OTIS SKINNER COMING

Silver Wedding Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Otis Skinner of New York City, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on November 21st, 1910. The dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ottis, and was attended by members of the family and a number of friends. The guests were entertained with a sumptuous dinner, and the occasion was one of great joy and happiness. The couple were showered with congratulations and well wishes, and the occasion was one of great rejoicing. The couple have been married for twenty-five years and have made a happy home for each other. They are both well known in the city and have a large number of friends.

EASTertime

The Eastertime has arrived, and the streets and shops are filled with the usual rush of people. It is a busy time of year, and the shops are doing a good business. The stores are filled with the latest in fashions, and the people are busy buying gifts for their families. The weather is cold and snowy, and the people are bundled up in thick coats and scarves. The streets are crowded with people, and the air is filled with the sound of voices and the hum of the city. It is a busy and hectic time of year, but the people are happy and contented. The Eastertime is a time of joy and prosperity, and the people are glad to be alive.
