mrs. W. H. Reynolds left Monday for a few days visit in New York City. Henry C. Johnson and family of Astoria, L. I. have closed their home in Zoar and returned home.
The High School Athletic Association are preparing an entertainment to be given very soon. An amusing and entertaining evening is promised and the young ladies are working earnestly for the success of the affair. No doubt, the attendance will be large.

EVIDENCE AGAINST HILL PILING UP

Box in Which Murdered Girl's Remains Were Found Sold to the "Professor."

(Special from United Press.)
Fall River, Mass., Oct. 19.—Search for the missing head of the girl whose dismembered body was found near Tiverton, R. I., and for the knife with which it was cut off, were the special activities of the police of this city and Tiverton today in their efforts to solve the mysterious murder of the woman they maintain was Amelle St. Jean.
The search for the knife and for two rings the St. Jean girl wore centered about the police office here. Frank Hill, held here with Wilfred Thibault, a chauffeur, on charges of murder. Allegedly nearly every movable article in Hill's office has been identified to the police station in an effort to preserve them uninterfered with for the trial. If the head of the murdered girl is slain, the police say they have sufficient evidence against Hill to well warrant his being held. So far this consists, however, only of pieces of clothing alleged to have been owned by Hill, which were found with bloody clothing said to have been worn by the St. Jean girl, and a square box in which the remains of the murdered girl were carried, according to the police theory, to Tiverton to be spread about the countryside. This box, a Greek fruitbox, has been identified as one sold to Hill some time after the alleged killing of Amelle St. Jean. Still, however, there is no positive evidence against Hill, and the police will be none until the missing head is found. To fill the blanks in the chain of evidence every effort of the police is today being made.
Thibault's alibi, which completely accounts for his time during the days on which the girl must have been slain, has only been corroborated by police investigation. All of Thibault's clothing has been seized and is being examined by Professor Whitney, a specialist in the detection of blood stains on the shoes. On the result of these examinations, Fuller and Gray, Thibault's attorneys, are likely today to move to secure the release of their client. No report on the condition of the dead girl's stomach, which also was sent to Professor Whitney for analysis, has yet been received. It is expected that rumors are current that another arrest is likely in connection with the case. Another man who is declared to have been responsible for the St. Jean girl's delicate condition is being sought by the police and only the production of an impressive alibi here will prevent his being taken into custody.

RAGS IN FLUE
SET HOUSE AFIRE

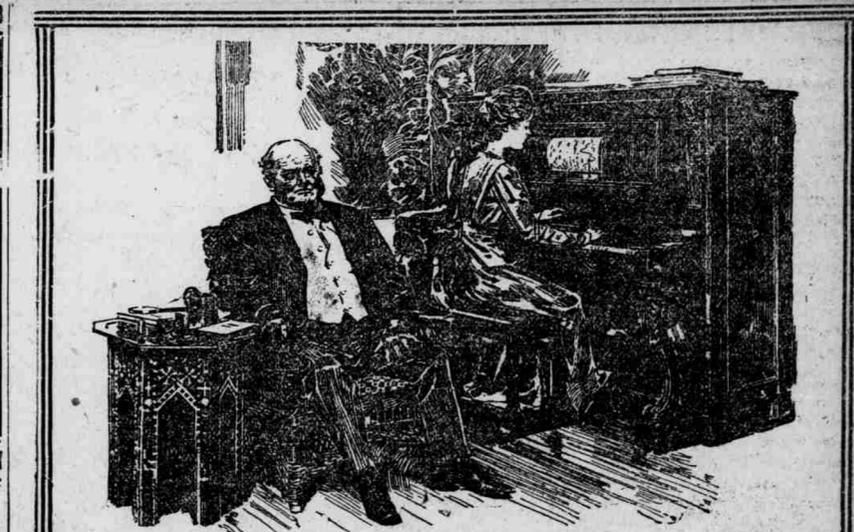

Owner in Hospital Damage Small Covered by Insurance.
Fire broke out in an empty flat of a four family house at 350-352-354 Bunnell street this morning shortly after 9 o'clock. The fire department was called and the firemen found that the blaze had eaten between the walls and traveled from the ground floor to the attic. Chemicals were used in getting out the blaze and the loss will not be more than $150. The building is owned by Philip Sakowitz who is in the hospital suffering from a tumor. His wife occupies one of the flats with two small children.
Although it looked as though an incendiary had built a fire upon the bare floor of the vacant apartment, Chief Mooney upon inquiry learned that rags had been stuffed into the chimney hole so that the fire could draw for the lack of other means. The rags undoubtedly took fire, and dropped to the floor.
The firemen in pulling away the partition found conditions that showed that the house would take fire sooner or later. The wooden joists were built up with the clothes and the blaze in many cases where fires have been started in frame houses during the past few years.
The fire worked into the apartments a great trial party and the loss of the building but did little damage. The loss upon the building is covered by insurance.

CUNNINGHAM OPERATED IN SPRINGFIELD

(Special from United Press.)
Springfield, Mass., Oct. 19.—Bernard Cunningham, who was arrested in New York yesterday on indictments involving the obtaining of money under false pretenses is wanted in Springfield for relieving Charles O'Brien of Hartford of $2,000 in exchange for worthless mining stock last September.
His brother Lawrence Cunningham, of Lynn, who was arrested here the day O'Brien was caught, is now out on bail. He is said to have operated in other cities besides New York, Springfield and Boston. His method has been to advertise as a fortune teller with ability to give advice on investments. In Springfield he posed as "Professor" Leon.
When his brother Lawrence was captured here he had several certificates of the Bull Frog Midas Gold Mine stock and $2,000 in cash that he had received from O'Brien.
The man arrested in New York escaped capture here by scaling a back fence and nothing was known of his whereabouts until Inspector McCafferty of New York took him in.

AUTO SPEEDER
FOUND INSANE

(Special from United Press.)
Hartford, Oct. 19.—George LeFevre, arrested in New Haven last week on the charge of riding about the state in hired automobiles on the pretext of being a detective was found to be insane in the court to-day and sent to the Connecticut Hospital for the Insane for six months. Physicians have been watching him for some time and it was proved that his mental condition is unsound.

Many Business Men Consider
The Pianola Piano
The Wisest Investment They Ever Made

THE PIANOLA Piano does not belong in the usual category of luxuries. It is an intensely practical article for every-day use. The proper way to consider its cost is to view it as an investment—an investment that will pay almost fabulous dividends in enjoyment and happiness for the entire family—wife, children and particularly the man who has never had the advantages of musical training.
Consider the limited avenues of recreation open to the average busy man of affairs: Absorbed in the details of the office, evening finds him too tagged out to sit through a formal concert. The PIANOLA Piano enables him to have informal concerts amid the comforts of his own home—concerts that begin and end just when he likes. And the program contains only the pieces that please him most.
Any member of the family can speedily learn to play the PIANOLA Piano artistically. But oftener the man himself insists upon doing the playing. An active man likes to be active even in his pleasures. The PIANOLA Piano is a constant challenge to an intelligent mind, for there is a sense of achievement in a beautiful composition adequately performed. So sensitive, so responsive is this marvelous instrument that the pleasure grows keener with its use.

Many of the most important financiers, corporation heads and captains of industry today depend upon the PIANOLA Piano for mental refreshment and recreation in their leisure hours.

CAUTION: Do not imagine that you can get the same measure of enjoyment out of some other Player. Superior methods of construction and exclusive musical advantages have made the PIANOLA and PIANOLA Piano the standard instruments of the world. Remember that the name "PIANOLA" applies only to the instruments made by the Aeolian Co.
