Report of Congregational Convention

The Woodstock Post of last week gets off the following: "Misery loves company, and it is rather pleasant to know that Rutland a well as Woodstock has some "hoodlums" who object to street lights and other distinguishing marks of civilization. They are having a series of village meetings and pretty much every tax payer and quite every white man seems disgust prevail."

OFF THE TRACK.-The mixed train on the Harlem Extension road due here at 7:39 last evening met with a slight detainer or the way. When about one mile this side of Wallingford a stick of wood fell from the train between the wood-truck and a freight car, throwing the freight car, from the track. The brakeman who was on the car was at once notified of the accident by being nearly thrown off, the collision was so sudden. He ran to the engine as fast as possible and notified the engineer, as the bell-rope had been taken off that trip. Meanwhile the car itself was bouncing along over the ties and the train ran half mile or more before it was stopped. The shackle of the car by this time was broken and the rest of the train, three other freight. one flat car and a passenger car remained on the track. The bind trucks were off while the forward ones still kept the track. An hour or more was taken up in getting the train on to the track again and th train moved on, arriving here five minutes before nine o'clock. But few passengers were aboard and no injury was done. TRAIN COLLISION .- As an engine of the Hudson River Railroad was backing down the track at Albany the other day, with a load of freight cars, owing to some delay on the part of the flagman, the proper signals were not given and the locomotive collided with the rear end of a train of cars bound for Boston. The headlight of the engine was completely demolished and some forty cars damaged.

One of the girls was so badly injured that her life was for some time despaired of, but hopes are entertained of her recovery. It appears that, being a little late, the driver urged the horses so fast that the girls be came frightened and began to scream, which frightened the horses and they, becoming unmanageable, soon ran into a ditch and overturned the carriage.

Our anxiety to have a good square comatch for our champion sneezer, betrayed us into a little carelessness on other matters. We know that a man who can sneeze loud enough to cause the neighbors to put down their windows and prepare for a thunder shower; also fowls to seek shelter before the next gust comes is something of a sneezer; and our enthusiasm led us perhaps to be a little careless in lesser science. Equality in Louisiana. NEW OBLEANS, June 17.

An adjourned meeting of the committee of white and colored citizens was held last night, when the committee on resolutions presented a series of ten resolutions preceded by the following preamble which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Louislana is threatened with death in every vital organ of her national and political being, and

Whereas, her dire extremity is but the fruit of unnatural division among the children of her soil and of her adoption, and Whereas, we have an abiding faith that there is love enough for Louisiana among her sons to unite them in a manly and un-selfish struggle for her redemption.

The first three resolutions define and piedge the signers to universal political equality and fraternity; the fourth resolution is as follows: We shall maintain and advocate the right of every citizen of Louisiana and the United States to stay at all places of publie resort and to travel at will on all vehicles of public conveyance upon terms of perfect equality with any and every citizen, and we pledge ourselves, so far as our influence, counsel, and example may go to make this right, and that there may be no misunderstanding of our views on the point ; First, we shall recommend to proprietors of all public places of licensed public reresort in the State of Louisiana in opening of said places to patronage of both races inhabiting our State. Second, we shall further recommend that all railroads, steamships, steamboats, and other public conveyances pursue the same policy, Third, we shall further recommend that our banks, insurance offices and other public corporations recognize and concede to colored fellow citizens where they are stockholders in such institutions the right of being represented in the direction thereof. Fourth. We shall further recommend that hereafter no distinction shall exist public schools or state institutions of edu- York city, cation, or in any other public place of inparishes.

Fifth. We shall also recommend that proprietors of foundries, factories and other industrial establishments, in employing mechanics or workmen, make no distinction between races.

Sixth. We shall encourage by every means in our power our colored citizens in rural districts to become proprietors of the soil, thus enhancing the value of lands and adding to the production of the state, while it will create a political conservation which is the offspring of proprietorship; land proprietors of our State the policy of profession. considering the question of breaking up some into small farms in order that our colored citizens and white immigrants may become practical farmers and cultivators of the soil. The fifth resolution pledges the signers to endeavor to eradicate the prejudices of color. The sixth appeals to the press of the State to co-operate in the objects set forth. The seventh depreciates all violence from whatever source and appeals to both races to abide by the laws. The eighth and ninth set forth the patriotic impulses actuating the movere bereof in immolating upon the altar of common good all parties Allen & Drew, 27 Merchants' Row, are and prejudices of education.
