CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

Gasolines are locking well. The picnic season has begun. The capitol foundation is finished. Strawberries are now in their prime. The street sprinkler is now in demand. Olympic University opens September 14th. The Fourth of July is coming. Shall we celebrate? The rock foundation of the U. P. church is laid. Dr. Newell has been appointed County Physician. A son was born, Wednesday, to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Norin, of Eastside, Monday. Harry McElroy is now the owner of a beautiful naphtha launch. The Biometallic League meets in Columbia hall, to-morrow night. Our maple shade trees (what are left of them) are in full foliage. The price of butter has never been lower than now in this market. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Norin, of Eastside, Monday. The Elks of this city give a minstrel performance at Shelton to-morrow night. Mr. Brewer has placed one of the latest patent refrigerators in his market. Chas. A. Mosher and Mrs. Fannie W. Austin, were united in marriage last Sunday. The Multnomah brought up Wednesday, the freight from the steamer Unatilla. Gov. Newell has moved to the residence lately occupied by Judge Anderson on East Fourth street. The steamer Estella took a cargo of general merchandise to Mosher & McDonald's camp yesterday. A number of the pioneers of this city, went to Seattle this week, to attend the pioneer meeting. The steamer Seaside carried three tons of oil to Simpson's camp, on Harstien Island, yesterday. The People's Store Co. have something of interest to say to the ladies in their advertisement this week. Chas. H. Springer is happy in being the paternal ancestor of a bright boy who "came to stay" Tuesday. The social dance given at Woodland Park, last Saturday evening, was attended by a number of Olympians. The Olympic Mill Co. shipped two carloads of cedar to Plainville, Nebraska, this week, by the Great Northern. Joseph B. Taylor, of Vancouver, and Miss Sadie E. Colvin, daughter of I. Colvin, of Tenino, have been licensed to wed. James A. English and Miss Rosa Jones, of Tacoma, were licensed to wed by the Auditor of this county, Tuesday. The tug Beaver Wednesday towed away the large barge that has been used in bringing up brick for the capitol building. The Olympic Mill Co. have just put in a lathe machine, at the new mill, which will be run by a current from the electric wire. Miss Julia Henderson left yesterday for Hood River, Oregon, where she will reside with her grandmother, Mrs. C. C. Henderson. Next Friday, the 14th, is "Flag Day," the 118th anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes by the American Congress. The passenger traffic by boat the past week has been unusually brisk, doubtless owing to the society conventions here and at Tacoma. W. J. Craig will spend the summer on his ranch about two miles down the bay on the Eastside. He moved his household supplies yesterday. Northern Pacific trains now arrive at 10:20 A. M. and depart at 3:30 P. M. The Port Townsend Southern leaves at 2:10 and arrives at 4:50 P. M. The W. C. T. U. of the State has been in session at the Unitarian Church of this city, since Tuesday. The sessions lasted till this evening. Chas. H. Ayer and T. F. Mentzer have been elected delegates to the National Republican League, which meets at Cleveland, Ohio, July 19th. In the case of Pullis vs. Boel, in the Superior Court, a judgment was granted, Monday, and the defense allowed the usual time to file exceptions. The crossing for the track on Jefferson street has arrived and will be put in place to-night, so that by to-morrow cars will be loaded on the Olympic Mill Co.'s yard. Dr. Riley, Phil Vincent and Geo. Jones left Tuesday for the upper Columbia, to make a thorough exploration of the graphite deposit owned by a company here. The Epworth League convenes in Tacoma on the 18th inst. Arrangements will probably be made with the S. Willey Navigation Co. for an excursion party to attend it. The following new members were initiated into the Ancient Order of Foresters at their meeting Wednesday evening: J. L. Longmire, William Beckwith, George R. Kirkendall and John Mack. Robert Mitchell and Maggie Murphy, of Buelo, were united in marriage on the 20th ult., at Centralia. They have begun house-keeping at New Kamichie, where Mr. Mitchell has employment. The Olympic Mill Co. shipped a carload of lumber to Tacoma, one to Iowa Falls, Iowa, and one to New Baden, Ill., this week, besides three carloads of cedar, over the Great Northern, to Nebraska.

The Seattle Gift and Victor.

The Memorial Grand Medical Center, held under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., in Olympia Theater, Wednesday evening, was one of the most enjoyable oratorical centers ever held in our city, and drew a large audience. The themes presented were: "The Voice of the Dramatist," by A. L. White, of Montesano; "Two Fires," by Edith Prather, of this city; "The Original Liquor League," by Jennie Inglis, of Seattle; "The Women's Christian Temperance Union," by Christian Minkler, of Lyman; "Christian Patriotism," by Marguerite Colter, of this city; "The Failure of High License," by Mabel Childers, of Seattle; "Alcoholic Slavery," by Ida Taylor, of Centralia, and "Our National Curse," by Sina Orvel, of Puyallup. The proficiency displayed by these contestants was remarkable, and elicited much praise as well as delight. There was not a word of diatribe effort by either of the contestants, and while the award had to be made to one, the opinion of the large audience was almost evenly divided between the several speakers. This excellence is the outgrowth of the admirable system of patient and laborious training through which the highest results are attained. It illustrates the truth of the declaration in one of the old school books, "There is no excellence without great labor," and gives promise of the inevitable reward of patient and well-directed effort. With such zealous workers as Miss Page, of this city, who has charge of the department here, (and the evidences are afforded that she is not alone in this branch of philanthropic endeavor, there can be no failure. Her efforts, and the generous contributions will be marked and decisive. The decision of the judges—the State Board of Education—was that Miss Inglis, of Seattle, was the award, and under the rules for credits prescribed by the founder of the system.

Deaths of a Pioneer.

The death of Mrs. Benj. Harned, at the family residence in this city, Wednesday at 10 A. M., although not unexpected was a shock to the community who have known her so long and so well. She had been in poor health for several months past, and on Tuesday morning, at 11 her symptoms became so alarming as to leave little doubt of the result. The cause of death was apoplexy, and the debility of age. She died contented.

Mrs. Harned was born in Jefferson county, N. Y., July 23, 1810, being within a month of 35 years of age. She came to this country in 1837, five years after her husband had made Olympia his home. Her residence with her family was continuous. She was the mother of two children, Eunice (Mrs. Turpin) and John, who died several years ago. Mrs. Turpin was with her in her last hours and did everything possible to mitigate her sufferings. The sympathy of a host of friends are with her and the beloved husband.

The funeral took place Thursday, and interment was made in Masonic cemetery, Rev. Dr. Chase, of the St. John's Church, performing the burial rites. The service was large, and many and beautiful were the floral offerings which attested the respect in which her memory is held.

UNTOLD MISERY FROM RHEUMATISM

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

C. H. King, Water Valley, Miss., cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I suffered untold misery from muscular rheumatism, and tried every known remedy, consulted the best physicians, and spent $300 there, besides doctor's bills; but could obtain only temporary relief. My limbs were wasted away so that I weighed only ninety-three pounds; my left arm and leg were drawn out of shape, the muscles being twisted up in knots. I was unable to dress myself, or sleep with assistance, and could only hobble about by using a cane. I had no appetite, and my bowels were constipated, so that I could not live. The pains, at times, were so awful, that I could procure relief only by means of hypodermic injections of morphia. I had my limbs bandaged in splints, in winter, and in the summer I gave only temporary relief. After trying everything, and suffering the most awful agony, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In a few days, I was able to walk without a cane. In three months, my limbs began to strengthen, and in the course of a year, I was cured. My weight has increased to 165 pounds, and I am now able to do my full day's work as a railroad blacksmith."

Palouse City is making great efforts to secure the establishment of the coal-belt-sugar factory at that place. Representatives of Eastern capital have made a proposition to build a factory of 500 tons per day capacity, to be located near the city. The cost of 4,000 acres of land located within a radius of six miles of the city. Meetings are being held in the schools about Palouse with the hope of securing the bonus.

The Epworth Leaguers of all Western and Washington are going to make a decided and determined stand against the liquor traffic. They are also going to make an effort to produce the Bible into the public schools, and the matter will be formally taken up, and ways and means for the prosecution of the objects will be considered at the coming Epworth League convention, which takes place at the First Methodist Episcopal church in Tacoma, June 20.

A sensation was developed a few days ago in the city of Seattle, when it became known that the trustees of the Scottish Rite in Free Masonry have sued Wm. Ziegler and Louis Ziegler, his son, for nearly $1,000. Wm. Ziegler was treasurer, and it is claimed he refused to make a settlement with the order. Louis Ziegler is one of the most prominent business men in the north-west, owner of the Ziegler block, and a pioneer of Spokane. He refuses to discuss the matter, but says there will be a defense, and a strong one.

The Aberdeen and Montesano baseball clubs played in Montesano Monday and the latter team beat the Aberdeen by one run. The score stood 9 to 10. The game was a hotly contested one, in the last half of the ninth inning the score stood 9 to 4 in favor of Aberdeen; but, a series of mishaps occurring, the Montesano ran in six scores. The clubs of Aberdeen, Montesano and Hoquiam have each won a game, and the rivalry between the towns over the merits of their respective clubs is very pronounced.

Says the Mason County Tribune: The Aberdeen and Montesano baseball clubs played in the last of the month, at Williams' camp last year were brought in this week and were raffled for Tacoma. The largest of these, which was cut off 25 feet from the butt, is 32 feet long, 78 inches in diameter, and this monstrous log contains 10,158 feet of lumber. The first cut of this tree, 25 feet long, is still in the woods, and will be cut into short pieces, say two feet long, for exhibition purposes, making logs of two feet in length and 11 feet in diameter.

The tide flats along the Indian reservation on the other side of the bay from Tacoma have been bought up by the Puget Sound Indians. They have bought in the lands at the price set upon them by the State Board of Land Commissioners. Some of the land bought by the Indians is exceedingly valuable for railroad entrance. A part of Joseph Alexander's purchase gives him that portion of the water front on the north side of the bay, which has been attempted to grade for the Great Northern entrance to the flats, says the Union.

Heretofore the Snake river has been a barrier between the squires' swarms of the country to the north and Walla Walla county, but it is no more. The ferryman and farmers in the vicinity of Lyons' ferry report that the two little rodents are swimming across the river, and as soon as they get across immediately attack the growing grain. Something must be done about the entire community, or the country will then, the Statesman says. There is no doubt that they swim across the river, for the ferryman says they are seen.

The Trades Council adopted resolutions at Spokane, Tuesday night denouncing the supreme court for sending Eugene Debs to jail, "for no other reason than that it was a wish of greedy corporations and plutocratic thieves of the country." The Supreme Court is declared to be fractional, whimsical
