Much Activity In Construction Work — Another Big Apartment Planned Here

With the larger realty operators either absent from the city or dormant, as is usual during July and August, remarkable building activities and proposed structures. Aside from the large number of dwellings for which permits have been granted and the factory additions already reported plans are now being drawn or figured for a number of improvements that will aggregate several hundred thousand dollars.

Among these are: An apartment block on Fairfield avenue, somewhere between Park avenue and Grove street, to cost approximately $100,000. Though the exact location of the block or the ownership is refused today, plans already drawn by Architect L.L. Bridges indicate a six-story structure of brick, 110x116 feet, to contain 60 apartments. The front will be a park enclosure similar to that of the apartment house to be erected on Washington avenue in accordance with the request of Samuel H. Wheeler and others interested.

A garage and automobile show room, at West avenue and John street for G. C. Edwards, of 174 Park place, A. S. Meloy is the architect. The rectory of St. Augustine's church, additional wing added at a cost of approximately $1,500.

Plans have been completed for an addition 53x110, 2-story, brick, for the Metropolitan Automobile & Carriage Company who have recently secured large war contracts through the Scovill Manufacturing company of Waterbury. The addition will be on Hurd avenue.

A new plant is to be built at Railroad and Iranistan avenues, 45x130, one story, mill construction for the Elliott Manufacturing company, now in John street.

The Ready Tool company will build a new factory in Knowlton street, 42x 95 feet, one story in height and will remove from their present quarters on South avenue.

Frank E. Ballard is figuring plans for the improvement of his store property on the corner of Wood and Iranistan avenues. An outlined to bid the project contemplates a three story brick and concrete structure to contain three stores on the ground floor and apartments above. At the present time the site is occupied by one story wooden structures.

J. Percy Bartram, of Black Rock, has awarded contracts to the S. W. Hubbell Building company for greenhouses and a garage to cost $10,000. This improvement with that of General T. L. Watson and others at Black Rock is designed to greatly beautify the landscape of that already attractive section of Bridgeport.

Be a Mill Ender!
It always pays.

A Mill Ender never wastes money. Not by a good sight!
But a Mill Ender saves money as she spends it?
Every penny spent in the Mill End Sale buy more than that penny would under usual conditions.
Every Mill End dollar is worth more than 100 cents—for it buys more than 100 cents can usually buy!
Do you wonder that so many keen men and women of Bridgeport are Mill Enders? Do you wonder that the Mill End sale grows bigger and bigger?
There is the real reason for that growth and success and confidence:—Mill End shopping always pays; its savings are real and not apparent; one chooses from large and varied stocks; and there is seasonable merchandise in great plenty.
What quantities! Even now, with the sale nearing end of its second week, there are big and splendid lots to choose from!
The Mill End isn't a sale for a day or two. It is a sale of fine big proportions and vigorous life—with everybody eager and satisfied during every minute.
Be a Mill Ender; share in the savings; pick from the splendid lots; AND DO IT NOW!

what we could for their families. "It has been extremely hard to find any brave bandmen anywhere and Bridgeport is to be congratulated on containing the only organization that dared go along and cheer up the Yale boys. "Will you undertake to raise among the Yale alumni in Bridgeport funds to take care of the families of such bandmen as need help, while the wage earner is away serving his country and helping the Yale artillery to step lively?"

No definite plans for raising a fund have yet been made but the recipient of Capt. Bingham's letter, who desires that his identity be unknown will call together two or three members of the Yale alumni to confer with Judge Banks on ways and means. All Yale alumni in the county will be asked to contribute. Harry Cullifer and David Rastner, former left Bridgeport today for Tobyhanna to join the band. Money for their transportation and expenses was telegraphed here to the Steward Cullifer of the Bridgeport Musical Union last night.

When the tour of duty is over the band will be ordered home and Bridgeport will then be its home station. It is the plan of the war department to muster out of the service all militia organizations connected with colleges. If this event it is believed that one or more of the batteries will be located in Bridgeport with the band.

His parents and one sister, Mrs. Frederick Ross survive him.

PUT BLAME FOR FIGHT ON SALOON MAN'S WIFE; PRISONERS DISCHARGED

When Mrs. Steve Wargo, wife of the proprietor of a saloon at Howard avenue and Cherry street, admitted that she started the trouble in the saloon fight tonight, Sherman is known in Trumbull as "the barn artist," because of the many pictures and designs he was in the habit of painting on his barn. At his mother's death he fell heir to an estate of about $20,000.

The selectmen think if he comes into possession of his property he may squander it and become a town charge. Sherman now lives with a sister at Crescent Beach, New London county. He denies the jurisdiction of the court.

rices have almost been completed. No notification has been received here of the reported conference to be held in Hartford for the purpose of making local quarantines more uniform throughout the state. Dr. Sophian said if such a conference were held he would undoubtedly attend. "Such a plan would be desirable," he said, "but absolutely uniform regulations couldn't be enforced. It would be well if they could be made as nearly uniform as possible. "Regulations depend much on local conditions. Some cities receive a large number of commuters from New York, while others are unvisited by these germ-carrying vehicles."

Dr. Sophian said he didn't see the necessity of the quarantine against Bridgeport, announced by Redding today and Danbury several days ago. "Actually," he said, "Bridgeport hasn't an epidemic, so there is no reason for such an action. Per capita, Bridgeport is as free from infantile paralysis as any city in the United States. Considering the conditions here, it is exceptionally free. The fact that we are taking great preventive measures doesn't indicate that Bridgeport is suffering a scourge."

The first report on trolley car conditions was made this morning by the health department to the Connecticut Co. Dr. Sophian said this morning that a daily report will be turned over to the company by the inspectors in the belief that if the company knows of conditions, it will take action to remedy the evils.

Dr. Sophian and Chief Inspector Dunbar visited cesspools yesterday. Arrangements were made so that sewer lines will be cleaned. Plans are being made for the abolition of all the cesspools.

The nurse engaged in examination work at Ash Creek was drenched yesterday, following several days in which she was scorched by the sun. Efforts are being made to have a provision of some sort against the weather established there.

Few children have been entering the city by train during the last few days, it was reported at the railroad station. This falling off in numbers is attributed to the espionage that is maintained in New York, at the stations, and the general knowledge that quarantine exist against the New children.

A child who arrived here by boat yesterday from New York was not allowed to leave the steamer, and had to return to New York.

BEGIN DREDGING AT YELLOW MILL POND

The government is having the channel in Yellow Mill river dredged to its original depth of 12 feet. Mud flows into the river so continually that the channel had filled up to nine feet and boats were having difficulty in navigating it. The Maritime Dredging Co., which is doing the work, has a contract to remove 55,000 yards of mud.

The McCaffrey tug No. 7 brought in three loaded boats this morning and went to Providence with the three remaining barges of her tow.

The Hockendagua went to New York with a tow of 10 light barges, five of which were from this city.

The Standard Oil tug brought in a loaded barge for the American Tube & Stamping Co.

The schooner C. D. Emson cleared for New York this morning, light.

Court Sessions to Be More Frequent In Fall

Because of the unusual amount of legal business on county court dockets there will be more frequent court sessions in this city during the autumn, according to the assignments posted today. The first court to convene will be the criminal common pleas, which opens September 5, with Judge Walsh presiding. Judge Tuttle will open the criminal superior court, on September 12, after which Judge Walsh will return on October 3, with the criminal common pleas session. The civil superior court will not convene until October 6, when Judge Gager will be on the bench. The supreme court sits here October 24. Judge Walsh will hold criminal common pleas sessions November 7 and December 4, and Judge Burpee will come here December 5 to open the criminal superior. Judge Bennett is assigned for the civil superior court on December 29.

ASK CONSERVATOR FOR "BARN ARTIST"

A hearing on the petition of the selectmen of Trumbull for a conservator for John Hubbell Sherman, formerly of that town will be held before Judge Paul L. Miller in the probate court tomorrow. Sherman is known in Trumbull as "the barn artist," because of the many pictures and designs he was in the habit of painting on his barn. At his mother's death he fell heir to an estate of about $20,000.

The selectmen think if he comes into possession of his property he may squander it and become a town charge. Sherman now lives with a sister at Crescent Beach, New London county. He denies the jurisdiction of the court.

MAYOR AT OUTING

Mayor Wilson and City Clerk Robinson attended the annual outing of the Bridgeport Manufacturers' association, at the Momaugun house, Cooney beach, East Haven today. Several hundred attended the outing. The city officials went with one of the automobile parties that started from the Masonic temple. Other automobile parties made the start from the Algonquin club.

Coroner Inquires Into Death of Man Found On R. E. Track

Coroner John J. Phelan made a report today in which he found no criminal negligence in the case of Carter DuFrane, who was electrocuted while working on an electric light pole in Atlantic Square, Stamford.

The coroner went to the West End today to question members of No. 7 engine company regarding the death of Rev. L. E. Zboray, who was fatally injured by falling through a hole in the engine house floor recently. The coroner wants to ascertain if the clergyman had permission to go upstairs.

He also started inquiries among railroad employees today to learn something about the body of a man, found beside the tracks in Trumbull, Monday. The body has not yet been identified.

STUDENT MILITIA TO LEAVE BORDER DUTY BY SEPT. 1

Washington, July 26.—College men and organizations composed of college or school students are to be the first units of the militia to be withdrawn from the border service? It was announced at the War Department yesterday.

Guard finally had to strike some men with butt of guns. Then members of Eighth Illinois began to throw rocks at guard. Guard finally fired several guard cartridges at legs of crowd. Wounded three members of Eighth Illinois in legs, though none seriously. Crowd then dispersed. Of floor of day and poet commander arrived on scene shortly after. Investigation is being made of whole affair, which will be forwarded later. All perfectly quiet now.

New Treatment for Negroes
Officers here are inclined to credit border stories that speak of race troubles. It is believed that the negro troopers have found a color line drawn in Texas that they were not accustomed to in Illinois and that it has made them stubborn. The reports of colored troopers occupying seats reserved for whites in the street cars of San Antonio and refusing to give them up would indicate this, it was said.

FATHER BRODERICK IS DEAD IN PORT JERVIS

Willimantic, July 25.—The Rev. Edward J. Broderick, a native of this city, died Sunday at Port Jervis, N. Y. He was 56 years of age and was ordained about 30 years ago. There were four brothers in the family who were priests. Two are living.

MEAT STILL CLIMBING.

Washington, July 26.—Prices of meat animals continue to climb. They went up one half of one per cent. during the month from June 15 to July 15, the department of agriculture announced today.

WILSON LEAGUE GROWS.

Washington, July 26.—Joseph M. Price of New York, chairman of the executive committee of the Woodrow Wilson Independence league, called on President Wilson today to tell him the league was growing.

BAIL FOR LEON JIM

New Haven, July 26.—Ball was found for Leon Jim, of Bridgeport, and he did not go to jail today pending trial in the federal court on the charge of violating the anti-narcotic act.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES

Theodore Roosevelt inspected the school boys' military training camp at Plum Island, N. Y.

The execution of Roger Casement has been set for August 3, in Pentonville Prison, London.

President Wilson has decided to remain in Washington no matter how late Congress is in session.

Grace Washburn, a moving picture star, was severely injured in an automobile accident at Long Island.

The Prince Edward Island schooner Ulva is a total loss on Cape Tormentine Reef, where she struck.

Formation of college militia organizations into an officer's reserve corps is proposed by the War Department.

NECK BROKEN, HAWLEY CALM AS END NEARS

X-Ray Examination Today Shows Fall Off Car Caused Fatal Injury

X-ray photographs taken of injury suffered by Harry M. Hawley, the well known teacher of Christ Episcopal Sunday school, when he fell from a freight car on the Housatonic railroad sidings at North avenue last week disclose that he has a complete fracture of third and fourth vertebrae of the neck, with complete paralysis below the head.

While a few cases have been recorded where such patients have been able to survive for several years in plaster casts or complete strapping of the body to wooden or metal frames, the ordinary length of life subsequent to accident is between two and three weeks. Physicians today hold out little hope of life for the victim.

The circumstances are very sad for while he has complete control of his mental faculties, being able to think and talk freely with members of his family who have called to see him, the fact that only the heart functions and that all other organs are practically paralyzed is most distressing to the patient as well as those who know that the end cannot long be stayed.

Hawley has not yet been told of the gravity of the case. A brother living in Hawleyville and his two sisters, Miss Helen Hawley, employed in the Bridgeport Public Library, and Mrs. Baldwin, of Stratford, called to see him yesterday.

Physicians who have viewed the photographs taken declare that the case is most unusual, shock usually resulting in immediate death. From the fact that he has survived four days faint hope is expressed in some quarters that his physique may absorb nourishment in which case though a complete invalid unable to move during the rest of his life, death might be stayed temporarily for a considerable period of time.

Hawley, only 34 years of age, fell from a freight car on Saturday.

TROOPS GRANTED FOREIGN PAY ON BORDER SERVICE

Washington, July 26.—An amendment to the army bill by Senator Reed to provide that national guardsmen and regulars serving on the Mexican border should receive additional foreign service pay, although on duty entirely on American soil, was adopted today by the senate.

Charges by Senator Works of California that the national guard was kept on the border for political purposes were contradicted by Senator Reed who declared the guard had served to awaken Mexico to the need of a conciliatory attitude toward the United States.
