REPLY TO MR. WILEY.

PORTLAND, Aug. 27, 1873. Guards—Sir:—I am pleased to see the spirit manifested in your letter to the New Northwest of last week in relation to cruelty practiced upon a Chinaman on the day of the fire. I do not know the name of the Guard who did the deed. It was witnessed by the editorin-chief of the Oregonian, Mr. J. Taylor, myself and many others. I, myself, bound up the Chinaman's feet, which were horribly charred, and the poor fellow's agony was simply auful. It was not my intention to cast a reflection upon the Emmet Guards as a body. I judged the offender to be an Emmet by his uniform, which was grey, ormamented with green. He probably did not know that the Chinaman was bare-Joseph Wiley, Esq., Captain Emmet not know that the Chinaman was bare- illized World. hould be very glad t those just who the offender was, and if was soo an Farmet, make the omence

SAMUEL CORWIN, Proprietor.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2, 1872.

My DEAR OLD FRIEND, SANFIEL CORWIN:—
I have no doubt but you will be much surprised on receiving this letter, but, perhaps, not more so, or more granified, than I was to hear from you. The manner in which I heard from you, and learned of your whereabouts, is this: I happened to be tooking over an Oregon paper and noticed your name, as representative elect, from Tillamook county. The thrill of pleasure which I experienced on reading is indescribable. The many acts of kindness which I received at your hands long years ago had neverbeen forgotten, notwithstandling our correspondence has been broken for seventien years. Well, Sam, I won't aftempt to give you more than the outlines of what has transpired with me since we hast corresponded. So many incidents of the past, in which you and I were connected, crowd upon my mind that I cannot think or write of myself. Does your mind ever evert to the past, when we first met—how you took me in as a partner, when those who should have been my best triends threw off on me—how we got snowed in and had to live on potatoes straight for six weeks—how good that grizzly meat tested—what a disgraceful retreat we made from our poor innocent Jack, when grizzly meat tasted—what a disgraceful retreat we made from our poor innocent Jack, when we thought we were beseiged by a grizzly re-well. Sam, those events of 1852 frequently fur-hish subject matter for my thoughts, and, as I am writing to you, erewd upon my mind, but I will dismiss them for the present to give place to that which will, perhaps, be of greater inter-est to you.

of that which will, perhaps, be of greater interst to you.

I pocketed eleven thousand dollars out of the Reep Claims' you gave me in Maraposa, and tarted for home in June, 1853. I invested four mousand dollars in real estate in this city, and set it in care of Me Lane, our old cablin mate. My roperty here has yielded me a handsome insome, and quadrapled in value. I went into make see in New York city, in which I was very necessful—sold out two years ago, since which time I have been traveling in European comprise. You know I used to have a weakness for raveling—well, it has been gratified to my heart's content. While in France I was taken with the small-pox. The lady of the lim told me that I was fortunate to take the disease at that place, as there was an old small-pox does not not be the disease at that place, as there was an old small-pox does not not be the disease at that place, as there was an old small-pox does not not be the modificite, and in twenty-four hours I felt quite well. I was so much clated with the magical effects of the medicine that I was determined, if possible, to obtain the formula, in which I succeeded, by paying handsomely and promising not to divulge it in France.

I see from Oregon papers that you have the

in which I succeeded, by paying handsomely and promising not to divulge it in France.

I see from Oregon papers that you have the disease among you. The enclosed package contains the formula such sufficient material for family use. I have cured all the cases that I have come in contact with, and find it an insulible cure and preventive. When you answer this I will forward sufficient of the material to make you a fortune, as I have ample, and rest assured I reciprocate past favors.

I will close for the present and await anxiously your answer. Direct to San Francisco, as I will remain here about two months.

Yours, etc., Isaac Richarmson.

No person should be without this medicine, as the disease is now in various parts of the country, and may be among us any day. It is an old and true adage, that "An onnee of prevention is worth a pound of cure"—"That wise man that carries his coat on a fair day," etc.
