What Good Chinchilla Coats for Girls at $7.50!

An amazingly good coat of warm chinchilla is here at $7.50.

Just the sort of coat girls of 6 to 14 years take delight in wearing.

Economical coat to buy, because good chinchilla gives best service under rough usage, and a little brushing quickly restores its good appearance.

Such coats are here now, cut on pretty girlish lines, with black silk plush collar, wide belt and patch pockets with tabs.

All sizes in navy, grey and brown, and most unusual value at $7.50.

Girls' shoes are a strong feature in our Shoe Shop. Best kinds only are here, shaped on true orthopedic lines, and we take pains to provide a perfect fit for every girl who comes in.

DRIVER BARELY ESCAPES DEATH AS TREE FALLS KILLING ONE OF TEAM

James Cornwall, a driver for Frederick Anton, a contractor with whom he lives on Vincelle street had a narrow escape from death during the high wind of yesterday when a large tree on the property of the Washington Park Methodist Episcopal church, on Barnum avenue fell into the street.

By good judgment, Cornwall saved himself and one of the horses he was driving. The trunk, weighing several tons crushed the life out of another.

CHEMIST PECK SUFFERS NERVOUS BREAKDOWN; GOES TO STATE HOSPITAL

Thaddeus E. Peck, the well known chemist of Stratford who recently advocated a world peace movement, has been committed to the state hospital at Norwich, through the probate court in Bridgeport where he lived recently. It is believed that the rest he will obtain there will greatly aid his shattered nerves which have recently been unstrung through his constant effort to enlist workers in the world peace cause.

LONE SUBMARINE WORKS HAVOC IN BRITISH FLEET

Berlin, Nov. 2.—The Tages Zeitung publishes additional details concerning the voyage from Germany to the Dardanelles last spring of the submarine U-51, under command of Captain Heising. Quoting from this article the Overseas News Agency says:

"In addition to sinking the British battleships Triumph and Majestic, the submarine during the voyage sank several trading ships. Among them was the John Hardie.

"This steamship was sunk after the crew had left. When the submarine fired the first shot, one Hindu was observed still on board. Then it was perceived that he was dragging another Hindu whose feet were fettered. Both Hindus were saved by the Germans. This is another example of British treatment of Hindus, after the principle that the best Hindu is a dead Hindu."

Maritime records contain the name of only one British steamship John Hardie. The vessel, so far as is known, is still afloat. She left Port Said on August 24 for Clyde. The U-51 arrived at the Dardanelles on May 25.

TRAINING CLASS OF SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO ENJOY FIRST LECTURE

The Sunday school teachers' training class had a very successful opening Monday evening at South church, with 200 people present to hear Dr. J. R. Brown deliver his first lecture upon "The Places of Palestine." This was illustrated by many splendid views, most of them taken by the speaker during his trip through the Holy Land some years ago. The evening was well taken up, with a conference conducted by the same man on the topic, "The Play Instinct and its Use."

H. W. Hines, a member of the Bridgeport Sunday school council, introduced the course with a few opening remarks, and gave the outline of the program to follow. During his opening remarks, Dr. Brown spoke of examinations on the lectures to be given, so that those who enrolled might prepare from the first to complete their courses by securing diplomas. Last year 17 took examinations, and at the big banquet in the First Baptist church in May were awarded their prizes.

Next Monday evening the address will be given by Miss Martha K. Larson of New York city, a lecturer in religious institutes and assistant secretary of the New York city Sunday School association. Her subject is "The Lesson in the Making." Following her lecture, two institutes are planned, one for teachers for primary classes, with Mrs. E. E. Atkins as the leader, and the other for teachers of beginners' classes, under the leadership of Miss Violet Marsh. These will deal specially with the problems and methods of the particular department, and should prove of inestimable value to teachers in those lines.

Enrollments were received last night, by the secretary of the council, Miss Borland, but opportunity will be given at any time to register with her at the Y. W. C. A. office on Broad street.

PARENT-TEACHERS OF FAIRFIELD WILL MEET

ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON (Special to the Farmer.)
Fairfield, Nov. 2.—The Parent Teachers' association of Fairfield will hold its regular meeting on Friday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock at Sherman school. The principal speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Edward O. Parker of Hartford, field secretary of the Connecticut Hygiene association. Her subject will be "The Story of Life and How and When to Tell It." The executive committee of the organization will meet Thursday afternoon in Room 10 of the Sherman school at 3:45 o'clock.

Republicans Control Jersey Legislature

Trenton, Nov. 3.—Both houses of the 1916 legislature in New Jersey will be Republican by 15 majority on joint ballot, as a result of yesterday's election.

Defeated in Ohio, "Drys" Show Gains

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—Though Ohio voters yesterday rejected the state prohibition for the second time in two years, great inroads were made by the temperance forces in "wet" territory. Unofficial returns from 77 of the 88 counties of the state gave a majority of 41,000 against prohibition amendment. Estimates on the official majority against the proposal run from 25,000 to 40,000.

WHITE HOUSE SILENT ON ELECTION RETURNS

Washington, Nov. 3.—No comment was made at the White House on the elections or results on the suffrage amendments and it was announced that there would be none.

Weather Forecast

New Haven, Nov. 3.—Forecast: Fair tonight and Thursday. Connecticut: Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday, moderate west winds.

The western area of high pressure is moving slowly eastward and is now central over the Ohio valley. It is producing pleasant weather with moderate temperatures in the central and eastern districts. A slight disturbance central over the Dakotas is causing unsettled weather with rising temperature between the Rocky Mountains and the Mississippi river.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

A Halloween party was given at the home of Miss Wrozina, 510 Colorado avenue, on Monday evening. Piano and vocal selections were rendered by Miss Helen Butterfield of New Haven. Games and a number of Halloween forms of amusement were enjoyed and a delicious supper was served at a late hour. The guests were the Misses L. Knowles, Warner, Buckley, Crogan, Walker, Spicer, Riley of Southport, Butterfield of New Haven, the two Misses Wrozina, Miss L. Lum of New Haven and Mrs. Wrozina.

The members of the senior class of the City Normal school were entertained at a Halloween party on Saturday evening at the home of Miss Grace C. Schwerdtle, 489 Beechwood avenue. The house was attractively decorated with Halloween colors and favors. The girls were masked. The guests included Miss Jane Anderson of the faculty, Miss Maguerite Weed, her guest, Miss Moore of New York, Miss Grace Anderson, and the Misses Helen Plumley, Esther McKenna, Minnie Rakatsky, Justine M. Lewis, Winifred Japp, Bessie Reynolds, Ruth Anderson, Susan Anderson, Liela Barnum, Beatrice Burns, Catherine Regan, Florence Murphy, Agnes Dorsey, Mabel Jennings, Susan Blazyn, Blanche Frank, Adelaide Goodwin, Josephine Miller, Pearl Clark, Regina Sekerak, Ida Mae Bowers, Minnie and Helen Schwerdtle.

The members of the Universalist Women's club are busily preparing for their annual harvest sale and supper which will be held in the parish rooms of the church on Fairfield avenue on Tuesday, November 16. A number of tables have been arranged for and it is expected that the sale will prove a decided success.

The engagement of Miss Elizabeth Stowe Platt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Platt of Meadow Brook Farm, Milford, and Charles Wilson of Stratford was announced at a Hallowe'en party given on Monday evening at the home of Miss Platt's parents. Miss Platt is a graduate of Milford High school and both she and Mr. Wilson are popularly known in Milford and Stratford.

Miss Jessie Madden of 66 Hough avenue, who underwent a serious operation at the Roosevelt hospital, New York, several weeks ago, is getting along nicely and it is thought that she will be sufficiently recovered to be removed to her home in this city next week. Miss Madden has been a clerk in the James T. Staples & Co. bank for a number of years.

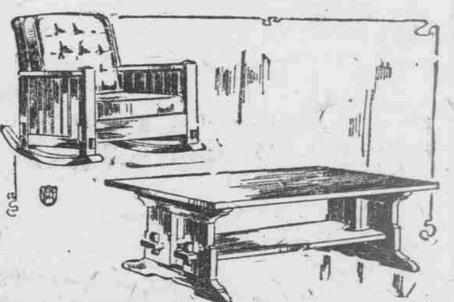

The engagement of Miss Helen Roth to Frederick A. Eisenhart of New Haven was announced at the silver anniversary celebration of the wedding of Miss Roth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Roth, of 1127 Pembroke street, on Saturday night. The home was beautifully decorated with palms and ferns while in the center of each room was suspended a large silver bell with silver streamers reaching to the corners.

The Arion Singing society of which Mr. Roth is an active member presented them with a very handsome sterling silver tea service. The Lady Arion society to which Mrs. Roth belongs, presented them with a large cut glass vase.

Numerous other gifts were received, including cut glass and silver. Speeches were made by Mr. Schwing, president of the Arion Singing society, also by Mrs. Paul Hoffman, Sr., president of the Lady Arions, upon presentations of gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Roth were greatly taken back but responded in a few clever words. August Eisenhart of New Haven also gave a clever speech. Solos were rendered by the Arion Singing society. A. Herb, Miss Helen Roth and Miss Emma Jambies. About 50 couples were present, including out of town guests from New Haven, New York and Massachusetts.
