

Have You Seen Our Finest Suits? We have the pick of Suits from the finest tailoring organizations in America in our Spring Suits from $22 to $35.

Styles that set the pace for the best clothes shops everywhere! Clothes that fit and look like finest custom made! Weaves and colors that are exclusive!

Exquisite grays, plain and shadow stripe blues, pin-stripe blues and blacks, gray and brown pin checks—all the hits of the present season.

Better than custom-made, because you see how a suit looks before you buy. Come and look and try on.

The finest line of blue serge suits we have ever had is here, at $10 to $30.

Stetson soft hats for now, $4 to $5.

MEIGS & CO. INCORPORATED

JACKSON'S

Jackson's Vaudeville.

With the exception of Collins and Hart, who are heading the vaudeville program at Jackson's theatre the entire week, the bill which was presented at this theatre this afternoon and which will be continued the remainder of the week, is entirely different from that presented the first half, and is in a sense far more entertaining. Among the new acts, one particularly deserving of comment is presented by two of vaudeville's cleverest laughmiths, Hammond and Forrester and is billed "A Dainty Melange of Original Humorsities."

BRIDGEPORTER HURT IN NORWALK AUTO SMASH

A. L. Pratt of this city, a demonstrator of vacuum cleaning machines was injured in an automobile accident near Canaan, Tuesday, when a machine owned by E. J. Middlebrook, of 21 Adams avenue, Norwalk, ran into a fence and tossed both Pratt and Middlebrook into an open lot.

Connecticut Patents.

The following were issued May 17, 1910. List furnished from office of A. M. Wooster, solicitor of patents, Bridgeport, Conn. G. W. Goodridge, Bridgeport, 2 patents: Electric air-blast cap; Frank W. Slady, Bridgeport, Pull socket; Herbert Vanderbeck, Bridgeport, Brake; Ebben S. Allen, New Haven, Electrically controlled gas igniting and extinguishing device; Thos. C. Johnson, New Haven, Repeating firearm; Warren J. Belcher, Hartford, Drive chain construction; Henry Green, Hartford, X-ray tube; Thos. Peterson, Hartford, Line holder; Francis H. Richards, Hartford, 5 patents: Oil and feed mechanism; Machine for making types and type-bars; Rolling mechanism; Type-bar; Making type and type bars; August Arens and E. Teich, New Britain, 2 patents: Hotel lock; Latch mechanism for emergency doors; Henry G. Voight and N. B. Hurd, New Britain, Door controlling mechanism; Luke T. Burns, Waterbury, Siphon valve; Jos. R. Smith, Waterbury, Buckle, design; Keres L. Comes, Danbury, Heating utensil; Jas. T. Hammond, Winsted, Handle; Walter A. Holden, Ansonia, Buckle; Burton L. Lawton, Meriden, Vibrator for induction coils; H. A. Chippendale, New London, Cigar cutter forming part of a combination tool; Lyman G. Glazier, Pomfret Center, Burglar proof safe door; Trade Marks; The Star Pin Co., Shelton, Toilet pins; B. A. Starford & Co., Greenwich, Sheetings and tickings.

A national physical laboratory in England used a whirling table with a 60 foot arm to test the trust of airship propellers. It now is possible to telephone from Liverpool to Paris, Brussels and several smaller cities and towns in France and Belgium. The Department of Agriculture is experimenting with wild cotton from Jamaica with a view to breeding it with the native plant.

REDDING RENTS A PORTION OF HILL ACADEMY

Mark Twain Mansion Will be Offered For Sale Soon

PROPERTY COST $32,000

Dogs Attack Flock of Thoroughbred Sheep and Mangle Four

Redding, May 19.—Arrangements have been effected between the trustees of the Hill Academy and the town school committee by which the town acquires a lease of accommodations in the academy building for a period of five years. The contract was closed last Friday. J. B. Sanford and John C. Read acting as a committee to represent the academy trustees who as a body had previously given their assent to the proposition. The condemnation of the Center district school house had necessitated other provisions for housing the pupils of a territory formerly divided into three districts and the plan arrived at is considered a highly satisfactory solution of the problem. By the terms of the agreement the town will pay the cost of installing a furnace. The rent is to be $75 a year, the heating expense being divided. One of these days of course the town will have to erect a school building of its own at the Center. Some years ago there was considered the plan of making use of the academy to provide the town with a high school. The project fell through for two reasons, one being that the present method of sending pupils out of town is less expensive and the other that it would be less convenient for west side pupils to travel over the hills to the Center than to reach Bethel, Danbury or Norwalk by train. The Hill Academy was founded by the late Sanford Hill of New Haven and has been during a good deal of its history a sort of a chickering institution partly by reason of an insufficient endowment although the town added $1,000 to the sum given by the founder. As was generally anticipated the Mark Twain place, "Stormfield" is to be sold soon or at least offered for sale. Since the house was built at a cost of about $2,000 there has been local speculation as to what the property would bring when it came upon the market. A contingency looked forward to as not many years distant. Property of that class usually has to wait for a customer and seldom brings the amount of the original investment. For one thing Stormfield will at least have the advantage of being well advertised. Mrs. Clara Gabriewitch the present owner, and her husband are to occupy the place for the rest of the summer and will then return to Europe where they expect to spend most of their future lives. Early on Tuesday afternoon four dogs since two dogs attacked a flock of thoroughbred sheep at the Storrs College farm in Georgetown and fatally mangled three or four. The attack succeeded in killing one of the dogs but the other got away and to whom it belongs has not been learned. The dog was by the dead dog shows that the animal belonged to Harry Peck who recently moved from this town to Newtown.

REDDING RENTS A PORTION OF HILL ACADEMY

Redding, May 19.—Arrangements have been effected between the trustees of the Hill Academy and the town school committee by which the town acquires a lease of accommodations in the academy building for a period of five years. The contract was closed last Friday. J. B. Sanford and John C. Read acting as a committee to represent the academy trustees who as a body had previously given their assent to the proposition. The condemnation of the Center district school house had necessitated other provisions for housing the pupils of a territory formerly divided into three districts and the plan arrived at is considered a highly satisfactory solution of the problem. By the terms of the agreement the town will pay the cost of installing a furnace. The rent is to be $75 a year, the heating expense being divided. One of these days of course the town will have to erect a school building of its own at the Center. Some years ago there was considered the plan of making use of the academy to provide the town with a high school. The project fell through for two reasons, one being that the present method of sending pupils out of town is less expensive and the other that it would be less convenient for west side pupils to travel over the hills to the Center than to reach Bethel, Danbury or Norwalk by train. The Hill Academy was founded by the late Sanford Hill of New Haven and has been during a good deal of its history a sort of a chickering institution partly by reason of an insufficient endowment although the town added $1,000 to the sum given by the founder. As was generally anticipated the Mark Twain place, "Stormfield" is to be sold soon or at least offered for sale. Since the house was built at a cost of about $2,000 there has been local speculation as to what the property would bring when it came upon the market. A contingency looked forward to as not many years distant. Property of that class usually has to wait for a customer and seldom brings the amount of the original investment. For one thing Stormfield will at least have the advantage of being well advertised. Mrs. Clara Gabriewitch the present owner, and her husband are to occupy the place for the rest of the summer and will then return to Europe where they expect to spend most of their future lives. Early on Tuesday afternoon four dogs since two dogs attacked a flock of thoroughbred sheep at the Storrs College farm in Georgetown and fatally mangled three or four. The attack succeeded in killing one of the dogs but the other got away and to whom it belongs has not been learned. The dog was by the dead dog shows that the animal belonged to Harry Peck who recently moved from this town to Newtown.

REDDING RENTS A PORTION OF HILL ACADEMY

Redding, May 19.—Arrangements have been effected between the trustees of the Hill Academy and the town school committee by which the town acquires a lease of accommodations in the academy building for a period of five years. The contract was closed last Friday. J. B. Sanford and John C. Read acting as a committee to represent the academy trustees who as a body had previously given their assent to the proposition. The condemnation of the Center district school house had necessitated other provisions for housing the pupils of a territory formerly divided into three districts and the plan arrived at is considered a highly satisfactory solution of the problem. By the terms of the agreement the town will pay the cost of installing a furnace. The rent is to be $75 a year, the heating expense being divided. One of these days of course the town will have to erect a school building of its own at the Center. Some years ago there was considered the plan of making use of the academy to provide the town with a high school. The project fell through for two reasons, one being that the present method of sending pupils out of town is less expensive and the other that it would be less convenient for west side pupils to travel over the hills to the Center than to reach Bethel, Danbury or Norwalk by train. The Hill Academy was founded by the late Sanford Hill of New Haven and has been during a good deal of its history a sort of a chickering institution partly by reason of an insufficient endowment although the town added $1,000 to the sum given by the founder. As was generally anticipated the Mark Twain place, "Stormfield" is to be sold soon or at least offered for sale. Since the house was built at a cost of about $2,000 there has been local speculation as to what the property would bring when it came upon the market. A contingency looked forward to as not many years distant. Property of that class usually has to wait for a customer and seldom brings the amount of the original investment. For one thing Stormfield will at least have the advantage of being well advertised. Mrs. Clara Gabriewitch the present owner, and her husband are to occupy the place for the rest of the summer and will then return to Europe where they expect to spend most of their future lives. Early on Tuesday afternoon four dogs since two dogs attacked a flock of thoroughbred sheep at the Storrs College farm in Georgetown and fatally mangled three or four. The attack succeeded in killing one of the dogs but the other got away and to whom it belongs has not been learned. The dog was by the dead dog shows that the animal belonged to Harry Peck who recently moved from this town to Newtown.

Up to the 15th of this month Town Clerk Nickerson had taken in and paid over for dog licenses the sum of $119 which is a record breaker as compared with former years. John S. Sanford is recovering from an attack of incipient blood poisoning due to an injury to one of his toes.

Having improved in health Mrs. Bishop will undertake to finish out the term as teacher at the Center school. Mrs. J. N. Hanke of the west side has been granted a widow's pension. Commodore Lutjgen has come to his summer home on Sunset Hill for the season. Mrs. Harry Greenbaum and infant son returned from Bridgeport yesterday. Eugene Adams has sold a large tract of timber woodland to Terry, the lumber man.

REDDING RENTS A PORTION OF HILL ACADEMY

Redding, May 19.—Arrangements have been effected between the trustees of the Hill Academy and the town school committee by which the town acquires a lease of accommodations in the academy building for a period of five years. The contract was closed last Friday. J. B. Sanford and John C. Read acting as a committee to represent the academy trustees who as a body had previously given their assent to the proposition. The condemnation of the Center district school house had necessitated other provisions for housing the pupils of a territory formerly divided into three districts and the plan arrived at is considered a highly satisfactory solution of the problem. By the terms of the agreement the town will pay the cost of installing a furnace. The rent is to be $75 a year, the heating expense being divided. One of these days of course the town will have to erect a school building of its own at the Center. Some years ago there was considered the plan of making use of the academy to provide the town with a high school. The project fell through for two reasons, one being that the present method of sending pupils out of town is less expensive and the other that it would be less convenient for west side pupils to travel over the hills to the Center than to reach Bethel, Danbury or Norwalk by train. The Hill Academy was founded by the late Sanford Hill of New Haven and has been during a good deal of its history a sort of a chickering institution partly by reason of an insufficient endowment although the town added $1,000 to the sum given by the founder. As was generally anticipated the Mark Twain place, "Stormfield" is to be sold soon or at least offered for sale. Since the house was built at a cost of about $2,000 there has been local speculation as to what the property would bring when it came upon the market. A contingency looked forward to as not many years distant. Property of that class usually has to wait for a customer and seldom brings the amount of the original investment. For one thing Stormfield will at least have the advantage of being well advertised. Mrs. Clara Gabriewitch the present owner, and her husband are to occupy the place for the rest of the summer and will then return to Europe where they expect to spend most of their future lives. Early on Tuesday afternoon four dogs since two dogs attacked a flock of thoroughbred sheep at the Storrs College farm in Georgetown and fatally mangled three or four. The attack succeeded in killing one of the dogs but the other got away and to whom it belongs has not been learned. The dog was by the dead dog shows that the animal belonged to Harry Peck who recently moved from this town to Newtown.

REDDING RENTS A PORTION OF HILL ACADEMY

Redding, May 19.—Arrangements have been effected between the trustees of the Hill Academy and the town school committee by which the town acquires a lease of accommodations in the academy building for a period of five years. The contract was closed last Friday. J. B. Sanford and John C. Read acting as a committee to represent the academy trustees who as a body had previously given their assent to the proposition. The condemnation of the Center district school house had necessitated other provisions for housing the pupils of a territory formerly divided into three districts and the plan arrived at is considered a highly satisfactory solution of the problem. By the terms of the agreement the town will pay the cost of installing a furnace. The rent is to be $75 a year, the heating expense being divided. One of these days of course the town will have to erect a school building of its own at the Center. Some years ago there was considered the plan of making use of the academy to provide the town with a high school. The project fell through for two reasons, one being that the present method of sending pupils out of town is less expensive and the other that it would be less convenient for west side pupils to travel over the hills to the Center than to reach Bethel, Danbury or Norwalk by train. The Hill Academy was founded by the late Sanford Hill of New Haven and has been during a good deal of its history a sort of a chickering institution partly by reason of an insufficient endowment although the town added $1,000 to the sum given by the founder. As was generally anticipated the Mark Twain place, "Stormfield" is to be sold soon or at least offered for sale. Since the house was built at a cost of about $2,000 there has been local speculation as to what the property would bring when it came upon the market. A contingency looked forward to as not many years distant. Property of that class usually has to wait for a customer and seldom brings the amount of the original investment. For one thing Stormfield will at least have the advantage of being well advertised. Mrs. Clara Gabriewitch the present owner, and her husband are to occupy the place for the rest of the summer and will then return to Europe where they expect to spend most of their future lives. Early on Tuesday afternoon four dogs since two dogs attacked a flock of thoroughbred sheep at the Storrs College farm in Georgetown and fatally mangled three or four. The attack succeeded in killing one of the dogs but the other got away and to whom it belongs has not been learned. The dog was by the dead dog shows that the animal belonged to Harry Peck who recently moved from this town to Newtown.

REDDING RENTS A PORTION OF HILL ACADEMY

Redding, May 19.—Arrangements have been effected between the trustees of the Hill Academy and the town school committee by which the town acquires a lease of accommodations in the academy building for a period of five years. The contract was closed last Friday. J. B. Sanford and John C. Read acting as a committee to represent the academy trustees who as a body had previously given their assent to the proposition. The condemnation of the Center district school house had necessitated other provisions for housing the pupils of a territory formerly divided into three districts and the plan arrived at is considered a highly satisfactory solution of the problem. By the terms of the agreement the town will pay the cost of installing a furnace. The rent is to be $75 a year, the heating expense being divided. One of these days of course the town will have to erect a school building of its own at the Center. Some years ago there was considered the plan of making use of the academy to provide the town with a high school. The project fell through for two reasons, one being that the present method of sending pupils out of town is less expensive and the other that it would be less convenient for west side pupils to travel over the hills to the Center than to reach Bethel, Danbury or Norwalk by train. The Hill Academy was founded by the late Sanford Hill of New Haven and has been during a good deal of its history a sort of a chickering institution partly by reason of an insufficient endowment although the town added $1,000 to the sum given by the founder. As was generally anticipated the Mark Twain place, "Stormfield" is to be sold soon or at least offered for sale. Since the house was built at a cost of about $2,000 there has been local speculation as to what the property would bring when it came upon the market. A contingency looked forward to as not many years distant. Property of that class usually has to wait for a customer and seldom brings the amount of the original investment. For one thing Stormfield will at least have the advantage of being well advertised. Mrs. Clara Gabriewitch the present owner, and her husband are to occupy the place for the rest of the summer and will then return to Europe where they expect to spend most of their future lives. Early on Tuesday afternoon four dogs since two dogs attacked a flock of thoroughbred sheep at the Storrs College farm in Georgetown and fatally mangled three or four. The attack succeeded in killing one of the dogs but the other got away and to whom it belongs has not been learned. The dog was by the dead dog shows that the animal belonged to Harry Peck who recently moved from this town to Newtown.

REDDING RENTS A PORTION OF HILL ACADEMY

Redding, May 19.—Arrangements have been effected between the trustees of the Hill Academy and the town school committee by which the town acquires a lease of accommodations in the academy building for a period of five years. The contract was closed last Friday. J. B. Sanford and John C. Read acting as a committee to represent the academy trustees who as a body had previously given their assent to the proposition. The condemnation of the Center district school house had necessitated other provisions for housing the pupils of a territory formerly divided into three districts and the plan arrived at is considered a highly satisfactory solution of the problem. By the terms of the agreement the town will pay the cost of installing a furnace. The rent is to be $75 a year, the heating expense being divided. One of these days of course the town will have to erect a school building of its own at the Center. Some years ago there was considered the plan of making use of the academy to provide the town with a high school. The project fell through for two reasons, one being that the present method of sending pupils out of town is less expensive and the other that it would be less convenient for west side pupils to travel over the hills to the Center than to reach Bethel, Danbury or Norwalk by train. The Hill Academy was founded by the late Sanford Hill of New Haven and has been during a good deal of its history a sort of a chickering institution partly by reason of an insufficient endowment although the town added $1,000 to the sum given by the founder. As was generally anticipated the Mark Twain place, "Stormfield" is to be sold soon or at least offered for sale. Since the house was built at a cost of about $2,000 there has been local speculation as to what the property would bring when it came upon the market. A contingency looked forward to as not many years distant. Property of that class usually has to wait for a customer and seldom brings the amount of the original investment. For one thing Stormfield will at least have the advantage of being well advertised. Mrs. Clara Gabriewitch the present owner, and her husband are to occupy the place for the rest of the summer and will then return to Europe where they expect to spend most of their future lives. Early on Tuesday afternoon four dogs since two dogs attacked a flock of thoroughbred sheep at the Storrs College farm in Georgetown and fatally mangled three or four. The attack succeeded in killing one of the dogs but the other got away and to whom it belongs has not been learned. The dog was by the dead dog shows that the animal belonged to Harry Peck who recently moved from this town to Newtown.

Up to the 15th of this month Town Clerk Nickerson had taken in and paid over for dog licenses the sum of $119 which is a record breaker as compared with former years. John S. Sanford is recovering from

$6,000 VERDICT FOR INJURIES IN A FACTORY

Jury's Award to Albert Hitrick Employed by Howard C. Brown of Colchester

New Haven, May 19.—After being out two hours and a half, the jury in the case of Albert Hitrick vs. Howard C. Brown of Colchester, which has been on trial in the United States Circuit Court rendered a verdict awarding $6,000 for the plaintiff.

This award covers $25,000 damages for alleged injuries received in the factory of the defendant. It is claimed that the plaintiff was employed in the defendant's mill and was caught in hot steam rollers and his hands, arms and face badly burned and the sight of one eye lost. The plaintiff presented a badly crippled appearance in the court room.

Immediately following the announcement of the decision of the jury, Attorney Seymour C. Loomis, of this city, for the defense, made a motion to set aside the verdict. Attorney Loomis claims that the verdict is excessive and is not in accordance with the evidence. Judge Platt decided to hold a hearing on this part of the case on May 31, when both sides will be heard on the question.

MERIDEN SCHOOL BOARD TO CUT SALARIES OF MALE PRINCIPALS $2,000

Meriden, May 19.—Although the board and the superintendent of public schools here absolutely refuse to discuss the matter, it has been learned that the salaries of supervisors and principals will be cut in aggregate $2,000. It is thought that three principals will be reduced in salary by $400 year each, while another will lose $150, the rest of the salary decrease being divided among the supervisors.

HIGHWAY CONTRACTS AWARDED

Contracts for the construction of highways in the following towns have been awarded by State Highway Commissioner Macdonald: In Colebrook, to John DeMichele & Bros. of Torrington, for $1.45 per lineal foot for gravel, $2.15 for telford and 95 cents for rubble drain. In Winchester, to the same contractors, $1.54 for gravel, $2.15 for telford and $2.95 for rubble drain. In Ridgefield, to Merritt & Bush of Stamford, for macadam $2.85 per foot and $2.95 for telford. In Ridgefield, to E. Argoni & Bro., $1.97 for gravel, $2.41 for telford and $1.37 for rubble drain.

POINTS OF INTEREST.

Boat Load of Fresh Caught blue fish just arrived at W. D. Cook & Sons, to be sold cheaper than ever before. Also, lot of halibut, steak cod, haddock, pollock, blue fish, shad, Long Island eels, porgies, flat fish, butter fish, sea bass, live lobsters, soft crabs, and all other kinds of fresh fish in season at lowest prices. Pure cod liver oil a specialty at W. D. Cook & Sons.

Halley's Comet did not even jar old mother earth and is now rapidly receding into space. That's one difference between the comet and Parker the jeweler, 9 P. O. Arcade, as this well known house is gradually growing in popularity and coming toward you every day. Exceptional values can be secured in all lines and repairing is here done quickly and neatly by expert workmen.

You sometimes hear men say "What the use of paying $25 or $30 for a ready-to-wear suit when you can have one made to order for the same price?" Grant that you can, how will it be made? Will it be designed by a $20,000 man? Will the most skilled tailors in America tailor it? Will it be made from the choicest fabrics loomed in this country? Unless it will have all these sources of perfection on which to draw, it will not satisfy you nearly as well as one of Meigs & Co.'s fine ready-to-wear Spring suits at twenty to thirty-five dollars, which do draw their splendid style and get from these very sources we mention above. This firm is showing a beautiful assortment of grays, browns and blues in shorn and unfinished worsteds, serges, fancy cassimeres and Scotch weaves, in styles which will satisfy the most critical man in town.

COAL and WOOD Flour, Grain, Hay and Straw, WHOLESALE and RETAIL

Telephone 397 BERKSHIRE MILLS Branch Office: 981 BROAD STREET Telephone 3884 Try Sprague's Extra HIGH GRADE LEHIGH COAL Sprague Ice & Coal Co. East End East Washington Ave. Bridge Telephone 710

IRA GREGORY & CO., Established 1847

Branch Office 972 Main Street Main Office 262 Stratford Avenue

ABSOLUTELY CLEAN COAL GUARANTEED SCREENED BY A SPECIAL MACHINE QUALITY UNSURPASSED

WHEELER & HOWES, 944 Main Street East End Congress Street Bridge

Want Ads Cent a Word.

THREE DAYS OF THE Great Piano Sale

AT THE WISSNER PIANO

WAREROOMS have demonstrated that the people of Bridgeport and vicinity have confidence in the House of Wissner—Confidence that when we advertise.

A BIG REDUCTION IN PRICES

that we have the goods and that they are GENUINE BARGAINS

Just read over the list of bargains, then take a car to our store and see these wonderful values—as good as new in many cases, and within the reach of EVERY BRIDGEPORT HOME On Terms To Suit any Pocketbook

Table listing piano models and prices: $450 Chickering now $155, 300 Guild now 125, 325 Putnam now 180, 275 Reinhard now 210, 300 Wagner now 170, 550 Wissner now 280, 350 Reinhard now 275, 400 Leckering now 215, 325 Richardson now 190, 250 Dunham now $70, $225 Chambers now $ 65, 275 Styles now 210, 350 Styles now 275, 375 Styles now 315, 400 Styles now 330, 475 Styles now 395, 300 Styles now 175, 325 Styles now 190, 550 Styles now 540

In connection with the above we are also offering the following: DON'T FAIL TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THEM

BRAND NEW $175 EASY TERMS, BRAND NEW $190 From Stock MONTHLY PAYMENTS., BRAND NEW $210 A GENUINE BARGAIN., BRAND NEW $225 CAN'T BE DUPLICATED FOR $400.

ALL PIANOS GUARANTEED DELIVERY AND STOOL

ABSOLUTELY FREE WISSNER WAREROOMS COR. BROAD AND STATE STREETS, BRIDGEPORT.

MONEY TO LOAN ON FURNITURE and PIANOS HOUSEKEEPERS who desire a little extra money can borrow from $10 to $100.00 here at the VERY LOWEST RATES. POSITIVELY NO PUBLICITY. All the furniture is left with you. Small Weekly or Monthly Payments Accepted. Courteous employes, Private rooms for free consultations. If you cannot call we will send an agent. HOUSEHOLD LOAN COMPANY Room 300 Meigs Bldg. 3rd Floor, Front of Elevator. Phone 1384. Open Evenings

Carriages and Go-Carts

We handle the well known and well liked Bloch Carriages and Go-Carts. Their many advantages are known to a great many Bridgeporters and more are getting a-day. You will never regret buying a Bloch Carriage. They have the quality of material that wears well for years.

N. BUCKINGHAM & CO., Inc. FURNITURE AND UPHOLSTERY Established 1842 177 STATE STREET

ADVERTISE IN THE FARMER.

Your Boy Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a strong tonic, entirely free from alcohol.