C. T. A. U. MEET ATTRACTS THROU

Southington, June 19.—The annual parade and field day of the Connecticut Total Abstinence Union was held in this town to-day, and in honor of the many thousands of visitors, who poured in during the morning by train, trolley and automobile, the streets were ablaze with color. The hosts of the day were the members of St. Thomas' society, which threw open its quarters to the various societies and officers as the general meeting place. The sky was overcast during the morning but this did not dampen the enthusiasm of the visitors.

The parade was formed shortly after 10 o'clock and was made up of societies from about 25 different towns under the marshaling of Bernard J. Shanley, director of Hartford county. The guests of the day, who included Gov. Marcus H. Holcomb and the Rt. Rev. Bishop John J. Nilan, were in the reviewing stand.

WESLEYAN HOLDS CLASS DAY FETE

Middletown, June 19.—This was class day at Wesleyan university under the new calendar of commencement, and the class of 1915 held its exercises on the campus. This afternoon the younger reunion classes held their costume parade on the ball field, in the afternoon they gathered, the business meetings being held during the morning. READY TO TAKE OVER ALASKAN RAILROAD.

Seward, Alaska, June 19.—Preparations by the Alaska Engineering Commission to take over the Alaska Northern Railroad next month were practically completed today. The commissioners have gone ahead with their plans without regard to the suit brought in Washington, D. C., by the bondholders of the old Alaska Central to prevent the government making payment to the Canadian bondholders of the reorganized Alaska Northern.

SIR ADAM BECK

Sir Adam Beck, the Canadian statesman and manufacturer who was recently sent to France by the Canadian government to visit the dominion troops and report on the condition of the horses shipped to them, will be fifty-eight years old tomorrow. Although Sir Adam is of German descent, there has not been a shadow of suspicion cast on his loyalty, as the Canadian leaders have never thought of questioning his patriotism.

AMBITION.

Contented, unambitious people are all very well in their way. They form a neat, useful background for great portraits to be painted against, and they make a respectable if not particularly intelligent audience for the active spirits of the age to play before. But do not, for goodness sake, let them go talking about as they are few to do, crying out that they are the true models for the whole species. Why, they are deadheads, the drones, the street crowds that lounge about gaping at those who are working.

Learn Two New Things Every Day.
Dear Mrs. (Thompson)—(1) How long should a girl wear her dresses when she is five feet two inches tall?
(2) When a boy calls should you take his hat and coat or show him where to put them?

(1) No matter what size a girl is, she should not wear her dresses after they are soiled.
(2) Show him where to put them.—From an Exchange.

The Wise Fool.
"A drink will not drown your troubles," observed the sage.
"No," replied the fool. "It takes about ten and a good cigar."

Paw Knows Everything.
Willie—Paw, what is the difference between a vacation and a vacation?
Paw—A vacation consists of a lot of hard work that you are not compelled to do, my son.

You Know Him.
I knew that he would come to grief. His actions made me proud. When he'd turn over a new leaf he wouldn't hold it down.

An Owe-Vation.
"I had quite an ovation yesterday," remarked the grouch.
"That so?" asked the old fogey.
"Yes," replied the grouch. "Eight bill collectors called on me at the same time."

The Crime of 1916.
Some unknown drunken man staggered down Seventh street and straightway over into Mrs. Mayme Jackson-Tersell's fine new grass plot and flower bed on Market street Tuesday.

Poems You May Not Care to Read. PREPARE FOR DEATH.
You had just as well get ready. You got to die, it may be today or tomorrow. You can't tell the minute nor the hour. Cause so Repeat: You will live until you get old. But got to die. You just as well prepare your mind how you see wild cats. Cause God will turn you with the goats. You got to die, it may be today or tomorrow. Just because he had to die. —Thomas Knelt, Richmond, Va.

Luke McLuke Says:
When you talk to some men about capacity they imagine you are talking about tankage.

There are a whole lot of jokes about a woman paying $100 for a new hat and about the fit friend husband throws when he gets the bill from the milliner. The truth of the matter is that you could walk around town for two hours and not see a woman wearing a hat that cost more than $15.

The reason why a woman likes to be fat is because her husband is always complaining to the company that his gas bills are too small and that he burns more than he is charged up with.

You can marry in haste, but it is mighty slow work paying for the furniture at the rate of a dollar a week.

A boy's father knows that the boy is freckle faced, pug nosed and snagle toothed, but the boy's mother knows that he is the handsomest boy in the world.

A girl thinks a whole lot of a mustache if her fellow is raising it, but it is different if she is raising it herself.

These would be a heap less trouble in this world if a man would figure out how he is going to let go before he takes hold.

This is a free country, but the man who goes around with a flock of Skye terrier whisks on his face has no business laughing at a Chinaman because the Chinaman wears a pigtail.

NONA MADOO SAYS SHE DIDN'T OBJECT TO SCRUBBING FLOORS

Miss Nona McAadoo, daughter of the secretary of the treasury, is back home from France, whither she went as a nurse. When Miss McAadoo sailed from the other side there were stories printed to the effect that the reason she left France was because she objected to scrubbing floors. The story went on with great detail to relate that Miss McAadoo declared that scrubbing floors was not part of the nursing profession. On her arrival in New York Miss McAadoo indignantly denied that this was the reason that she returned home. The accompanying picture of Miss McAadoo was taken on her arrival in New York.
