WHAT WOULD YOU SAY IF I THREW YOU A KISS?

"What would you say, if I threw you a kiss?" asked Raymond Jeroy, piano player, in a Bridgeport cabaret about six weeks ago.

"I'd think you were the laziest man I ever saw in my life," answered Miss Gertrude Katz, a cabaret singer, who had inspired the question. That, according to their friends, is the way they first met. It was a case of love at first sight and that love has ripened in six weeks to the point where they are married. They parted, but when Raymond got a place at Savin Rock he felt lonesome. Gertrude had gone to Waterbury. Ray stood it as long as he could, then went to the Brass City and hunted up his beloved. It was only a matter of minutes before the question had been asked, a license procured and Attorney Henry W. Minor had said the words which joined the pair in the bonds of matrimony.

Past Grand Chief Ranger Joseph C. Ivers is chairman of the committee which represents about 2,500 members in Bridgeport. As Judge Rendon will be here all day and evening, an elaborate program of entertainment is being planned. The committee will meet Monday evening at the rooms of Court Nathaniel Wheeler, 1087 Broad street, to continue preparations.

PETERS-BISHOP WEDDING TO BE SOCIETY EVENT

Prominent Pathologist Will Take Bride Late Tomorrow Afternoon.

At 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon Miss Marguerite Bishop, daughter of General and Mrs. Henry A. Bishop of 179 Washington avenue, and a member of a family long prominent in the annals of Bridgeport will be married to Dr. H. LeBaron Peters, pathologist at the Bridgeport hospital. Rev. Stephen Fish, St. Ignace, rector of St. John's Episcopal church of which the bride's family have been members for several generations, will perform the ceremony in the presence of a selected company of friends at the home of Miss Bishop's parents.

Marguerites, because of their similarity to the bride's Christian name, will form the chief decorations throughout the residence. The ceremony will be performed in the west parlor, the improvised altar being arranged in an alcove, embowered with palms and the beautiful white flower. Robert H. Hawkins, florist, will have charge of the decorations. Miss Bishop and Dr. Peters, will kneel on a stool which is cushioned with white satin and covered with greenery and marguerites. Two tall lighted candles at either side of the stool will lend a deep significance. Miss Henrietta Bishop will be her sister's maid of honor.

A reception will follow the ceremony. A huge wedding cake will form the centre piece for the table in the dining room and a New York caterer will serve the wedding dinner.

Miss Bishop, who is one of the leaders of the younger society set in the city, is a sweet and well trained soprano voice. Dr. Peters is one of the most prominent younger physicians of the city. He is a native of Toronto, Can., and a graduate of McGill University, but has practiced in this city for several years. He is a member of the University club and of the Brooklawn Country club.

M'CORMICK RAPS WILSON CRITICS ON MILITIA VOTE

Chairman Says It Is Treason to Accuse President of Army Politics.

New York, July 28.—Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the Democratic national committee, yesterday denounced as treasonable statements emanating from Republican sources and ascribing to President Wilson an intention of keeping the National Guard on the Mexican border until after election in order to keep them from voting. The President, according to these statements, had become convinced that the guardmen's vote would not be in his favor. "I am not going to play politics with the United States army," said Mr. McCormick, when these statements were brought to his notice yesterday. "The army is not the property of any party, but the property of the whole people. I think those who are trying to do so are treading on very dangerous ground. The people will be quick to resent any attempt to use the armed force of the United States as a football in politics, whether it be done by Federal administration or by a political party anxious to get back into power and not over scrupulous about the means of getting back."

"Those men are on the border defending their country's interests and doing patriotic service. Statements have been made in certain quarters which closely border on treason. To criticize the domestic policy of an administration is one thing, but to question the motives of the President in connection with matters involving the relations of this country with other nations in my opinion is pretty nearly treasonable."

"The Wilson administration is willing and prepared to stand on its record of four years of achievement. I am not interested, as national chairman, in anything that is being done with a view to legislation to open a way for recording the guardmen's vote. If they have a legal right to vote, in my opinion, a way should be found to let them vote."

"We are not afraid of the soldier vote or any other vote. Those boys are reading the newspapers. Let them obtain correct information on both sides in this campaign and we stand ready to accept the result. Let those who are out and want to get in tell what they would have done if they had been in the President's place."

Chairman McCormick said he was not yet prepared to announce the personnel of the prospective campaign committee which has been so many weeks in the process of formation.

PROTECT YOUR LUNGS

Coughing weakens the lungs, tears the fine throat lining and produces a strain on the entire body. The more you cough the weaker you get. The lungs are robbed of their blood supply and fall a prey to germs. You can protect your lungs by taking Leonard's Cough Syrup (Creosote). It cuts and raises the phlegm without straining the body, makes breathing easy, opens up clogged throats and nostrils and has a healing and soothing action through its antiseptic power. Fine for coughs, colds, grippe, bronchitis, whooping cough and croup—25c. Hindle's Drug Stores, 937 Main St. and 509 Main St.—Adv.
