

HOME NEWS.

The Columbia river is falling. The Horticultural Fair is now in progress at the Skating Rink.

The Steamer says the small pox excitement in Salem has about died out.

An extensive bed of coal has been discovered twenty miles east of Roseburg.

In Clarke county, Washington Territory, the crops are extremely promising.

The iron cells for the jail under the new Court House at Salem are being put in place.

Prospects for the early building of a bridge across the Willamette at Salem are good.

The members of the Albany Common Council deny that there are any cases of small pox in that place.

The Monmouth Messenger has suspended for a couple of weeks in order to give its editor a short vacation.

According to the last assessment Walla Walla county, W. T., had a property valuation of $4,000,000.

The annual meeting of the Congregational Association of Oregon convened yesterday at the Congregational church in this city.

Miss Anna Melchior declined the benefit tendered her, and returned to San Francisco by the John L. Stephens, which left this port last Wednesday.

Mr. Odell, of Eugene City, has analyzed some of the water from the Salt Springs on the McKenzie, and finds that it contains several medicinal properties.

The following named persons were elected Councilmen last Monday: First Ward, Geo. L. Story; Second Ward, E. F. Russell; Third Ward, J. C. Moreland.

There has been a change in the proprietorship of the Monmouth Messenger, which is now published by Wells Drury, Esq. Roy T. E. Campbell retains the position of editor.

Leon Vivian, a celebrated actor and musical composer, will arrive in Portland by the Ajax, to play an engagement for Manager Waldron. Oro Fino Theater will be re-opened on his arrival.

C. P. Burkhardt, of Linu county, has just received an order from a Pennsylvania farmer for 150 bushels of his mammoth white winter wheat. He received the handsome figure of $3 per bushel for it.

A man with the small pox created quite a scare the other day by running around the streets of Portland. He was finally taken off to the pest house, but not until numbers of people had been exposed.

The citizens of Dayton are agitating a new bridge to be built across the Yamhill River at that place, to cost in the neighborhood of $12,000. Petitions are in circulation preparatory to getting up the plans and specifications.

The State Journal says: "Persons who have visited them say that there are several falls in the McKenzie, above the Salt Springs, the highest of which are believed to be 300 feet. A fall will be cut from the springs to the trails this season."

One hundred and fifty-five students were in attendance at Pacific University, Forest Grove, during the past year. The next term will begin September 24th of the present year. The Catalogue reports the institution as in a flourishing condition.

The Dallas Republic says: "The road to Salmon river is now in good condition, and parties are already beginning to wend their way thither to catch the exhilarating breeze of the ocean, and bid adieu to a fall for a season at least."

The appointed officers of the Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T., of Oregon are: Grand Assistant Secretary, E. W. Ryan; Grand Chaplain, William Harmon; Grand Marshal, Thomas H. Tongue; Grand Deputy Marshal, Icelia Anderson; Grand Guardian, Mrs. E. C. Griffin; Grand Sentinel, W. W. Moore.

The following officers have been elected by the Grand Lodge of I. O. G. T., now in session at Salem: G. W. C. T., Jacob Conser, of Jefferson; G. W. Conn., A. A. Booney, Buena Vista; G. W. V. T., Miss Henrietta Miller, of Milwaukie; G. W. Sec'y, J. W. Smith, of Portland; G. W. Treas., J. B. McCleane, of Salem.

By order of the President, dated April 9, 1912, the territory lying immediately north and east by Clark's Ford of said river and the east boundary line of Washington Territory, and only the south by the Spokane river, has been set apart for Indian purposes, and therefore not subject to settlement or sale.

The Farmer has the following in relation to the crop prospects in the Willamette valley: "It is not yet too late in the season for a good crop, but unless we are favored with plentiful rains soon, we will not have a crop to boast of. The dry weather has already begun to show on all the spring sown grain, and it is only very favorable localities which show fair looking fields. In most instances the spring grain looks bad, and the oats do not show a prospect for more than a half crop."

Mrs. S. M. Smith, Treasurer of the Ladies Relief Society, presents the following statistics of the Society for the month ending May 31: May 5th, cash in the Treasury, $169; May 7th, fines and dues, $23 50; May 10th, donations, $18 50; May 17th, net proceeds of concert given at Masonic Hall, $271 85; May 20th, rent of Home for the month of April, $12. Total, $441 55. Expenditures for the relief of the poor for the month of May, $42 30. Cash in the Treasury, $452 55.

The Real Estate Record, published at Walla Walla, says: "During the past month Elitz & Painter Bros., proprietors of the 'Agate' flouring mill, have ground 1,361 barrels of wheat. They have shipped on orders, during this time, down the Columbia river and to Lewiston 907 barrels of flour. This is the largest shipment yet made this season for one month on orders. They have also bought and received this month $3,300 bushels of wheat."

The Vancouver Register of a late date says: "Through the improper return of the Deputy U. S. Marshal who took the census of the civil subdivision composed of Clarke and Cowlitz counties, we cut no figure whatever in the report of the ninth census, and Washington Territory is deprived of credit for about one-sixth of her population. After excluding two of the most populous counties in the Territory, the population is given at 23,550, whereas had they been included the aggregate would have fallen little if any short of 30,000."

The Dallas Republic has this handsome notice of the foremost real estate dealer in Oregon: "Mr. Wm. Davidson, of Portland, the steadfast and practical friend of the printer, and cyclopaedia of information for the immigrant and tourist, will please accept our thanks for favors received during our late visit to Portland. Mr. Davidson, with the true spirit of enterprise, is helping to develop the resources and advance the interests of our State, at an immense cost of time and labor, and will in the not distant future meet his reward, if not in dollars and cents, at least in the satisfaction of realizing the prominent part he has acted in advancing the interests of our people, and that his labors have been appreciated."

The steamers Idaho and California have both been wrecked. A dispatch from Victoria, dated June 19th, says that the Idaho, from Portland, left Esquimalt at ten o'clock on Tuesday night for Nanaimo, where she was to have taken on board a load of coal for Portland. On the trip down from this port to Nanaimo she ran on a ledge of rocks known as the Chain Rocks, lying between Discovery and Trial Islands. Word of the accident was brought to this city, and the steamship Prince Alfred was sent to her assistance. The present position of the Idaho is of such a character that it is feared that at low water she will break her back. A subsequent dispatch says that it is highly probable it will be impossible to get her off, and that she will go to pieces.

Following are the particulars of the total loss of the propeller California: The California, from San Francisco and Portland, bound for Sitka, with passengers and a company of U. S. troops, after coaling at Nanaimo ran on a rock twenty-eight miles above that port, and is a total wreck. Pursor Goodhue, of the California, for the purpose of securing a steamer to bring the California's passengers down, arrived at Victoria yesterday, having made the trip in an Indian canoe. The steamers Sir James Douglas and Maude will go to her assistance from Nanaimo. The California sailed from Victoria on Thursday evening, June 13th. She was heavily laden, having on board a company of soldiers for Sitka, and a large amount of freight. Among her passengers from this port were Colonel Dagart and Charles Waldron, a merchant doing business on Prince of Wales Island, who was returning with a heavy stock of goods. The California, had just returned from San Francisco, where she was thoroughly overhauled, receiving a new boiler and many other repairs.

Josh Billings says: "Most men boyce that it looks foolish to see a boy dragging a heavy sled up the hill for the fleeting pleasure of riding down again. But it appears to me that that boy is a sage by the side of that young man who works hard all the week and drinks up his wages on Saturday night."

The Clothing Trade has, within the last thirty days, undergone a regular revolution, by Fisher & Roberts having opened a first-class clothing establishment, corner of First and Washington streets, where Men and Boys can find to perfection in every kind of Clothes. They are manufacturing on a large scale, and can make anything for Men and Boys' wear to the very best of the art, at reasonable prices. Their aim is to please both in fitting and in quality. In this State, want to vote as their names on petitions and memorials for the rights of suffrage, to this very Legislature during the past twenty-two years, attest, as well as the many hundreds of thousands sent to the Congress of the United States and the various State Legislatures over all the North and the West. Wherever women think of suffrage, they should not vote. But when have the male representatives of all the nations in the round globe in this country been asked if they wanted the ballot? Who asked the contraband if he wanted the vote? and who asked them ever petitioned for the glorious liberty you have thrust upon them. The student craves with his old world does not want the ballot, but you proffer it to him freely; half the clergy in this country are either absolutely averse to the privilege or are quite indifferent to using it, and yet, should you have the vote, you should not vote. The thousands of retiring politicians, steady or cultured people who absent themselves from the polls, are not made use of as a protest against popular government, but are themselves under rebuke for their neglect of a free man's duty; and I doubt not that the accession of so much grace and virtue and instinctive decorum as women will bring to the polls will call out that disgusted, timid or fastidious element, and even the masculine vote will be bettered by it.

Too many genuine good people look upon this whole question as the opening of a new apocalyptic seal, letting loose a reckless flood of discontented, discontented relations and devastate our homes and friendships; persons ambitious at notoriety, but undisciplined iconoclasts, deficient in principles, methods or conduct. The marriage relation is supposed to be invaded and completely broken up. All this because of the foolish words of some few who have their chaotic brains unbalanced in their chaotic confusion of suffrage with all the questions in morals and religion and social life that belong to this revolutionary age.

The charge of demerolism is true as far as they are concerned; but, friends, you do not well understand the moral status of the women in this State if you for a moment believe that they will brook any relaxing of the demands of social purity; any weakening of the legal and moral and religious bond of marriage, any breath of remotest acquiescence in the odious doctrine you grace and honor far too much to the mild name of "free love." No, we ask the ballot that marriage which will be made a felony and be lawfully expelled from respectable society; that your wives may be the honored and equal partners of the home empire, and pure love be trained and armed with power, that it may no longer be the prey of villain or tyrant. We ask the ballot because it is the symbol of a natural right, the right of self-government, and the potential arm of a conventional right, the delegated government, which is just self-government by deputy, and cannot exclude one subject of the great first empire of self-rule.

We ask for suffrage in the name of justice and the conceded right of honor of the State, in the name of honor and truth, both violated by practical contempt of the fundamental law.

We ask it for our own protection and unfolding, and the purification of the polls, left to drift into barbarism and corruption by lack of the complementary force that makes man a two-fold being, male and female, in the image of God. We ask it for the nation which is truly a representative nation, with every important element of human society incorporated in the organic law without which it is no republic, and on the republic hangs the hope of the civilization of the world. We ask it in the assurance that in this Legislature of the grand old Empire State are many men as wise, as noble and as upright as are the men of the Legislature of any other State in our grand unity of many in one. And so believing and so trusting to your own great instincts of justice and equality, and with all due reverence to your natural peers but no petitioners, will ever pray.

REPORT IN FAVOR OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE. The following brief, yet pertinent and important report, signed by two very able and influential members of the assembly, Hon. Robert H. Strahan and P. Vedder of Cattaraugus county, presents very forcibly the question of State policy, which the people will have to face soon after the smoke of this Presidential campaign has cleared away:

"The undersigned members of the judiciary committee, to whom was referred the memorial of certain tax paying citizens of the State of New York, praying that the Constitution of this State should be so amended as to extend the elective franchise to all citizens, without regard to sex, respectfully report, that having carefully considered the question, and the judiciary committee having heard an able argument by the memorialists in favor of this Legislature taking some action in behalf of female suffrage, we have arrived at the following conclusions: First, That taxation without representation is tyranny, whether applied to one sex or the other. Second, That it having become the fixed policy of this State to allow female citizens to hold taxable property, personal and real, in their own right and name, whether married or single, it seems unjust to deny them the right to take part in the election of all who make and execute the laws of the State. Third, The ballot being recognized as a national right in a free government like ours, we therefore recommend an amendment to section 1 of article 2 of the Constitution of this State so as to allow all tax-paying female citizens the right to vote."

(Signed,) ROBERT H. STRAHAN, C. P. VEDDER.

DISCOVERY OF A SUBMERGED CITY. During the heavy gales which prevailed last Fall, the tide, on one occasion, was driven so low in the North River that a remarkable discovery was made. About seven miles north of St. Augustine, on the North River, the remains of an ancient city were disclosed. Several wells waited in with coquina, are now visible under water; but the foundations of the houses can only be felt with a pole. On the occasion of the discovery, a gale had prevailed for four or five days in the north, driving the water out of the river to an extent never before known. Further investigations have also brought to light a curious quarry on the same site, and what is most remarkable, the quarry is in the midst of a dense hammock, and which any one can see now by taking the trouble to go there. The rock is of a quality equal to any on Anastasia Island, and the quarry has been extensively used, doubtless for the purpose of building this city or settlement—for one or the other it certainly was.—St. Augustine, (Fla.) Press.

UNK WEED REMEDY.

THE UNK WEED REMEDY, Oregon Rheumatic Cure.

HISTORY: THIS REMEDY IS COMPOSED OF THE Active principle of the Unk Weed, Extracted by Ether, and a bitter Tonic Principle.

It contains an Active and Volatile Principle, extracted by Ether, and a bitter Tonic Principle.

It is the most sure and speedy cure for Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds that was ever introduced into the Medical World. The UNK WEED REMEDY, as prepared by us, is consequently the existing bitter principle, possesses the necessary virtue of being a Powerful Tonic, Promoting the Appetite and Invigorating the whole Digestive Apparatus, thus building up and strengthening the system, and restoring the same the volatile principle, being absorbed into the system, and acting as a powerful Tonic and Rejuvenating Agent, which, in its continued use, even by the most delicate and debilitated. Thus we have the combination for the first time of these two necessary elements in one medicine, which counts for its superior and never-failing curative effects in Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds.

It is to be noted that the above statements are correct to my own knowledge.

ALFRED P. TURNER, Deputy Jailer, Multnomah County Jail, Portland, Oregon, June 7, 1871.

Dr. A. M. Loryea & Co.: I was afflicted with a severe case of rheumatism. It was in my right arm and shoulder, rendering me unable to work. On a prostration of the attack, some time since, I was induced to try your "Unk Weed Remedy," and in a few days, the rheumatism was cured. I am now in perfect health, and I would heartily recommend all who are afflicted with rheumatism to try your "Remedy" and be cured.
