

STRAITFORD

Tuesday night last, at about 7 o'clock, Mrs. Lewis, while passing what is known as Bedell's corner, on Broad street, was held up by two tramps who demanded money.

As was expected when Mr. Harold Lowell was elected town clerk, he will enter upon his duties early in January. He is one of the "boys" who received the suffrages of the people for the position.

The legend: "Watch taxes grow in Stratford" which once adorned the front of the Sammie emporium, has been obliterated.

Dick Sherwood, of Southport, was visiting in town on Tuesday evening. Chances are being rapidly taken on a 5-pound box of Huyler's Best, for the benefit of the High School basketball team.

Tuesday evening there was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Macabees at the residence of Mrs. Wood. Some 25 ladies have already joined the order, and 40 applications have been received.

The Canaan Whist Club met last night with Mrs. Paulson. The next meeting will be at the residence of Mr. James Sexton, on Tuesday evening of next week.

This evening at Christ church chapel there will be addresses by Rev. Dr. Packard and Rev. Geo. Farrar, on "The Resurrection."

The neighborhood church cantata is to be "Santa Claus and Good News." It will be given at the residence of Mr. W. P. Packard on Friday evening.

Remember that on Friday evening at Red Men's hall the local football team will start its campaign.

Miss May Booth of Milford has been visiting in town. The only music teacher in town, Mr. Livingston N. Smith, has been under the weather for a few days, and confined to his bed.

It is thought the assessors will have completed the review of the real estate of the town by the first of December. Already Holland Heights and the Ononago district has been disposed of.
