Courteous Consideration

It is the policy of this bank to extend every courtesy to depositors without taking into consideration the size of the account. The definite results of this policy are gratifying to a marked degree and we cordially invite those considering the establishment of a new banking connection to confer with our officers.

What's the Answer?

Determine who wins. It's simply a case of exercising common sense—saving dollars and cents. The Man who caters to his tailor—pays unreasonably high prices—wonders how the suit is going to look—complains at the bother of fittings, and perhaps doesn't take the suit in the end.

Or—the man who wears our smart ready-for-service apparel—saves time—saves money—saves temper—sees what he gets before he gets it—so knows he will like it.

What's your answer? See the Suits at $15, $18, $20 and $25. Every wanted Furnishing

FARFELD

But for the rush of automobiles through town Saturday, and the display of Yale flags, there was little doing in town. The well oiled roads stood the traffic well, much better than the pike from Hawthorn Inn in Westport to the Southport line. The pike after leaving Ash Creek from there on to Bridgeport, is in a pretty bad condition, especially the eastern half. This is worn into ruts, and needs repairing and oiling. Among those who placed the great blue flag with the word Yale in the center on the front of their houses were: New Bulkeley, Charles Clucas, Prof. Hargrove, and from the porch of Judge Panks there flew a United States flag. Judge and Panks left early in the afternoon for New Haven where they witnessed the game.

Those who heard Miss Theodora Childs address the students of the High School class of dietetics and home economics at the Staples High School last Friday, speak in glowing terms of her enthusiasm and the power she possessed of holding the close attention of the students. This class is composed of more than a score of young people from the ages of 15 to 18, and the message Miss Childs had to bring was both timely and valuable. She spoke of the need of ventilation, since the lungs feed upon the elements of which pure air is composed, and through their agency in renewing the blood, invigorate the whole system. The care of the teeth, another topic for these are the sentinels which guard the gate way to the stomach, and upon their condition depends the proper digestion of food. Eating was also spoken of, and the example of the sturdy and vigorous Japanese made a good illustration, for they take two or three baths a day. The use of cold water was recommended as a safeguard against colds, although there are physicians who claim that a microbe in the cause of colds. The next address before the Staples High School will be given by Supt. Wheatley of this town. Miss Emma F. Wakeman spent the week end at Guilford with her friend, Miss Hall.

The Ladies' Social Club of Hoyden's Hill propose early in January to give an open meeting at the residence of Mrs. S. Wisner. It will be a fair and Japanese party combined, with many home attractions. Wednesday next the Ladies' Union of the Congregational church of Greenfield Hill will hold a social meeting at the parsonage. Mrs. S. H. Gimstead has returned from a three weeks' visit in Kensington. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bradley have been week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith, at Lyons Plains. Fred Jennings, Ethel Merwin and Frances Pease are to have charge of the Christmas music at the Greenfield Hill church. The Dixon family has moved to Bridgeport. The dance tomorrow evening given by the Fairfield Stars at Perry's hall, promises to be a very enjoyable affair. Mr. Rufus Jennings is home from a visit to Greenwich. Mrs. Dunkirk is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jennings. Thursday next there will be a turkey supper at the Southport Congregational church. Dr. and Mrs. Sturges, it is rumored, will spend the winter in Bridgeport. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a reading at the house of Mrs. S. C. Sherwood, under the auspices of the Village Improvement Society. Mrs. Joseph Pinkham is visiting in Port Chester for several weeks.

THE STOCK MARKET

(Watson, Alpers & Co.) It may be that patience must still be exercised by those who have bought securities in anticipation of higher figures. But in a month from now there should be completed the financing of the year's agricultural yield and the logical sequel will be a return of currency from the interior and consequent additions to the reserves of the Eastern centers. With that change in the phase of the money problem, the greater prosperity and consequent will again stimulate bull aggressiveness and unless the outlook is darkened unexpectedly all sound securities we believe should be bought on reactions.

ITALIAN MEETING DENOUNCES THOSE WHO KILLED FERRER

Impassioned condemnation of the principles that led to the execution of Francisco Ferrer was voiced by a trio of orators addressing a gathering of upwards of 300 Italians in Lycium Hall in Cannon street yesterday afternoon. His execution was held to be an assassination. Resolutions were adopted expressing the hope that all the afflicted women will soon be destroyed in atonement for the sacrifice of such men as Ferrer on the altars of despotism. The speakers were Arthur M. Giovanni and Henry North, both of New York and E. Fedeli of this city, the chairman of the meeting.

FUND FOR MRS. REYNOLDS

Through the efforts of benevolent persons, principally of the Norwalks, and this city, the fund raised for Mrs. Mammie Reynolds and turned over to the afflicted woman by Mayor Brundage of Norwalk, Saturday, amounted to $1,514.89. Mrs. Reynolds was shot by James Reynolds of this city, on Oct. 25, and blinded for life. There is no case on record of a cough or cold resulting in pneumonia or consumption after Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken, as it will stop your cough and break up your cold quickly. Refuse any but the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in a yellow package. Contains no opiates and is safe and sure. E. B. Brill and Curtis Pharmacy, local agents.
