

HOWLAND'S

Entrances in Main street, Fairfield avenue, and Cannon street

Bridgeport, Conn., Wednesday, Sept. 11, 1912.

The Weather Fair, cooler tonight and tomorrow.

Black suits and blue for big & little men.

Mighty few men we can't fit out with a suit of black unfinished worsted or blue serge right now.

And right now is the time when men most want just that sort of suit.

Suits for men who wear size up to as large as 52. They'll fit too; men can bank on it.

On the other hand, plenty of suits for men of average build—and suits that will fit men of less than average dimensions.

If there is one staple of clothes for men, black suits and blue are staple. We expect to fit ninety-nine men of 100 who give us a chance.

These Howland black suits are guaranteed, Men; let us impress you with that fact.

Regular and stout suits of black thibet for $10! So good you can only realize how good by seeing.

Unfinished worsteds, regulars and stouts and the special long models,—$12.50.

Kuppenheimer suits of splendid unfinished black worsted. Hand tailored, with the little niceties that are so distinctive a feature of Kuppenheimer clothes.

Blue serges, that will hold their shape, that are splendid of color, that are tailored expertly and carefully,—$10 to $20.

A big full dollar's-worth for every man. Big men pay no more than others.

Main floor, rear.

Columbia hornless now for $20.

With all the sweet tone that characterizes the hornless Columbia, with a cabinet of handsome oak,—here is the new Columbia Eclipse at $20.

Little doubt that it will be a liked machine. It has everything to make it win instant approval.

Every purchaser of the Eclipse receives a demonstrating record without charge.

In addition to this, one may select a dozen 65-cent records at the usual price and pay for them in the same manner.

And each Eclipse is fully guaranteed for a period of one year.

Oak cabinet,—$20. Same instrument in mahogany cabinet,—$25.

Will you come and hear one tell its own story?
