CHEMICALS PUT OUT BIG BLAZE

Sixty Gallons Extinguish $1,000 Fire and Save Much Large Water Loss

Only 60 gallons of chemical fluid was used in extinguishing a dangerous fire in the shops of the Bridgeport Hat Co. and Hamilton's Brass foundry at Golden Hill and Middle streets Saturday night. The fire started under a stairway leading to the second floor. When Chief Mooney arrived Chemical Co. No. 1 had a line laid in on the ground floor. The chief sized up the situation and sent for No. 3 hose which was played alternately upon the fire in the hat shop on the upper floor and upon the blaze in the brass shop on the ground floor. No. 3 opened its tank but only a small quantity of the fluid was needed to complete the work of Capt. Hammit's men.

The damage done most by smoke was not over $1,000 and would have been trebled if it had been necessary to turn the water from the steamers upon the blaze.

STRIKING FIREMEN ARE UNDER GUARD

(Special from United Press.)
Naples, Nov. 22.—Sailors were landed from the warships in the harbor to-day to take up the protection of the city from fire following a strike of the city firemen which nearly culminated in the lynching of the mayor and several councilmen. The striking firemen are imprisoned in their own barracks under guard of a regiment of soldiers.

The firemen recently sent a complaint to the city council, protesting against the food furnished, the wages and the lack of promotion. The complaint was ignored by the council and on Saturday night a number of firemen struck, ejecting their officers from their barracks and taking possession. The mayor and several members of the council fled, and the strikers rushed out and were preparing to lynch them when a regiment of troops arrived on the scene. After a sharp conflict the strikers were driven back to their barracks.

Fatal Battle With Knives and Stilletos

(Special from United Press.)
Winchester, Mass., Nov. 22.—Following a battle with knives and stilletos in this street, an unknown Italian is dead here, another, Santo Salomo, has his nose cut off and a score of others are in hiding, many of them wounded. The whole police force was called on to stop the affray. They captured Rocco Potera and Vincenzo Cherocal, who are held for murder and for the murderous assault on Salomo. The battle started when Salomo, in a house where all were playing cards and drinking, accused his companions of having robbed him. More arrests are expected to-day.

Miss Curtis' Song Recital

The musical element of the city is looking forward with anticipation to the song recital to be given by Miss Vera Cameron Curtis, at the Stratfield, Tuesday evening, at 8:30. Miss Curtis' rich gift of song will not be the only feature of interest, but she will be assisted by Hans Letz, the noted violinist, whose mastery of his instrument is said to be little short of marvelous.

GREAT BOOK CONTEST $365 PIANO FREE

REARRANGE THE BOOKS TO FORM NAME OF FAMOUS PIANO
SEE DIRECTIONS BELOW

Arrange the Books on line 1-2 above to form piano name. The word Piano is formed also by the books.
Over $13,500 Worth of Additional Prizes

No Charge of Any Kind to Enter. You Have the Same Opportunity as Anyone Else to Win

We have never known a more interesting contest or one which offered such valuable prizes absolutely free. This combines the fascination of the cut-up puzzle and the skill of arranging the books so as to form the name of a famous piano. The grand free distribution of over $13,500 worth of prizes is of vital interest to any home without a piano. Be sure and try.

Cut out the books and paste them standing up on line 1-2 so as to form a famous piano name, a familiar name to all, one of the oldest and best known in the musical world. The word piano is also formed by the books and is to be put after the name, thus—PIANO. The most artistic correct answer will be given the $365 Piano absolutely free. Next best correct answers prize certificates as stated below.

Everyone has an equal opportunity. You may get the piano or a high certificate as well as any one else. If you care for music and want a piano, this is the greatest opportunity you will ever have. This contest was especially prepared for pianoless homes, and it will be the means of our distributing hundreds of pianos. We are placing this large advertising sum ($13,500) directly among piano buyers, where it will do the most good. Instead of spending it in expensive magazine advertising, we want piano buyers to earn the piano or the prize certificate by their skill. There is no catch or chance. Read the simple conditions. Send your answer in early. Start on it tonight.

THE PRIZES—First prize—A fine new piano valued at $365. Second prize—A certificate of credit for $125. Third prize—A certificate of credit for $110. The next six best answers will be given a credit certificate for $100. Following these in groups of six or more, each contestant sending in the next best answer will be given a credit certificate for $1 less than those previous—that is, six at $99, next six of $98, etc.—until the amount has been awarded. Special advertising appropriation. In addition to the above prizes, the company will voluntarily issue to each of the remaining contestants a special certificate of credit of $35 as an award for their effort in this contest.

These certificates are good on the purchase of any new Hallet and Davis, Conway or Kimball piano or player piano in our warerooms at regular retail price. Time of certificate is limited. Certificates cannot be applied on any purchase made previous to Nov. 25th. Only one certificate may be applied on the purchase of one piano.

THE JUDGING—Disinterested judges will be chosen who will select the winner and the decision of the judges will be final. All prize winners will be notified. Judges' names will be announced.

Deaths and Funerals.

Christina J. Leitz, widow of Jacob Leitz, died Saturday evening at her residence, 620 Central avenue, aged 62 years. She was born in Saxon-Coburg, Germany, coming to this country 12 years ago. She first made her home in Derby, then Stratford, and a year ago moved to this city. She is survived by two sons, Frederick and Jacob, and one daughter, Elizabeth, wife of Henry Siefert, and a sister of Mrs. Johanna Baier of Derby.

Joseph Schelcher died yesterday at the home of his mother, 301 Stillman street, after an illness extending over a year. The deceased was well known in this city, formerly being a bicycle rider of note, having competed in many races at Steeplechase Island, then Pleasure Beach. He had been an employe of the Warner Bros. Co. He is survived by a widow, his mother, a daughter and a sister.

John Agoston died in Palo Alto, California, on the 7th of November. He was born in Bridgeport in 1838, son of William and Susan Agoston Shipman. Leaving his native city at fourteen years of age, by diligence, industry and sterling integrity, became a successful business man. He left a widow and one son. His relatives and friends will regret to hear of his decease.

Some of the auto hoods have most alluring cabochons of velvet, silk or satin at either side, quite suggestive of the rosettes on a baby's bonnet. As in the case with the infants' headcovering, the hood strings are sewed under these ornaments.

ASTOR'S YACHT, THE NOURMAHAL, NOW REPORTED NOT AT SAN JUAN

(Special from United Press.)
New York, Nov. 22.—Despite a wireless from the steamer Caracas, reporting that the yacht Nourmahal, with J. J. Astor and his son Vincent aboard, was safe in San Juan, P. R., harbor on November 15, the Astor interests in New York are continuing the search for the yacht. The Caracas, immediately after sending the wireless proceeded out of communication and every effort to pick her up again has failed. Secretary Doherty at the Astor private office, said to-day that while there was no doubt of the authority of the Caracas message, the search will still go on.

Despatches from Tampa, Fla., say that wireless from San Juan reports that the Nourmahal is not there, at present.

The United Wireless Company to-day received a message from the fruit steamer Admiral Dewey, in West Indian waters saying that the Nourmahal was at Kingston, Jamaica, on November 6th, before the hurricane which swept the West Indies. The Key West station of the United Wireless is making every effort to get into communication with the San Juan station but has been unable to obtain any response to repeated calls.

ST. PETER'S SOCIAL AND CONCERT

Splendid Program Arranged for Event at Eagles' Hall Tomorrow Night.

The men of St. Peter's parish have completed arrangements for the concert and social which is to be held at Eagles' hall to-morrow night and every patron of the affair is assured of a good time. The concert will open at 7:15 with overtures by the Wheeler and Wilson orchestra. Miss Anna Sadler, the well known vocalist, will contribute the first selection, followed by choir. Miss Veronika Dargan will give a recitation and Joseph Clabby will render "If Dreams Come True." Miss Mollie Daily will sing "What'll Buy My Lavenders," while Joseph Wicler will sing "The Wreck of the Hester." A quart, "The Passage of Birds' Paradise," sung by Joseph Wicler and J. A. Kimber, will be the concluding number of the musical program. Dancing will follow and as an added attraction there will be any number of the old-fashioned square dancing which contributes so much to the enjoyment of this kind, but which of late years have been omitted from the dance program. The committee will do their utmost to see that patrons get a full measure of enjoyment out of the evening. The proceeds are to be devoted to the benefit of the church.

TAXPAYERS' ATTENTION.

MASS MEETING, WARNER HALL
(Y. M. C. A. Building, Corner Main and Gilbert Streets)

The last Board of Aldermen, by a vote of 16 to 8, saddled the city with an extravagant gift to the employees of the city department. Crying needs for new sewers, new pavements, new schools, etc., received scant consideration. Of the 16 aldermen responsible for this, only six were taxpayers—TEN WERE NOT TAXPAYERS. This is TAXATION WITHOUT PROPER REPRESENTATION.

ARISE TAXPAYERS.

Constitute yourselves a body with but one purpose, a greater, finer Bridgeport—a League of Taxpayers. Such a league will be a long needed help to your city officers, who have heretofore heard from you on municipal matters but once in two years. Let the incoming city government be asured at the outset, of a willing, cheerful shoulder to the wheel in all business which makes for the common good.

Even though you pay taxes on the smallest property in Bridgeport, you are invited to join the league—"without regard to race, party, creed, sex or social station."
