LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK

We had a big turkey for dinner Sunday, properly having it awn account of so much kumpley being there, being Aunt Gladis and my cousin Sue and Uncle Sam and Mr. Willits, Mr. Willits being pope boss.

G, I thawt, that a pretty big turkey awl rite. Wich it was, being awl there except its hed, with its neck twisted around as if it was ject going to bite itself in the buick wen sumbdy chopped its hed awt.

G, I thawt, I awt to get a hole drum stick, enyway.

Wich less then pop sed, now awl speak up and say which part you like, Sam, wich is yure faverit part of a deceased turkey.

Drum stick or nothing, you no me, Bill sed Uncle Sam.

Can I have a drum stick too, Uncle Willium, sed Sam. And I quick kicked her leg under the tabl, saying, Do you think that's pullite.

Most surely you may, you need it more than the turkey dud, because hee p'berly playing a harp by this time and woudnt no wat to do with it.

And he gave Uncle Sam wun drum stick and then cut owt the uthr wun and gave it to Sue.

Well, I gess Ill get a 2nd joint, I sed.

Speak up, sumboddy, who likes the 2nd joint, sed pop.

Wen it kums to joints I awlways stop at the 2nd, sed Mr. Willits.

Awl rite, sed pop, take it with you and Ill put the uthr wun aside in case yure going extra strawing-to-day.

And he gave Mr. Willits a 2nd joint. Being pritty near big enuff of a 2nd joint for an ostrich instead of a turkey, saying, wit meet or dark meet, how about it, good peapl.

And the wuns that woudnt dark meet sed dark meet, so and the wuns that woudnt write meet sed write meet, and by the time pop got throo cutting it awl awt for them the turkey looked as if it had bin throo the war and got licked.

I dont no wat Ill eat.

Well, Benny, sed pop, wat will you have, the neck or the neck.

And he gave me the neck without waitink for an answer. Wich it was a grate big neck and I bet nobody got of as much awt of it as wat I did, awn akount of me not being atrayed to use my fingers.

THE GOOD OLD HYMNS.
 (Atlanta Constitution.)
 There's a lot of music in 'em—those hymns of long ago,
 And when some gray-haired brother sings the ones I used to know,
 I sorter want to take a hand, I think of days gone by,
 "On Jordan's stormy banks I stand and cast a wistful eye!"

There's lots of music in 'em—those dear, sweet hymns of old,
 With visions bright of lands of light and shining streets of gold,
 And I hear 'em ringing—dinging, where men'y're dreaming, stands,
 "From Greenland's icy mountains to India's coral strands."

They seem to sing forever of holier, sweeter days,
 When the lilies of the love of God bloomed white in all the ways,
 And I want to hear their music from the old-time meetin's rise
 Till I can read my title clear to mansions in the skies."

We never needed singin' books in them old days—we knew
 The words, the tunes of every one—the dear old hymn book through!
 We didn't have no trumpets then, no organs built for show,
 We only want to praise the Lord "from whom 'all blessings flow."

An' so I love the good old hymns, and as time goes on, I shall come—
 Before my light has left me and my singing lips are dumb—
 If I can hear 'em sing them then, I'll pass without a sigh
 To "Annans fair and happy land, where my possessions lie."

Gore, Ga., P. A. Morgan had occasion recently to use a liver medicine and says of Foley Cathartic Tablets: "They thoroughly cleansed my system and I felt like a new man—light and free. They are the best medicine I have ever taken for constipation. They keep the stomach sweet, liver active, bowels regular." Hindle's Drug Store.
