POLIS

For the first half of the week at Polis theatre, Manager Polis has arranged another big bill to which many nations contribute their classiest vaudeville attractions...

Heading the program are Kinkaid's Kilties, twelve lads and lassies from the Highlands of Scotland...

Another big feature will be an East Indian novelty, presenting the Itajahs, "musical mental telepathy."

The feature picture is "Shadows of a Great City," a limitation of the great drama of the same name.

Other vaudeville features will be Gardner Vincent and company in a big scenic playlet, "A Trip to the Moon."

PLAZA

The Sorority Girls, featuring Fay & Dean, those peerless entertainers, will head a splendidly balanced program of vaudeville attractions...

The Langweid Sisters, two very pretty damsels will offer a very funny skit of odd nonsense put over in a manner that is new to an audience.

The Mutual Masterpiece for the first half is a five reel thriller entitled "On the Night Stage" featuring Robert Edson...

"The Problem," another first-run photoplay, and a brand-new Keystone comedy compose the bill.

EMPIRE

"Captain Courtesy," a stirring drama of the early days of California, produced by Bosworth, Inc., starring Dustin Farnum in the title role...

The scenes are laid in 1840 when California was cruelly misruled by the Mexicans, and when the missions served alike the purpose of school and places of refuge for the pioneers...

This story of "Captain Courtesy" is one which would please almost anyone, for its scenes are unusually diversified.

There are many views of California missions, with grounds, and in some cases interiors, beautifully photographed. The horses, which are shown in this picture are an evanescent entertainment...

Willard Mack starred in this play in New York and in the Calburn production his part will be filled by Arthur Stanford...

LYRIC

"So Much for So Much," the play that created a sensation in New York during the last season when it ran at the Longacre theatre for 200 consecutive nights...

The plot of the play deals with one of the big problems of modern society and shows that if a young girl is to be made the favorite of a wealthy man, accepting his gifts and expecting that she will not have to pay for it...

Willard Mack starred in this play in New York and in the Calburn production his part will be filled by Arthur Stanford...

A. O. H. MEMBERS ENTHUSIASTIC AT BIG MASS MEETING

Hear National President Joseph McLaughlin Speak at Eagles' Hall.

Joseph McLaughlin of Philadelphia, national president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, addressed an audience of many hundreds of members of the order...

President McLaughlin urged the members to continue their campaign to increase the membership of the organization and he gave them hints of value for their plan to double the membership in three months.

President D. J. O'Connor, and Thomas M. Cullinan were other speakers. An entertainment was given. Before the meeting, President McLaughlin was taken on a tour of the city.

OUR NEWTOWN NEWS LETTER

(Special to The Farmer.) Newtown, April 26.—Dr. Richard M. English of Danbury will marry Miss Catherine Teresa Carmody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael F. Carmody of Sandy Hook...

The bride was a trained nurse, and their romance began when she entered the Danbury hospital.

The funeral of Mrs. Samuel B. Camp was held today from her home, and at 2:30 p. m. from Trinity church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Glover of Berlin, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bevan, and Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor and children of Bethel were Sunday guests of Birdseye Glover of North Newtown.

Mrs. Denis Quinnhan of Bridgeport was in town last week looking after her property at First Soliman street.

John Corbett of Taunton was brought to St. Vincent's hospital, last week, at the request of First Soliman street, E. D. Birdseye, where he remains in a precarious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. John Collins of Danbury visited their native town, Sunday, and were warmly greeted by many friends.

David C. Peck, president of the Newtown Savings Bank, has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Mrs. Hannah Sheehan, by the probate court.

John M. Otis of Bridgeport was a guest yesterday of his mother, Mrs. Marshall Otis of Church street.

Mrs. Robert Ganon of North Main street has been entertaining her niece, Miss Helen Brennan, of Derby, for the last week.

Cornelius B. Taylor has set out a row of sturdy maple trees the whole length of his property on Depot road, which, besides adding to the value of his desirable building sites, is a public improvement.

L. Birdseye Parsons has brought suit in the court of common pleas for foreclosure of a mortgage he holds on the property formerly held by E. C. Hatter.

Rev. Father Conlon of Hartford, celebrated both masses at St. Rose's church, Sunday, while Rev. Philip Cochran, the curate, officiated at the mission churches of Oxford and Southbury.

ASK CHARITIES OFFICIALS TO FIND SON AND DAUGHTER. Poverty-stricken and without a home, Israel Peiberg and his wife, Rosa, have requested the board of charities to find their son and daughter for them.

The Commission reserves the right to reject any and all proposals. Plans may be seen and copies of specifications and proposal blanks obtained at the office of Alfred H. Terry, City Engineer, City Hall.

William Hale Thompson will be inaugurated as mayor of Chicago today with a great prosperity pageant and parade.

Bernard Keating, Secretary of Paving and Sewer Commission, 326 b.

STRATFORD

(Special to The Farmer.)

Stratford, April 26.—The will of Stephen T. Palmer was admitted to probate today. The estate of $3,000 is left to two daughters, Mrs. Alice M. Bunnell and Miss Helen M. DeMeyer to share.

The Stratford baseball team defeated the Devons yesterday at Devon, 22 to 11.

The adjourned parish meeting of Christ church will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the chapel.

These plans call for a two-story building to be built in place of the present chapel. They also provide for the enlargement of the chancel. It is proposed to carry the sanctuary back 12 feet.
