

LOCAL NEWS.

Olds & King's clearance sale still continues. The City Commissioners are in favor of a city hall.

E. S. Kearney is confirmed an Oregonian. U. S. Marshall.

"Fischer" will be repeated at New Market Theatre to night.

The Oregon Mutual Insurance Company will withdraw from business.

The Scandinavians gave a large party at Armory Hall on Saturday night.

Jan. Graham, a ship carpenter, is missing. Supposed to have suicided.

The first-story building which fell in the recent hurricane, is to be rebuilt.

Mrs. L. Cole died in East Portland last week. She was stricken with paralysis.

Capitalists are said to be looking for suitable grounds for a Portland Agricultural Society.

The New Market Theatre company appear at Vancouver to night in "Hunted Down."

Miss Tillie Caruthers, a highly-respected young lady, died in this city on Tuesday evening.

Mr. F. Powers' furniture factory, on Water street, between Hall and Harrison, is completed.

Hon. J. N. Dolph delivered the annual address before the Oregon Bible Society on Tuesday evening.

J. E. Gardiner, of Gardiner & Durand, wholesale jeweler, has decamped with the firm's funds.

Rev. Mr. May delivered an able lecture on higher education at Masonic Hall on Saturday night.

Hon. and Mrs. H. H. Gilroy, now in Washington, were recently made happy by the arrival of a girl baby.

Frentiss & Co's stuffed birds, that sing and act as if alive, are quite a novelty and attract much attention.

The Supreme Court has affirmed the decision of the Circuit Court in Ah Lee's case, and he must be hung.

On Sunday evening, a horse attached to a street-car slipped and fell, and the car passed over the animal, killing it.

A wife-beater named Hamilton was given the full extent of the law by Judge Stearns last week—25 days in jail.

The Protestant churches of the city held meetings last Sunday evening, in the interest of the Oregon Bible Society.

Jacob Mayer, Esq., accompanied by his wife and two daughters, Miss Bertha and Miss Rosa, will arrive by the Oregonian.

Owing to the superior finish and excellence of work, all stands presentment as a photographer. Give him a call.

The Oregon Bible Society supplied 92 families with the scriptures during the year; also 53 persons and 5 Sabbath schools.

Mr. W. A. Wheeler, son of Jacob Wheeler, is in this city, and is looking up his claim to the business part of East Portland.

A wealthy Chinaman died in this city last week. His funeral on Sunday was composed of an unusual number of paid mourners.

Mark & Jorgensen will soon erect a two-story brick building on the lot at the southeast corner of Second and Morrison streets.

Mrs. D. F. Smith, formerly a well-known abolitionist of this city, but now of Oakland, Cal., is visiting her Portland friends.

Fisher & Roberts are making improvements in the interior of their clothing establishment to better display their fine stock of goods.

Mr. D. W. Williams is a candidate for School Clerk for another term. He has been faithful in the past, and can be trusted in the future.

A chambermaid at the Barton House evaded the night-watchman of the hotel on Saturday, he having spoken disparagingly of her character.

The Oregon Railway Company, Limited, have advertised for 35,000 ties for the new narrow-gauge line this city through the Willamette Valley.

Dr. Keek pleads not guilty to the charge of procuring an abortion on a woman living in East Portland, and says he is a victim of persecution.

The Oregon Steamship Company have transferred their vessels and property to the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company. Consideration, $2,344,000.

The entertainment for the benefit of the Oregon Humane Society, which was announced for Tuesday night, will be given this evening at Y. M. C. A. Hall.

Professor Crawford delivered an able lecture at the Unitarian Chapel last evening on the "Metric System," being the fourth lecture in the course on social science.

Mrs. K. R. Hamilton, a venerable lady, well-known and highly respected, died in this city on the 28th ult., at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Lloyd Brooke.

During February, the Portland police made 205 arrests, and only 50 per cent were charged as "drunk and disorderly," though most all could be indirectly traced to the same source.

On Tuesday morning the steamboat Willamette Chief and the barge Wyandott ran on some submerged piles in the Willamette slough and were sunk. No lives were lost.

Mr. E. F. Heroy, than whom no gentleman in Portland is more favorably known, wishes the voters of this school district to remember next Monday that he is a candidate for the office of clerk.

Chas. Young's barber shop, in the Bickel block, on Stark street, was slightly damaged by fire on Sunday evening. There was $500 insurance on the shop. Incendiaries undoubtedly started the fire.

On next Tuesday evening, the pupils of Professor Halprouner will give him a complimentary party at his dancing academy, corner First and Stark streets. All former friends and pupils are invited. Tickets, $1.

Falchid and Bernard, the alleged Hagar murderers, have been set at liberty. Prosecuting Attorney Caples thinking it will not be possible to convict them, though they had a narrow escape at their trial.

Those who wish an excellent suit of clothing, guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction as to price, quality and fit, should call on W. H. Uiter, with W. J. Quinn, who has re-opened at his old stand, 28 Stark street.

The story reaches this city that a miscreant named Holson has ruined two girls, 11 and 14 years of age respectively, in Clatskanie county. The officers are upon his track. The father of the girls is also looking for him.

The temperance entertainment at Y. M. C. A. Hall on Saturday evening was a decided success. Professor Cooke, Miss Dora McCord, Miss Anna Fearnside, Mrs. H. W. Scott, Miss Sonora Witherell, Dr. Bird, and Mrs. Cronau ably assisted in the entertainment. Mr. Cronau was too hoarse to talk, but President Caples stepped in the breach and made an excellent address.

Clerk Williams reports that the expenditures in this school district during the past year amounted $89,119. Of this amount, one-half was expended on the Park School and in rebuilding the Harrison-street house, the net cost of all the schools being $39,726 75.

The many readers of THE NEW NORTHWEST who are connected with the millinery trade are reminded that the great wholesale firm of Fleischner, Mayer & Co. will supply them with the latest, choicest and cheapest goods in their line, comprising every sort of staple and novelty of the Eastern market, and at prices that defy successful competition.

Mr. Mayer makes a specialty of this business and personally supervises the selection of goods in New York, where he is thoroughly acquainted with the trade, and is able and willing to give his far Western customers the benefit of his large experience.

The theatrical business has not improved during the past week, though a large audience greeted the matinee performance of "The Two Orphans." Miss Adams and Little Maid were the recipients of a joint benefit on Tuesday night, when "Hunted Down" and the farce, "Out to Nurse," were given to a large house. Miss Adams acquitted herself very creditably, and the little one proved herself the biggest card in the troupe.

The bill was repeated last night, and will be given at the matinee on Saturday. Mr. Chaplin's benefit is announced for to-morrow evening. The management intend to bring out novelties next week, including the "Prismatic Fountain."

At the annual school meeting of the tax-payers of this district on Monday night, a tax of 4 mills for the ensuing year was voted. This is the same amount as was voted last year, and will give sufficient funds to meet the demands of our constantly increasing trade.

We have therefore much pleasure in announcing to the public that we have secured

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREGON KIDNEY TEA, which is sold by all druggists, and challenges the world.

Modesty is to a woman what the delicate bloom is to the peach—the greatest beauty. But once gone, no human power can restore it. Many modest women suffer in silence for years with the most painful affections of the delicate vital organs of the body, rather than to impart the knowledge of their sufferings to a physician. This great army of martyrs will be rejoiced to know that at last a purely vegetable and harmless remedy has been discovered, which cures immediately all diseases and weaknesses of the kidneys and bladder, no matter of how long standing or of what nature. It is the wonderful OREG