

Modart Corsets

THE MODART, A Perfect Front Lacing Corset.

A new addition to our splendid line of modish corsets is the modart, best of those that lace in front.

There is the hint of a waist line in the new models which come in medium bust and long skirt styles.

There is finest quality of materials, laces and embroideries in the modart—none better. And best of all, there is a great increase of comfort in adjustment and in wear, over ordinary corsets.

We recommend the Modart as a perfect corset for the particular woman. $3.50 and $5.00.

Newest models in Warner's Guaranteed Rust-Proof Corsets are here, and they are splendid corsets, $1.00 to $5.00.

Shapely brassieres, tops plain or embroidered—special values at 50c.

Birthday of Willie Fitzgerald, Prominent Irish Lightweight

Among the pugacious Hibernians who have emigrated to America and added to the joy of the fight fans—a long and honorable roll—distinguished mention is due to William Michael Fitzgerald, who was born in Waterford, Ireland, thirty-four years ago today.

His career extended over a dozen years, his last appearance in the squared circle having been in 1912. He fought his first battle in 1899, when he knocked out Jack Lowery in the third round. The next year he mingled with more than a score of the little fellows, and one of his victims was Marty McCue, now the Hon. Martin McCue of the New York Legislature, who recently got into the limelight by his impassioned defense of Sunday baseball.

In 1903 the Irish lad aspired to the lightweight honors, then claimed by Joe Gans and James Edward Britt. Willie lost the decision in a twenty-round go with Britt and was knocked out by the Baltimore negro. Fitzgerald also lost to Mike Ward, the Canadian, and to Steve Crosby. He fought Gans again in 1904, but lost; he bested Charlie Newsy and Martin Chanole. Willie lost on a foul to Eddie Hanlon, the California boxer, at Los Angeles in 1905, but had the best of arguments with Maurice Thompson.

SEASON RECORDS OF SACRED HEARTS AND ST. CHARLES

(Compiled by "Old Man Grump.") The following are the complete records of the Sacred Heart and St. Charles players for the past season. Box scores were not kept until the fourth game, therefore the records begin with that game.

Records of St. Mary's and St. John's will appear tomorrow evening in these columns. The figures:

POINTS OF INTEREST

Now is the time to plant out hardy rose bushes, rhododendrons, English boxwood, evergreens, hardy vines, hardy flowering trees and shrubs, California privet and barberry hedges, and all kinds of hardy flowering plants such as peonies, phlox, hollyhocks, larkspur, German and Japan iris, foxglove and numerous other stock. It is quite unnecessary to go out of your city to buy these goods as the reliable florists, James Horan & Son, have all these plants to offer you.

A Man's Home. A man's home is his castle and every effort should be made to have it comfortable and attractive at a justifiable cost.

That is where the hustling Nothnagle store comes in. For years they have catered to the masses rather than the classes, as the saying goes, offering dependable merchandise at prices that make their own appeal. Many of the best manufacturers of household furnishings recognizing the immense output of this store have placed their entire Bridgeport agency here.

OUR NEWTOWN NEWS LETTER

(Special to The Farmer.)

Newtown, April 12.—The bans of marriage between Dr. R. M. English of Danbury, and Miss Catherine Teresa Carnody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael P. Carnody, were announced at St. Rose's Church Sunday.

James Colgan died at the home of his father, Matthew Colgan, of Walnut Tree Hill, Saturday night, after an illness lasting a year. The deceased was 48 years of age, unmarried, and followed the business of rubber worker in which he was an expert. He was at various times employed in New Jersey and Hartford, as well as in Sandy Hook. The funeral will be held from the home of his sister, Mrs. Henry S. Lang, at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday and at 10 a. m. from St. Rose's church. Burial will be in St. Rose's cemetery.

By request the two-act comedy, "A Parlor Situation," will be given at Glover's hall, Sandy Hook, on the evening of Wednesday, April 14, for the benefit of the Sandy Hook library. Besides the comedy by the athletic association of the High school, the program will include a shadow play and a farce sketch by volunteer local talent. Dancing will follow the entertainment.

Mrs. J. P. McCarthy and family have moved into the double house at Thomas C. Keane on Gea street. The family of Michael Mahony has moved to the Mrs. Mary Keane double dwelling.

Miss Lillian Frank of Bethel was a visitor Friday at the High school.

Miss Elizabeth Beers is a guest of her sister, Mrs. James H. George, at Trinity rectory.

The social of the "Jolly Two" at the town hall Friday night is classed among the successful social affairs of the season by all who attended.

Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of a very desirable piece of land in the borough, by out-of-town persons who propose to build homes here. One piece of property owned by Rev. F. F. Johnson of St. Louis, on the Hanover road, is now owned by Mrs. Martin of Stamford, although the deeds have not yet been passed. The purchaser of the other parcel of land in the same neighborhood has not been disclosed for business reasons, but it is known that the deeds are to be executed this week.

Mrs. Lee M. Johnson of Painesville, Ohio, who came east to attend the funeral of her mother in Manchester, N. H., last week, will be the guest of her husband's relatives in South Center, for a few days before returning to the west.

The St. Rose's Social circle will hold a whist party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Flapine of Berkshire, Friday evening, April 16, to which a general invitation is extended to all friends of the cause.

The case of Michael Kuevenik, a Huntington district farmer, who was fined $50 for costs for setting a brush fire, last week, has caused considerable strife among local officials. The brush fire was extinguished at a cost of over $50. Because of the reduced circumstances of the accused, the fine was regarded in some quarters as excessive, and Fire Warden Conger could not get a grand juror to sign the complaint necessary to perfect the court proceedings before Justice Louis Busker, without an understanding that the case should be reviewed by another justice, with a view to reduction of the penalty. Kuevenik arranged a second time Saturday, had kept his liberty only through the pledging of the family cow with W. E. Gilbert, a neighbor, for sufficient funds to meet the fine, as originally fixed. When Kuevenik was in court Saturday, this time on a complaint signed by Grand Juror P. H. Gannon, he found Justice P. H. McCarthy presiding with Probate Judge W. E. Beecher as associate justice. Busker came into court and finding Kuevenik unable to speak English, he acted as interpreter. Justice McCarthy, after several clashes with Busker, fined the accused $10. Residents are now waiting to see what will be the outcome of the bill of the presiding justices. Busker will file his bill for services. First Selectman Briscoe handles the town order book.

The costs of fire fighting in March was over $200 and in the first week in April over $100.

Captain Jean Herold of the French army, was acquitted in the court-martial before which he was tried for the murder of his wife, after she had followed him to the front in defiance of an army order.

Despite the threat of a general strike on all surface car lines in Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo, the Auburn & Syracuse Railroad intends to operate its line from Syracuse to Auburn with strikebreakers.

BOYS FLEE WHEN BIG BLAZE HITS CUSHING SCHOOL

Ashburnham, Mass., April 12.—Ashburnham House, a boys' dormitory at Cushing Academy was burned early today, causing a loss estimated at $75,000. The fire started in the basement of the four story brick building. One of the students smelled the smoke and the other boys, with the four teachers who lived in the dormitory were quickly aroused. As the flames had not reached the stairways they had no difficulty in leaving the building, made against the fire.

The cause of the fire is not known. The dormitory was built about three years ago and was at some distance from the other buildings of the academy plant which were not injured.

Nurses Have To Wear Uniforms, Board of Health Has Decided

Bridgeport's school-nurses will have to wear uniforms while on duty, despite the protest made against the plan. At the meeting of the board of health to-morrow evening, the design of the uniforms will be discussed.

It has been definitely decided that the nurses will have to don the uniforms. All that remains now is the selection of them, and Dr. Florence A. Sherman has been commissioned to make a report on the matter at the meeting.

NEW HAVEN GIRL'S BODY FOUND IN LAKE IN PARK

New Haven, April 12.—The body of a young woman found in an artificial lake in Bayview Park yesterday has been identified as that of Margaret Canning, waitress. Indications are that she committed suicide.

COAL LADEN SCHOONER, ASHORE, MAY BE LOST.

Narragansett Pier, April 12.—The two-masted schooner "Kit Carson," coal-laden from New York for Narragansett, went ashore two miles south of the Narragansett Pier coastguard station early today and probably will be a total loss. The members of the crew reached shore safely in their own boats.

THE KIT CARSON REGISTERED 176 TONS NET AND WAS BUILT AT BUCKSPOT, ME., IN 1877. Her home port was Bangor.

COTTON MANUFACTURERS WILL MEET AT MEMPHIS

Memphis, Tenn., April 12.—Delegates from the cotton spinning centers in the United States are expected to attend the 19th annual convention of the American Cotton Manufacturers Association which will be in session here April 13 and 14. Matters to be considered include the present dyestuff situation, the so-called Duke warehouse plan and a general discussion of business efficiency in connection with the management of cotton mills.

Thirty-three Chinese, part of the crew of the steamer Desola, sunk in Halifax harbor, were brought to New York on the Red Cross steamer Stephen, and will be guarded until they sail for England.
