GENERAL NEWS.

Large prairie fires are reported as sweeping over the "panhandle" of Texas.

The funeral of Josh Billings took place at Landsboro, Mass., his native village.

Nails are in great demand in the eastern markets, and prices have advanced materially.

Senator Sherman was serenaded at Washington in the evening, and addressed a large crowd, recently.

The official count of Hamilton county, Ohio, has been completed, and the papers have been sent to the secretary of state.

Cleveland is credited with declaring that he will pursue his present policy regarding civil service reform, whatever may happen in or out of his party.

It is officially announced by the officers of the Irish National League that Farnell will attend the convention to be held in Chicago on January 20 and 21, 1886.

Assistant Secretary Coon accepts his dismissal by Manning without a murmur. He says he is a republican, and the administration is democratic, and that settles it.

The father of Hugh M. Brooks or, as he is better known, W. H. Lennox Maxwell, the alleged murderer of Preller, has arrived from England. He had a talk with his son and says he is convinced of his innocence.

The St. Louis "Browns," champions of the American association, and the Chicago, champions of the National league, played the decisive game of baseball at Cincinnati, for the championship of the world. The St. Louis club won by a score of 13 to 4.

A great crowd witnessed the single scull race between Hanlan and Teemer, near Albany. Betting was in favor of Hanlan, but Teemer won easily in 21:13. When the stake-boat was turned Teemer was three or four lengths ahead. Hanlan's shell was fouled by the stake-boat, and he was tipped into the water. He seemed to feel keenly the result of the race, and thought he would have won if the accident had not happened.

Senator Sherman is now en route for Virginia, where he is engaged to speak. He says: "I shall not tell the people of Virginia anything different than that declared by me to the people of Ohio. I have been misrepresented in regard to my speeches in Ohio. I do not flaunt the bloody shirt. The whole country is interested in fair elections, and an honest count, and I contend for that all the time."

Business failures the last week were 177, as compared with 166 last week. Failures are still numerous in the Pacific States and Canada, but in other sections of the country the number is below average.

Pacific Mail directors have declared a dividend of 1 1/2 per cent. for the current quarter. The statement of the company shows gross earnings for the quarter ending August 31 of $1,232,487; operating expenses, $828,453; net earnings, $404,034; cash October 20, $832,341; estimated cash November 1st, $909,486.

United States District Attorney Sanger has brought two suits against Hon. George B. Loring, lately United States commissioner of agriculture. The first is for $10,000 against Dr. Loring, as principal, and John A. Loring and Thomas Saunders as sureties upon a bond given to secure the faithful performance of the duties of commissioner of agriculture. The declaration alleges that George B. Loring did not make a true and faithful quarterly account of all moneys received by him, as required by the bonds. The second suit is against George B. Loring individually, and $10,000. The suits are brought to recover $40,000, which it is alleged was misappropriated by Dr. Loring to purposes not provided by law. Answers in the cases have not been filed.

It is learned that the sale of Northern Pacific lands, mentioned in the New York dispatches recently comprises several townships in Northwestern Minnesota, amounting in all to about 113,000 acres. The amount realized by the company will depend upon the grading of timber lands, but is estimated that $7 per acre will be netted, or a total of $791,000. The purchase money is part cash, and the remainder, $500,000, is in preferred stock. This will retire from circulation forever over 50,000 shares of that stock. The purchasers are a number of capitalists, headed by Charles Watrous, formerly of California. The sale is supposed to have been brought about by Senator Sabin, of Minnesota, who is a member of the purchasing syndicate. A great body of the land is heavily timbered. It is the intention of the owners to begin the manufacture of lumber on a large scale at once. Watrous has been in the lumber business several years, and was once well known in political life in California.

The directors of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company last Friday ratified the sale of $1,500,000 5 per cent. consolidated bonds. This is part of a new issue of $15,500,000 in 5 per cent. bonds, issued at the rate of $25,000 per mile on 700 miles of road. The bonds sold to-day will be used to take up $1,200,000 in scrip certificates bearing 8 per cent interest one half of which mature November 1 proximo, and the other half November 1, 1886, but all of which will be paid off November 1 next.

Wall street has just transacted the largest week's business on record. The sales of stock amounted to 3,723,869 shares. This unprecedented volume of business for the brokers naturally enhances the value of their privilege of executing orders on the Exchange, and $34,000 has been bid for the right to become one of the exclusive 1,100. The buying craze continued unchanged for the first three days of the week, and everything, good bad and indifferent, went up.

A letter to the Globe-Democrat from El Paso, Mexico, says there is a good deal of private talk among intelligent property owning Mexicans in Chihuahua in favor of annexation to the United States of the northern tier of Mexican states. No open movement has yet been made, nor has the press touched the subject, but the letter asserts that there is a strong undercurrent among the classes above named in favor of linking their destiny to that of the great northern republic.

A dispatch from Donison, Texas, says an attempt was made to lynch Grimes, the colored man who was arrested, charged with assaulting two little girls. The jailer frightened the masked visitors away by firing a pistol several times. It is believed another attempt will be made. Both children claim to identify Grimes.

Dr. Young, of the Minas state board of health, who visited the inspection station at Morse River last week, says a large number of French Canadians passing through the place are not vaccinated, unless this has recently been done, and that many escape by passing in the night. A night watch will be employed to stop them. Dr. Thornton is building, as speedily as possible, a fumigating station, where clothing of immigrants is to be disinfected.

Leading clearing house of the United States report that total clearances for the week ending Saturday, October 24, were $1,111,617,399, an increase of 32 per cent. compared with the corresponding week last year.

The reported murder of Conductor Samuel Dunbar of the Mexican Central railway by Apaches, while prospecting in the Abinal districts, proves to have been unfounded. He was in the vicinity of the hostiles, but evaded them. Many Apaches have lately crossed into Mexico, and reports from towns in Chihuahua shows that great apprehension exists that Indians will raid ranches and mountain villages. One hundred miles south of El Paso Apaches attacked a ranch and killed two Americans. Four Indians were killed in the encounter.

For some days there has been considerable commotion in Batim re, N. Y., because of the alleged striking off of names from the lists of registered voters. The case came up before Judge Phelps last Monday, and Judge Duffy and Fisher concurring, a rule was made requiring restoration of all the names struck off, unless the registers can show that the persons whose names have been stricken off are disqualified. The names are said to amount to several hundred.

Issue of standard silver dollars during the week ending October 24 was 916,338, as compared with 640,493 during the corresponding period 1st year. Shipments of fractional coin from October 1 to October 24 amounted to $782,333.

An official statement of the Chicago board of trade shows the amount of wheat, corn, oats, rye and barley in the United States and Canada October 24, and the amount of increase or decrease over the preceding week as follows: Wheat, 49,686,224, an increase of 656,291; oats, 4,072,236, a decrease of 333,139; rye, 595,088, a decrease of 81,873; barley, 1,550,521, an increase of 395,463.

The Brooklyn Eagle printed an interview with Conkling, in which he mercilessly scored the republican party, and denounced the republican state ticket. The publication produced an immense sensation. The Herald now says the interview never occurred; that it is bogus from beginning to end. That it was published to hurt Day and help Hill. The Herald adds: Our Washington dispatches contain Conkling's authority to pronounce this alleged interview a preposterous, wicked fabrication. "A man who would prepare and utter a forgery," says Conkling, "is worse than one who turns rattlesnakes and mad dogs into the streets to poison innocent people with their venom."

A St. Paul special says: A well informed railroad man from Winnipeg said, concerning the Canadian Pacific: "It will not be many days before there will be a radical change in the management of the road. A syndicate is now engaged in booming the stock. When it has reached respectable figures it will sell out, and allow the reins of government to pass into the hands of some Englishmen of means, who are anxious to pass as railway magnates. The boom in Canadian Pacific stock was started some time ago and is now progressing satisfactorily. The recent Manitoba Canadian Pacific deal was part of the programme laid out."

The report that the Canadian Pacific has negotiated a loan of $15,000,000 in London and settled its indebtedness to the Canadian government finds many believers in Wall street and keeps the stock steady at 42. Officers of the road there cannot be induced to affirm or deny the report, but it is thought by railroad men that such a loan has not already been accomplished, but it will be in a few days.

The inclined plane to connect the Vicksburg & Meridian and the Vicksburg, Shreveport & Pacific divisions of the Queen & Crescent railway system, by transferring passengers and freight across the Mississippi river without change of cars, is now completed and ready for business. The last-named division connects with the Texas Pacific system.

The statement of the Northern Pacific railroad for September shows gross earnings of $1,225,000; operating expenses and taxes, $560,000, leaving net earnings of 665,000. This is a decrease in gross earnings of 12,000 in operating expenses and taxes of $107,000, and an increase of net earnings of $95,000.

FOREIGN NEWS.

An Ottawa special announces that Chinese are pouring into the Canadian north-west from Seattle. The residents of Brandon are threatening to drive them out.

The Servians are invading Bulgaria, advancing by way of Klissara. They crossed the frontier at 9 o'clock Saturday night. A force of Bulgarians is advancing to meet them.

The reply of the Spanish government to the protest of Great Britain against the recent outrage on the British consulate at Havana is considered evasive and unsatisfactory in official circles.

The Marquis de Lorne while making a campaign speech near London, was assaulted by a mob. Lorne's friends rushed to the rescue, and a free fight followed, during which the Marquis took to his heels, never stopping until he reached London.

A dispatch from London says: "The imperial postoffice authorities are now advertising for tenders for conveyance of mails from Coal Harbor, British Columbia, to the island of Kong Kong." This is regarded as an important recognition of the Canadian Pacific.

A Paris special says: One of the most celebrated beauties of the court of Napoleon III has just fallen a victim to morphine, Mme. Cordor (nee Lahitte), and a sister of the marquis de Gallifet. She had for several years been addicted to the habit of taking subcutaneous injections of morphine. She was buried at Saint Germaine after enduring eight days of the most excruciating torture of both mind and body. The remains shortly after death assumed an unearthly beauty and classic purity of outline for which she was so famed in her youth, and which were so well known through her pictures.

A Paris dispatch says: It cannot be disguised that the marriage of an Orleans princess to Prince Waldemar, of Denmark, notwithstanding the way in which public curiosity was avoided, has produced a great impression on Frenchmen. This princely congress in the modest dwelling of the head of the old reigning house of France, this unostentatious homage by monarchical Europe to a representative of that house, shows that the Comte de Paris holds in his hands the principle which is part of the patrimony of France, and may at a given moment be the supreme resource. The marriage is regarded politically as the most important since that of the conqueror of Austria with the Archduchess Marie Louise, in 1810.

Foreign residents at Mandalay, the capital of Burmah, are being boycotted by natives. The Burmese envoy, who arrived at Rangoon recently, and who said he was on his way to Germany to sign a treaty with that country, but whose real object it is thought was to watch military preparations at Rangoon, now announces that he must return to Mandalay, to translate to his government the British ultimatum, as there is no native official there able to do so. The Siamese government has completed a telegraph line from Bangkok to Rangoon.

The patriotic union has issued a long manifesto, denouncing the Irish national league for leaving the five years emigration Irish home life, coerced individual liberty, expropriated hard earned money from the people, and permitted the perpetration of outrages. The union appeals to the people to see to their independence of the league, and maintain the integrity of the empire.

The manifesto calls upon electors to vote against the tyranny of Mr. Parnell and the cities of petty traders, bankrupt farmers and idle loungers who form the league and intimidate the country.

English shippers are refusing to assist catmen at Cork in their efforts to boycott the Cork Packet company. The catmen have chartered a Danish steamer to convey their cattle to England.

PACIFIC COAST.

The quantity of wheat in California available for export to Europe this year is 302,000 short tons. This includes 23,000 tons from Oregon.

At the Bay district park at San Francisco in a match trot for $1000 a side, Arab defeated Antee in three straight heats; time, 2:18 1/2, 2:20 1/2, 2:18 1/2. Blaine beat Grover C in a match for $500 in 2:28 1/2, 2:27 1/2, 2:31.

An interesting boat race came off at Astoria. The contest was between fishing boats, over a course of over twenty miles. Boat No. 9, H. Jones, captain, won easily, although she started nine minutes after No. 1.

E. J. Shay, who was shot by J. C. Brown at San Francisco Friday evening, is reported to be in a very serious condition. It has been ascertained that the third bullet entered the abdominal cavity. The wounds are causing the victim intense suffering.

The politicians are almost in hourly expectation that Cleveland will turn his attention to the California offices and make appointments and dismissals by wholesale. Within the past day or two it has come to be understood that the President would not delay the matter much longer, since he was anxious to have not only California offices, but the bulk of them all over the country, filled before the convening of Congress. Great interest centers in these appointments.

Mrs. Martha Hood, who was so brutally beaten on the head with a hammer, by her brother-in-law, John Kernaghan, several days since, died on the 24th. The news of her death was immediately telegraphed to the old City Hall and a charge of murder entered against Kernaghan. When he was informed that his victim was dead and that his cruel deed was consummated, his face paled and he shrank back in his cell. It is believed that he will be hung. He is pronounced by all to be a brutal, cold-blooded murderer.

One subject to be investigated in the San Francisco Custom House is the unlawful entry of Chinese into the United States via Victoria. It is a significant fact that the great majority of Chinese who are refused landing on fraudulent certificates go to Victoria. A number of witnesses will be examined in regard to shipping Chinese over the border and their shipment to San Francisco on the coast vessels. It is stated that the steward of one of the coast steamers will testify that a number of Chinese are returning to California on the coast steamers who have been previously seen departing from here. After having been refused landing on the fraudulent certificates, the steward recognized the Chinese and says he furnished food to them on the passage up and down.

The case of C. A. Buckley, the democratic leader of San Francisco who is charged with contempt of court for having, as alleged, accepted $500 on a promise to advance the assessment cases of Connet and Parker against the city of San Francisco, came up for hearing last Monday before the supreme court. Buckley filed an affidavit denying all the charges.

The Chinese six companies of San Francisco have issued a proclamation describing the treatment of Chinese in the United States. The proclamation embraces the troubles that took place in Eureka, Cal., Seattle, and Rock Springs, and estimates the damage which the Chinese sustained. Copies have been forwarded to the Chinese ministers at Washington, who, it is supposed, will make a basis of a claim against the United States government.

The case against Melius, United States deputy marshal, charged with having attempted to bribe United States Custom Inspector Hawes of San Francisco to allow Chinamen to come ashore, was dismissed last Monday by United States Commissioner Sawyer.

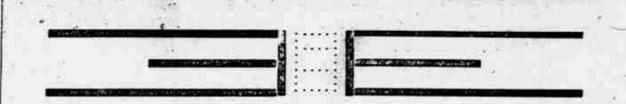

Advices received in San Francisco state that the English hop crop will be 150,000 cwts. short of what it was estimated.

Indian owners of the reserve opposite Victoria have commenced action against the Dominion government for appropriating a portion of the reserve for immigrant purposes.

A remarkable burglary occurred at Victoria this week. A night watchman, passing Clay's grocery store, found the door ajar. Pushing it open he was collared by a burglar, who held a pistol to his head until the watchman backed out, when the burglar ran off. Two shots fired in the rear failed to stop them. On inspecting the premises it was found that the crackmen had been at work on the safe in the Saloon, and succeeded in boring two holes into the door, close to the combination lock. The work was almost finished, and in another half hour or perhaps less, they would have effected an entrance, blowing out the lock. The tools with which they had worked, braces, bits, hammers, etc., were left behind, and are now in possession of the police.

"Note-in-the-Day," great grandson of the famous Chipewawa chief of that name, is in Washington with Minnesota influence to secure from the president an appointment to West Point when a vacancy occurs. He is young, tall and straight, and of very prepossessing personal appearance, with but little to suggest Indian blood in his veins.

Another car will leave there Wednesday night for Portland, Or., and will supply en route all applicants in Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Dakota, Montana, Washington territory and Oregon.

The decrease in the postal revenues for the past fiscal year is larger than expected. The law to reduce letter postage from 3 to 2 cents was enacted about two years ago. For the last three-quarters of the fiscal year the effect upon the revenue was considerable. This was attributed in a large measure to the great increase in the number of 2-cent stamps that were used to inclose business circulars. It had been expected that this increase would continue, so there would not be a large reduction in the postal revenues, but this expectation has not been realized. The first complete fiscal year under operation of the reduced postage law closed on the 30th of last June. It was not a good business year, it had been supposed that the deficiency would not be more than $4,000,000. On the contrary, it will be about $7,000,000. These figures are not to be taken as accurate, as the president's wish that the bureau reports shall not be given to the public in advance of his message makes it impossible to obtain exact figures.

The publication of proposed recommendations by the president in regard to changes in the administration of Indian affairs, has caused quite a stir among officials in the Indian office and it is likely that the old fight between those who advocate turning over the entire management of the Indians to the war department and those who believe the affairs of the red men should be wholly controlled by civilians, will be renewed with great vigor. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, commanding the department of the Missouri, recommends the turning over of Indian territory to the military as more satisfactory to the Indians, who has been crowded into unhealthy camps; that it will save $100,000 a year to the government, and clear out the outlaws.

A friend of Engineer Melville called upon the secretary of war last Tuesday, to ask for his cooperation in fitting out another Arctic expedition at great expense. Secretary Endicott replied: "So far as my observation extends, Arctic explorations principally result in breeding lectures on Arctic subjects, flooding the country with Arctic literature, and furnishing curiosities for dime museums. Holding these opinions, I cannot conscientiously aid Mr. Melville in his desires."

The postoffice department has rendered a decision declaring that postal cards having a special delivery stamp affixed, shall be immediately delivered, the same as letters with the extra stamp on them.
