POLIS

"Salvation Joan" is the title of a seven-part film drama in which Edna May, the famous beauty, will be seen at Polis the first half of the week.

PLAZA

William Collier, the pride of the musical comedy world and one of the funniest men to pose before the "movie" camera, is to be seen at the Plaza the first half of the week.

Little Caruso & Co. presenting their delightful instrumental and operatic singing spectacle entitled "A Night in Venice," will head the vaudeville program.

Kitner, Taylor and McClay presenting their highly entertaining singing, talking and dancing act, "The Stowaway," have also been booked.

MARY PICKFORD AT WEST END TODAY

If you were a beautiful young girl whose sister had fallen the victim of a wealthy young chap and that same fellow were to make love to you—and if the sister followed him to your home with the intention of shooting him, would you scream and run away or would you take command of the situation?

It all happened in "The Eternal Grind," Mary Pickford's latest big feature in which she is being starred by the Famous Players Film Company on the Paramount program.

Marguerite Clayton and Richard Travers will also be seen in "The Intruder," two-act, Essanay feature "Selig-Tribune News" will also be shown.

Tomorrow: William S. Hart and Bessie Love in "The Aryan," five-act Triangle. Tel. 2328-13.—Adv.

LYRIC

It has become a standard adage that marriage is usually a lottery, in which the lucky or unlucky couple find themselves mated or mismatched, but in the instance of that famous Broadway gaudy theatre farce-comedy success, in which wedlock and Cupid have some fun, "Nearly Married," which will be presented by Cecil Spooner and her company all this week, beginning tonight, it is safe to predict will be the laughing hit of the season at the Lyric.

After last week's serious performance of "The White Sister," this rousing farce will undoubtedly prove a very acceptable change of theatrical menu for patrons of Cecil Spooner's ever excellent performances at the Lyric.

OPERA "SYLVIA" TO BE BRILIANT VOCAL OFFERING

Songsters With Excellent Voices Will Have Part In Production.

On Wednesday evening, May 10, the tuneful operetta, "Sylvia," will be sung by a trained chorus of 80 voices, under the auspices of the Sacred Heart parish of this city.

Another unusual feature is the Made-in-Bridgeport film spectacle, "A Twentieth Century Courtship," in which thousands of Bridgeporters appear. Familiar scenes and figures in this city have an interesting part in this film play.
