

GRAND REPUBLIC IN FLAMES BUT ALL ON BOARD SAVED

(Special from United Press.)
New York, July 6.—The big excursion side-wheel steamboat, Grand Republic, a sister ship of the ill-fated General Slocum, which burned in New York harbor a few years ago with the loss of 1,200 lives, was discovered in flames this afternoon as she came through the Narrows in the lower bay. As soon as the flames were discovered by those on shore a number of tugs and pleasure boats put out to her assistance. Her captain headed her for the nearest dock and several fireboats hurried to the scene. To those on shore it did not seem that there were many passengers on board. While the big steamboat was dashing toward shore, her sirens a number of the pleasure boats took off the frightened passengers. All were saved.

GHASTLY BODY SCAR SHOWN AS EVIDENCE

Ghastly scars of a wound in the abdomen that nearly killed John Treesak, of 61 Summer street, in a fight at Dulles' hall, Main street and Railroad avenue, on Memorial day, were shown by Treesak in the City court today when Michael Harellick of 61 Summer street, Michael Sibaluck of 190 Hallett street, and Alex Hosen of 190 Hallett street, were placed on trial for assault with intent to kill. Treesak left St. Vincent's hospital only last week. More than 30 stitches were required to close the gash in his abdomen, while his scalp was split by beer bottles and cast iron knuckles. The affair resulted from rivalry for dances with the bride whose wedding was the occasion of the festivities. The trial continued throughout the afternoon.

UMPIRE LAHEY'S CLOSE CALL IN BOARDING TRAIN

(Special from United Press.)
New Haven, July 6.—The Connecticut State League came high losing one of its umpires today when Thomas Lahey, official arbitrator of balls and strikes, fell in trying to board a slowly moving train at the local station of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company and was almost crushed beneath the wheels. He only sustained a cut wrist and leg bruises.

well organized band of bicycle thieves of which Mangione Joseph, arrested here Saturday was but a humble member, came today when Chief Vollmer of South Norwalk and Detective Fox of this city unearthed more stolen bicycles.

Five were found yesterday by Captain Arnold and Detective Fox in the outskirts of South Norwalk. The others were located last night and today Detective Fox was busy looking up more of the stolen wheels. Some of them have already been identified as belonging in Bridgeport while others have been traced to other cities. Search is being made for Joseph's companions in crime.

"MIX IN THE AUTO" WESLEY TO CHARLEY

But Wesley Went When Charley Clapped the Nippers on Berries and Booze

Wesley Pitcher, a farmer of Success Hill, Stratford, arraigned before Justice Peck in the Stratford court this morning on the charge of drunkenness breach of the peace, wife beating and resistance to an officer, had his case continued pending his good behavior. Sheriff Stag was told of the spat, hurrying to Pitcher's home in his auto. As Stag drew up to the home he saw Pitcher in a corner too heavy a large stone at his daughter. When Stag asked Pitcher to jump into the machine, Pitcher refused saying: "Nix on that stuff, it cost me my last time I took a ride with you."

CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER'S FUNERAL Services at Late Summer Home in Maine—Body on Way to Chicago for Burial

(Special from United Press.)
Sorrento, Me., July 6.—With associate Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes here as the official representative of the United States Supreme Court, simple funeral services were held here today over the body of Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller, who died of heart disease on Monday.
The ceremony which was of the most informal nature, was held at "Mainstay," the summer residence of Mrs. Nathaniel Francis, where Justice Fuller died. It was conducted by the Rev. James E. Freeman, the pastor and an old friend of the Fuller family who will accompany the body to Chicago, where interment will be made on Friday in Graceland Cemetery beside the grave of the late Chief Justice's wife, who died here six years ago.
Four of Justice Fuller's five daughters were here for the services today. They are, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. T. S. Beecher and Mrs. R. F. Mason. The fifth daughter, Mrs. H. C. Wallace of Tacoma, Wash., will wait the arrival of the body in Chicago.
At the conclusion of the services here the body, accompanied by the mourning party, will be taken to a p. m. steamer to Mt. Desert Ferry where the late afternoon express will take it and the mourners to Boston. There connection will be made for a train to Chicago. According to pre-arrangements the body will be taken to Chicago by the late afternoon express. Plans for the funeral here were made by Justice Holmes, General Thomas Hudson, and Chief Justice Hyde of Bowdoin, and Chief Justice Fuller's two sons-in-law, Hugh C. Wallace of Tacoma, Wash., and Nathaniel Francis of Washington.

TOOTH CARPENTER INNOCENT CAUSE OF RUBBER NECKING

Woman With Robust Lungs
Surviving Dental Operation
Screams Vociferously
Shriek screams accompanied all traffic in Main street at 1:30 o'clock this morning, headed by a parade of police and the Meigs and Clark building, and pedestrians all stopped to locate the cause of the commotion. It sounded as though a woman was being terribly beaten and the screams lasted for several minutes.
Officer Walker left his post at Fairfield avenue and hurried to the scene. He located it as coming out of the building on the third floor of a central building. Then the policeman realized the situation. Some woman patient was coming out of the stupor produced by an anesthetic. Whoever she was the patient had strong lungs for a woman. Her screams were heard above all the din of traffic.

BIRMINGHAM AMUSED AT Opposition to Motion Pictures of Fight

Superintendent Birmingham was rather amused when he was informed that there was an effort on foot to suppress the motion pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight. "I haven't heard any protest yet," said he. "I said he would take no action in the matter unless his attention was brought to it officially."
OBITUARY
The funeral of Jennie M., wife of Robert Casey, was held from the home of her mother, Mrs. Bridget Delaney, 1851 Park avenue, at 3:30 and half an hour later from St. Augustine's church where a solemn high mass was celebrated by the Rev. Charles McElroy as celebrant, Rev. John J. Kennedy as deacon, and the Rev. James O'Meara, as sub-deacon. The casket was placed in the church by the Rev. John J. Kennedy, and Mrs. Finton Kelley, and Miss Mae Stanton rendered the music incidental to the mass. As the casket was being borne from the church the quartet sang "Come Unto Me." Many friends attended from her late home, Brooklyn, N. Y., and the New York city. The pall bearers were Stephen Brannigan, Oscar Knablin, Thomas Keating and John Ross of this city, and W. J. Casey and John Manney of Brooklyn. Rev. Father O'Meara accompanied the funeral cortege to St. Michael's cemetery where interment was in the family plot.

FACE TORN UP BY TROLLEY CAR

Laborer on Wheel Disfigured for Life With Many Gashes

WOUNDS NEEDED 36 STITCHES Cheeks Torn Open, Lips Al- most Ripped Off and In- terior of Mouth Gashed

Disfigured for life by many gashes in the face resulting from collision with trolley car as he wheeled to work at 8:30 this morning, John Szal, married, aged 27, of 396 James street, has 36 stitches to hold his badly battered features together. He was taken to the Emergency hospital in the ambulance from the scene of the accident, East Washington and Housatonic avenue.
Szal had three gashes extending from the right side of his mouth, tearing open his cheek in as many directions, another extending from the left corner of the lip across through the right nostril, another laying the lower lip open two inches and one inside the mouth over an inch long.
Dr. McQueney sewed the man's face together at the Emergency hospital and sent him home in the ambulance.

Judge Foster Views Law of Evidence Through Differ- ent Eyes Than His Asso- ciate.

Judge Carl Foster in the City Court, civil side, has upheld the finding of the jury in the suit of Joshua Butler against Mrs. Charles Cheikins, allowing the defendant a verdict on a counter claim of $200 and the plaintiff $75 for medical expenses.
Two juries of twelve men tried the issues. Assistant City Clerk Lawrence J. Gill being the foreman of the first jury, and Col. Tracy E. Warren, foreman of the second jury.

DIRIGIBLE FOR NEWPORT CLASS

(Special from United Press.)
Newport, R. I., July 6.—Newport's wealthy summer residents are to have something new this year as an added attraction to those which have made the resort famous. The novelty will be a dirigible airship line, the first in America. With his machine already on the ground, Stuart Davis of Providence, R. I., who represents the Zodiac Dirigible Airship Company of New York, is hustling here today in completing the aerodromes at which the machine will berth after its voyage from Providence to Point, Seabach and Narragansett. It is expected that the air line will be in operation within six weeks.

RACE RIOTS IN CHICAGO. (Special from United Press.)

Chicago, July 6.—Fear of race riots today led Chief of Police Stewart to order a parade of the police and celebration which had been planned in honor of Jack Johnson upon his arrival here Thursday.

WRIT OF ERROR IN FORBES-ROWLEY CASE

Friday morning in the Common Pleas court, Judge Scott will sit in hearing on the application of Mrs. Ida Rowley of Brooklyn, for a writ of error to review the fact concerning the poor debtor's oath which was taken by Mrs. Jessie Livingston Forbes of Fairfield being allowed by Justice Bacon Wakeman in the Fairfield Justice court on June 18th.
Mrs. Rowley has a judgment for $200 in the office of Sanitary court in her suit against Mrs. Forbes for alienation of the affections of her husband, Ernest Rowley, the Forbes chauffeur who left her in the hands of Mrs. Forbes. She had not obtained the judgment she had Mrs. Forbes arrested on a body writ, but she was later released on bonds of $5,000. Mrs. Forbes took oath before the court that she did not have more than $17 in the world which she could call her own.

GARBAGE DISPOSAL

For the purpose of settling the question of garbage disposal and to hear the report of the Sanitary Engineer Featherstone of Staten Island the board of health, and its advisory committee will meet at 4 o'clock, Friday, in the office of Rocky, Pointe Engineer Featherstone has been looking over the conditions. His recommendation is expected to include place, and kind of plant. The health board will make it possible for every one to be heard who desires to be heard, including the men who have plants to sell.

JEFFRIES MAY LOSE SIGHT OF RIGHT EYE

JEFFRIES IN OAKLAND.
San Francisco, July 6.—It is difficult to imagine a greater change in a man than that presented in James J. Jeffries today when he stepped from his private car at the depot in Oakland. Jeffries was not the same triumphant Jeff who boarded another private car in the same station less than a month ago bound for the battle ground at Reno. Then he looked every inch the athlete trained to the minute. Today he presented the appearance of an old man, broken and dejected and the picture of weakness.
A fan-sized crowd met the fallen idol at the station but there was scarcely a cheer. Jeffries' old admirers seemed to feel that he would prefer to efface himself from the scene as quickly as possible.
The boiler maker went direct from the depot to the home of his friend, Dick Adams, where he will remain a short time before going to southern California.

SYRIAN FIREBUG CASES NOT HEARD

James Haddad, the young Syrian who confessed to attempting to burn the store of Nicholas S. Smith, 2030 Main street, was remanded in the city court today for another week before his trial will be held.
He must wait for a hearing in jail, being unable to furnish bail, while Ernest Sully, the Syrian who was charged with the burning of the New Haven implicated by his confession, is at liberty in bail of $5,000. Prosecutor Redden asked a further continuance while the search for Smith is continued.

Fight Pictures to Be Barred In Many Cities

taken by the St. Louis police board to prevent the exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson pictures here according to Judge Matt C. Reynolds, president of the board. Mayor Kresiman said today:
"The fight pictures could not possibly be of educational value while on the other hand they would stimulate interest in pugilism which is in itself degrading."

NEGROES WEAR TUXEDOS.

Erie, Pa., July 6.—Mayor Liebel of Erie is a good sport. He says he sees no reason for suppressing the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures. The negroes here are very proper persons. Most of them wear tuxedos all the time. Many of them belong to the most fashionable church in town. Anyway, everybody in Erie wants to see how Johnson did it.

NEW BEDFORD WILL WAIT.

New Bedford, Mass., July 6.—When interviewed today regarding the movement to stop the reproduction of the moving pictures of the John-Jeffries fight at Reno, Mayor Charles S. Ashley declined to make any statement committing himself to any line of action.
"If the fight pictures are to be stopped," he said, "they will be stopped long before they reach New Bedford."

DETROIT MAY UTTER BAN.

Detroit, July 6.—Hundreds of protests against allowing the fight pictures to be shown here have been made. Police Commissioner Cronk says he will stop the pictures if the authorities want him to. "Personally I have no objections to the pictures," said Mayor Eitelmeier today.

PRIEST SAYS: "CRAVING NATU- RAL"

Washington, July 6.—"It is not elevating to see human animals pound- ing each other but there is a demand for the pictures and I can see no objection to their being shown," today declared Rev. Father Mackin of St. Paul's Church, discussing the agitation to stop the Jeff-Johnson fight pictures. "The craving to see the contest is a natural one," he continued, "football is more brutal."

NO PICTURES FOR IOWA.

Des Moines, July 6.—There will be no moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight shown in Iowa. A state law prohibits it and county authorities generally will enforce the law.

COLOR LINE FOR THEATRES.

New Orleans, July 6.—The authorities here today decided that the promoters of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures will be permitted to show the pictures in New Orleans but negroes must not be allowed to mingle with the whites in the theatre where the show is put on. The police officials have ordered that one floor should be reserved for the whites and one for the blacks.

WILL WAIT FOR TROUBLE.

New Haven, July 6.—"We won't trouble trouble until trouble troubles us," sums up the attitude of Mayor Frank J. Rice and Chief of Police H. D. Cowles on the nation wide movement to knock out the Jeff-Johnson fight pictures.

NO ACTION HERE.

Stamford, July 6.—No action will be taken to stop an exhibition of fight pictures in Stamford.
"They may serve a good purpose," said Mayor Edward J. Tupper. "I think the exhibition of a white man being knocked out by a negro should put an end to prize fighting."

SPRINGFIELD AGAINST.

Springfield, Mass., July 6.—Fight fans will not have a chance to see just how Johnson whipped Jeff. The police commission are sure to recommend to Mayor Lathrop that the picture show be barred.

PICTURES FOR HOLYOKE.

Holyoke, July 6.—Acting Mayor J. F. Sheehan stated today that he will not officially move to stop the presenting of the pictures.

BROCKTON MAYOR WILL WAIT.

Brockton, Mass., July 6.—Mayor W. H. Clifford of this city is non-committal today with regard to his probable action on a display of the fight pictures in this city.
Columbus, O., July 6.—That the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures reproduce a barbarous affair is being urged today why Mayor Marshall should forbid the presentation of the pictures here. The Mayor is considering the matter.
Deputy Sheriff Thomas Hamilton, on Friday will sell the contents of the clothing store formerly conducted by Samuel Postol, at No. 611. This morning he placed two incriminating items in the clothing establishment of H. Platt and Co., 537 Water street. One claim is made by J. Valenstein & Co., wholesale clothing store of New York for $1,600 and the other by David Steinberg of New York for $900.

Stories like The Firing Line.

There's no end to the good stories that this store spread before folks at 45 cents. It is an amazing collection. Each day it grows bigger. Such an assembly of books at such a small price is of interest to every man and woman who enjoys reading. It is of double interest just now for it sparkles with the sort of books that one likes to take along on vacation trip. Chambers, and McCutcheon, and Rinehart, and Tracy, and such writers are well-represented in tablefuls of good reading.

They are good books, mechanically, too. Some of them seem to be actually the editions that were sold at $1.15. They are all printed in good clear type upon good paper and are bound in substantial and attractive fashion. They will look well upon the library table. More than that; they are good companions, entertaining from cover to cover.

Here are some members of the family; hardly a tenth of them can be told of:—

- The Firing Line—Chambers.
- The Other Side of the Door—Chamberlain.
- The Scarlet Feather—Townley.
- The Heart of a Child—Canby.
- Spirit Lake—Hemingway.
- Infatuation—Osbourne.
- Together—Herrick.
- The Iron Heel—London.
- The Crucible—Luther.
- Peggy at Spinnaker Farm—Winslow.
- The Riverman—White.
- Web of the Golden Spider—Bartlett.
- Apocalypse of Discoring—Walcott.
- Throckmorton—Seawell.
- Aladdin & Company—Quick.
- The Forsaken Inn—Greco.
- War in the Air—Wells.
- Cowardice Court—McCutcheon.
- The Three Keys—Ormond.
- Man in Leaver Ten—Rinehart.
- Breakers Ahead—Barbour.
- For Jacinta—Bindloss.
