Weak Lungs

When your throat and lungs are perfectly healthy you needn't worry about the germs of consumption. They don't attack healthy people. It's the weak, debilitated, inflamed membranes that are first affected. Hard coughs and colds weaken your throat and lungs and make consumption more easy.

Scott's Emulsion

is the best remedy you can take. It soothes and heals and gives tone and strength to these delicate membranes. In this way you can prevent consumption. And you can cure it also if you haven't had it too long. Keep taking it until your lungs are strong and your weight restored.

At all druggists, etc. and by mail. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Cronje Escaped

LONDON, Feb. 24.—It is reported Cronje has escaped. It is confidently believed he will get away. Cronje wanted armistice to bury dead, but really intended to extend time to intrench and wait reinforcements.

Not Beaten Yet.

LONDON, Feb. 24, 4:15 A. M.—Balfour announced in the House of Commons at 12:30 this morning that no further news regarding General Cronje had been received by the government. He had sent to the war office during the hour and he asserted that nothing had come to hand there.

General Cronje, therefore, is presumably still unbeaten.

SA Will Report.

DEBBAN, Feb. 23.—The rumor gains credence that Lady Smith has been relieved.

It is also reported that General Cronje has surrendered 8000 men, and that Gen Kitchener has been slightly wounded in the left arm.

Crowds throng the streets singing and cheering because of supposed victories. Seventeen hundred Boers have been killed or wounded the latter, it is reported, including General Cronje.

May Pass

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Representative Tenge called on Speaker Henderson this morning and sought consideration for his Indian war veteran bill. The speaker manifested no interest in the measure and consulted with the chairman of the committee, who promised to take the bill up for report in a week or so.

Senator McBride and Representative Moody also spoke to the speaker and chairman.

The Quay Case.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The vote in the Senate today on the Quay case does not mean that Quay will be sealed. Although it is a very jubilant over the result, it could not be considered a test vote, as there are those who voted against taking up the case who would probably vote for Quay if the question of seating him ever reaches a vote.

British Astonished.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Every hour is expected to bring news of Cronje's surrender. On all sides wonder is expressed that the gallant yet ghastly battle at Paardeberg Drift has not yet been ended in what is considered to be the inevitable.

Dr. H. H. Allen, 308 East 4th St., says, "I think Kodo's Dyspepsia Cure a splendid medicine. I prescribe it, and my confidence in it grows with continued use." It digests what you eat, and quickly cures dyspepsia and indigestion. For sale by Foshay & Mason

MISFITS.

And now it is declared that Nicaragua wants to be annexed to the United States. If she wishes to come in of her own accord there would be some sense in that. We need Nicaragua in our business just now. It would settle a good many questions. But it should be absolutely voluntary.

From one of Jaquin Miller's poems: The Sword of Gideon, Sword of God Be with ye, Boers, Brave men of peace Ye hewed the path, ye brake the sod, Ye fed white flocks of fat increase Where Saxon foot has never found; Where Saxon foot unto this day had measured not, had never known Had ye not bravely led the way And made such happy homes your own.

From the Times.

The "Brownsville Kickers" are talking of petitioning the county for an electric connection between the county clock and the clapper in the Brownsville hoodlum bell, in order that they may set their timepieces correct. This arrangement will also enable the taxpayers of this section to realize a little benefit from Albany's Christmas present.

When Jaquin Miller was a boy in a debating society of Columbia college at Eugene, the question, "Resolved, That the Pacific states should become a republic," was discussed, the affirmative being taken by Mr. Walton and Jaquin Miller, and the negative by Mr. Snodgrass and the late J. M. Thompson. Mr. Miller in a reminiscent mood said the affirmative won, but the deliberations of these four boys did not seem to have any effect on the actions of the people, as the Western republic had not yet materialized.—Guard.

The prevalence of small-pox all over the coast is verified by Mr. Mack Monteith, who has been traveling extensively in Utah, Nevada, and California. He struck yellow flags everywhere. In one town there seemed to be nothing but yellow flags. He ate next door to one, run up against a barricaded house with a flag on it and escaped from the back door of a hotel just as a flag was being put up on the front of it. There were so many that every yellow tobacco poster frightened him. Finally while in a California town about the right time to get down himself, he had a chill and all the symptoms. After some anxious conversation with the landlord of the hotel where he was stopping, he told him he guessed he had it for certain. The landlord told him a train left at 3 o'clock and invited him to leave on it just as fast as he could. He left. He had simply caught cold from wet feet.

Appl for the organization of a socialist club for educational work has been issued for next Wednesday night at the residence of Councilman W. S. Richards.

There are at least three candidates for school superintendent on the republican ticket, Prof. Alderman of Brownsville, Prof. Carlton of near Lebanon and Prof. Gruggett of Halsey. The nominee of the union forces will probably be the present superintendent Prof. McDonald.

Elmer Hatcher, for whom a warrant was recently issued on the charge of stealing a coat at Halsey, and was arrested and escaped, is reported to have left the county, though seen the next day west of the Calapooia river. In the preliminary examination of young Farrell one of the witnesses swore that he saw Hatcher take one of the coats, and told him at the time that he would get himself into trouble.

Lebanon.

From the E. A. George Tillotson, a nephew of T. A. and J. J. Swan, has returned to this place from Indiana, after an absence of several years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Parker went to Albany this morning to make arrangements for taking up their residence in that city.

The city council has adopted a new curfew ordinance. According to its provisions, all youngsters under 21 years of age must be off the streets when the curfew bell rings.

A number of Miss Brownell's pupils in Albany will come over this evening to attend the recital to be given by her class in this city this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mayer.

There will be a meeting of the Populists of Lebanon on February 24th at 7:30 p. m. All populists and reformers are required to be present. By order of C. Nichols, committeeman.

J. R. Smith has received his commission as postmaster of Lebanon. It is a very pretty "sheepskin" and is signed by President McKinley. It is dated January 23rd, 1900, and is for a term of four years.

Brownsville.

From the Times.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Brownsville will be held at the opera house tonight, commencing at 7:30, for the purpose of discussing the question of consolidating the South and North Side public school districts.

Mark Fruit, who went to Portland last week to accept a position with the S. P. Ry. Co., has returned home, having decided that he would stay with the farm. This is as it should be, for Mr. Fruit is one of our substantial farmers whom we cannot very well do without.

Mr. Nate Standish, of the Lucky Boy Mining Company, has been in the city this week. Mr. Standish is very enthusiastic over the development of the Blue River district and does not hesitate to say that the district is all right.

The members of Dowell Lodge, K. of P., together with their families and a few invited friends, celebrated the 36th anniversary of the order with an entertainment and banquet Tuesday evening. Rev. W. E. Copeland, of Salem, delivered an address on Pythianism, followed by a brief address by Mrs. Hochstetler of Albany, who spoke on behalf of the Bathons Sisters. Both addresses were good and well received.

Don't Use Big Words.....

In promulgating your esthetic cogitations, or articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your conversations possess a clarified conciseness, comprehensibility, coalescent consistency and a concatenated cogency.

Eschew all conglomeration of flatulent garrulity, joint babblement and assinine affections. Let your extemporaneous decantings and unpremeditated expatiations have intelligibility and veracious vivacity, withoutrodomontade or thesaurical bombast. Sedulously avoid polysyllabic prolixity, pompous prolixity, ventriloquial verbosity and vaniloquial vapidity.
