LEAGUE WON'T TAKE ACTION IN M'GRAW CASE

Boston, Mass., Oct. 7.—There was a decided chill in the air in the smoker of the Bay State Limited which left New York at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon when Ban Johnson, president of the American League, and John K. Tener, of the National League, greeted each other soon after boarding the train. The atmosphere remained cool all the way to Boston, and Tener and Johnson each entertained different parties during the five-hour journey.

John Heydler, secretary of the National League, is authority for the statement that no action is at present contemplated by the league on the charges made by Manager John J. McGraw of the Giants against the players. Some one may bring up McGraw's assertions at the annual league meeting in December, he said, but until then nothing will be done in the matter, all other reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

After McGraw had accused his players of virtually lying down, Ban Johnson gave his opinion of what he would do if the incident happened in the American League, and this may account for the apparent coolness existing between him and President Tener.

MANY CAST OFFS ON BROOKLYN CLUB WHICH MEETS SOX

When the Brooklyn appear in Boston today Uncle Robble will introduce numerous cast-offs to Hub fans. His team includes Chief Meyers, Fred Merkle and Rube Marquard, former Giants; Mike Mowrey, once a Pirate; Larry Cheney and Jimmy Johnston, former Cubs; Ivan Olson, let out by the Cleveland, and Jack Coombs, who was with the Athletics until two years ago.

Robble believes in seasoned veterans. He has developed few young players. Daubert, Cutshaw, Otto Miller, Wheat, Stengel, Hi Myers, Pfeffer and all have been through the mill. Equipped with experienced talent, therefore, the Brooklyn team has seen enough service to keep the toe weights on, no matter how strenuous the big games may be.

Old players in a world's series should not become rattled or discouraged if things break badly for them now and then.

SOCCER FANS TO HAVE PLENTY OF GAMES ON SUNDAY

Soccer fans will have plenty of attractions to tempt them tomorrow. At the Remington field on Bond street the Remington City players will tackle the Bridgeport Rangers in a state league game. At the Meadows the Swedes will take on the Bridgeport Bovers. In the Amateur league the Danes and New Haven Rangers will mingle at the Brewster street grounds, Black Rock. The Bridgeport City go to New Haven to play the Elm City boys at Beaver park.

WHITE SOX MAKE IT THREE STRAIGHT

STANDING OF THE SERIES.
W. L. P.C.
White Sox 3 0 1,000
Cubs 0 2 1,000

Chicago, Oct. 7.—The Americans made it three straight from their National League rival yesterday for the city championship by winning 3 to 0. Jackson's great batting put the game for Comiskey's men. Claude Williams' great pitching baffled the Nationals. The total attendance was 10,916, and the total receipts were $6,625. The National Commission's share was $462.50; the players' pool, $3,557.50, and each club's share was $1,192.50.

Prendergast and McConnell pitched for the Cubs.

CHAIN CO. PLAYS TIGERS TOMORROW

The American Chain Co. players practiced by electric light at Newfield park last night in order to be prepared for the game with the Tigers of Hartford, which will take place at Newfield park tomorrow afternoon. The visitors are coached by George Brickley of Trinity and are said to be heavy.

Another practice will be held tomorrow at 10:15 when the Chain players will get their uniforms.

The Chain lineup for tomorrow will be: Plura, c; Abbott and Flanagan, tackles; O'Reilly and Graves, guards; Kilpatrick and Nagle, ends; Seelye, counterback; Lavery, fullback; Baker and Mosher, halfbacks. The substitutes will be Lindquist, Stevens, Thomas, Ives, Chapman and Burns.

SCHOOL CELEBRATION.
Washington, Conn., Oct. 7.—The Guntery school today held exercises commemorative of the one hundredth anniversary of the founder of the school, Mr. Gun. The exercises this afternoon were in the Congregational church and included addresses by Ehrick K. Rossiter and Richard Burton. Tonight the alumni supper will be served.

INTERSECTIONAL FLAVOR IN FOOTBALL CONTESTS TODAY

Rig Eastern Elevens Must Show Something to Defeat Ambitious Invaders.

New York, Oct. 7.—Unusual interest is taken in the football games scheduled for today owing to the fact that the chief contests will all have an intersectional flavor, as five of the leading Southern university elevens will appear upon 'varsity grids' in this section of the country, where they will test their prowess against teams above the Mason and Dixon line.

Yale will have as its opponent the University of Virginia, and the Bulldogs, it goes without saying, will try and wipe out last year's defeat, when the Southerners won by a score of 10 to 0. Princeton will have a new opponent in North Carolina. These two teams have not met for several years, and although the Tigers won on the last occasion, the coaches are not taking any chances and will put their best eleven in the field. West Virginia Wesleyans will play Washington and Jefferson. New York will not be without football, as Columbia will open its season with Hamilton College, and in the Bronx, Fordham will engage the Western Maryland eleven, and this should be an interesting contest, as reports from both colleges state that the elevens are evenly matched. Washington and Lee will go to West Point, and this match

SILENT MARTIN EXPECTS TO DEFEAT ZULU KID MONDAY

SILENT MARTIN

Silent Martin, the New York scrapper, who meets the Zulu Kid in the star bout at the Black Rock A. C. boxing show at the Casino next Monday night, packs a knockout punch in either hand. He is dangerous at all times and as the Zulu Kid is also a smasher of renown there will be few idle moments when they get together in the ring. This bout is slated for 15 rounds.

In the semi-final the popular Bating Kunz of South Norwalk will mix matters with Willie Condon of this city in a 10-round go. Kunz always tries his best and as Condon is out for the state lightweight title it is expected the battle will be fast. In the preliminary Harry Glenn of Baltimore will go on with Young Nunc in a six-round affair. Terry Lee will be referee with Al Burdick timekeeper. The sale of seats has been large and everything points to a big crowd.

The Brooklyns knocked Alexander out of the box last Saturday and also hit the Giants' pitchers freely, and they subject Carrigan's boxmen to similar treatment?

Ned Hanlon, who managed the champion Brooklyns of 1899 and 1900, will be among those present. Hanlon and Robinson are bosom friends. Robble caught for Hanlon's champion Baltimore Orioles in 1894.

Chief Meyers hit .300 against the Athletics in 1911, .357 against the Red Sox in 1912, and .000 in 1913, when he played in only one game. Jack Coombs hit .385 with the Athletics against the Cubs in 1910 and .250 against the Giants in 1911. Marquard failed to make a hit in the world's series of 1911, 1912 and 1913, in all of which he participated. These are the only Brooklyn players with world's series experience.

SPEAKER AND M'CARTY BEST MAJOR HITTERS

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Tris Speaker won the batting championship of the American league, according to complete unofficial averages published here today and including the final games. Cobb finished 23 points behind in batting, but also won the base stealing championship with 68. Pipp, of New York, landed home run honors with 12; Weaver led in sacrifice hits with 42; Jackson, Chicago, in total bases with 290; Cobb in runs scored with 113, and Detroit in team hitting with 262. The five leading batters who have played in one-third or more games are: Speaker, Cleveland, .390; Cobb, Detroit, .367; Jackson, Chicago, .342; Strunk, Philadelphia, .317; Rice, Washington, .315.

The National league averages, complete except for the final single games played by eastern clubs, show L. McCarty, the catcher-first baseman traded by Brooklyn to New York, the leading batter. He played in 79 games for an average of .339, three points ahead of Hal Chase. Carey of Pittsburgh, again wins the base stealing championship with 61; Williams, of Chicago, is ahead in home runs with 12; Wheat, Brooklyn, leads in total bases with 263; Burns, New York, in runs scored with 123, and Brooklyn in club batting with 261. The five leading batters who have played in one-third or more of their club's games are: L. McCarty, New York, .339; Chase, Cincinnati, .286; Daubert, Brooklyn, .283; Hinchman, Pittsburgh, .215; Wheat, Brooklyn, .211.

NO DISCRIMINATION IN FUTURE PICKING OF YALE MANAGERS

New Haven, Oct. 7.—With the change by the committee in charge, in the constitution and makeup of the Yale Athletic association, comes an entirely new system of managers for all the major sports in accordance with which there will be no more splitting up of the positions between the college and the Sheffield Scientific school. All elections will now be in accordance with the merit system without regard as to what branch of the university the competitors come from.

Under the new system the freshman athletic association is abolished and both the varsity and the yearlings are managed by the same men. For each major sport there will be an assistant and four second assistants to be elected, two each, from the sophomore class in the college and two from the freshman class in the scientific school.

The competitors will be nominated from the Sheffield school and the college and will be voted on separately. In the preliminary nominations twice the number of men will be nominated as there are positions to be filled. The successful competitor for the major sport management in the future will receive his "Y" and the unsuccessful competitor will receive his numerals. The change in the situation, it is believed, will bring better feeling between the two departments in the university because there has been a great deal of agitation against one department having to accept men from the other to manage the sports, when in fact, better selections could be made. The fact that there is to be no more discrimination between the two departments is looked upon as one of the best changes that the new rules of the Yale Athletic association have yet put into effect.

"We have a good chance!" said Governor Temper. "Ball games are not won on paper!"

Uncle Robble is the third member of the once famous Orioles to head a champion team. McGraw and Hugh Jennings are the others.

LIGHTNING SHOTS AT SPORTING TARGETS

The contest between great pitchers and great hitters started today in Boston when the Red Sox and the Dodgers met head on in the first game of the world's series. All struggles in past diamond history have shown that the favored pitchers have been able to subdue batters in important series.

Detroit and Chicago had two of the best batting clubs in either league during the past season. It was freely predicted when the Red Sox started on their last western tour that the Boston pitchers would not be able to stop the western sluggers. Yet after the first game in Chicago, Carrigan's boxmen flung back Cobb, Veach, Crawford, Joe Jackson and the Collins boys with great slaughter. In the 1915 series the Phillies had Cravath, Luderus and other good hitters. Yet Moran's team had an average of .182 in the series. In the present encounter Brooklyn's outclassing Boston in hitting and the Red Sox players are ranked far ahead of Brooklyn's riflemen. Will history repeat itself?

A local lawyer announced that he had a pair of world's series tickets he couldn't use and a few minutes afterward they had to rescue him from the frenzied mob of anxious buyers. Don't say anything more about women at a bargain sale.

The New Haven Journal-Courier says Brooklyn has as much chance of winning the world's series as Hughes has of getting the barber vote.

Thorne Murphy, son of the late Mike Murphy, the famous trainer, has won a place on the Yale freshman football team. Young Murphy is a good kicker and made a fine reputation in prep school.

Because of the plans for the Yale pageant to be held in the Bowl, October 21, the football squad will use the old field for practice next week. The Leigh game next Saturday will be played on the old Yale field, according to present plans.

No man is a hero at close range. New Haven fans went down to the station yesterday to see the Brooklyn players go through and Rube Marquard was discovered in a game of pinocle with Gloomy Gus Getz.

There is a rumor in Boston that John McGraw will try to swing a deal for the purchase of the Brooklyn club. Ebbets said recently he was willing to sell his holdings. McGraw could make a lot of money if he controlled the Brooklyn club.

Eddie Mahan, the old Harvard football star, was recently quoted as saying that the greatest gridiron performer he ever saw was Jim Thorpe. In a game against Harvard Mahan says Thorpe did the kicking, put over a few field goals, ripped the Crimson line for long gains and made tackles all around the place. Otherwise Thorpe spent a quiet afternoon.

Owner Charley Ebbets of the Dodgers tried to make his rubber stamp speech, "Baseball is still in its infancy," during the parade of the club in Brooklyn yesterday but the fans were wise and told Charley to put on another record.
