CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

Hang your banner on the outer walls tomorrow.

Put up your flags tomorrow, and keep them up until election.

I took the Tacoma Ledger five days ago to find out that there was a joint debate at Yelm.

Gov. Hicks will remain in Thurston county during the remainder of the campaign.

The Chin McDonald, Capt. Green, arrived this morning with a cargo of hay for Stimpeler.

Mr. Nelson Tamm, who has been confined to his room on account of illness, is recovering.

A revival of local business is indicated by the increasing number of drummers in the city.

Mrs. Fiedela A. Turner, was united in marriage, Sunday, at her residence, to Irvin J. Boyd, late of Nebraska.

Joseph McCargher, who has been confined to his home with illness for the past two weeks, is slowly improving.

A 400-pound sturgeon was caught in Skokholm lake, the other day, by some Indians who were setting for salmon.

At ten cents for round-trip fare to the People's rally at Tacoma, Saturday night, the Multnomah should be crowded.

Only one week from tomorrow and then election day will be here, and the day following there will be many sore-headed Republicans.

Remember that the campaign committee have flags galore at headquarters. Secure at least one and keep it waving till November 2d.

Remember, the "People" will hold a "love-feast" Monday night at the theater—just before the battle that will call forth a "hallooing" meeting.

The ocean is for free silver; chemical analysis showing that there is from fifteen to twenty grains of the white metal in every ton of sea water.

Hon. J. P. Fay, who has been assigned by the campaign committee to speak at Yelm Oct. 25th, cannot be present, and the date has been canceled.

Gottfeldt & Bennett are reported to be doing a lively business in the fishing industry. They are at present utilizing their nets near Point Defiance.

Mr. Frank Morse, of the State Auditor's office, will not be entrusted with any more Sullivan schemes in this county. The Goss boomerang was his undoing.

Hello, there, Mr. Sullivan! You're needed here. Your many club friends await your presence. Do not stand on the order of your coming, but come at once.

About six hundred enthusiastic people assembled in Olympia Theater Saturday afternoon to hear the G. L. Miller of truth expounded by Prof. O. L. Miller. A great deal of interest was manifested.

The ladies who have interested themselves so kindly in the auxiliary work of the Bryan forces in this county, are requested to meet Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Bryan-Rogers club rooms.

Judges Litchenberg and Winsor received many admiring callers at the Carlton House previous to the meeting at which they spoke Saturday evening. The two men left by the Multnomah Sunday morning.

An enthusiastic silver rally was held at Tumwater last night, at which the crowd was unusually large. Six of the People's Party speakers were called upon and delivered addresses and materially aided the good cause.

There will be no meeting of the Bryan-Rogers club in this city Saturday night. The meeting has been canceled in order to allow members of the club an opportunity to take part in the Tacoma parade on that evening.

Hon. Neal Cheatham will speak at Bryan-Rogers club rooms this Friday evening. Owing to the hurry and bustle of the last end of the campaign, Mr. Cheatham's meeting was announced for Thursday by mistake. Note the change of date.

A commercial man who witnessed the extensively advertised Republican parade in Seattle, Thursday night, informs THE HONEST DOLLAR that there were not to exceed 1,500 people in line, men, boys and all. The P.-J. Ananias makes the extraordinary claim of 10,000.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Venen, who have been sitting in the Sound districts and California for nearly two months past, will leave this week by the Great Northern route for their home in Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Venen is a brother of our townsman L. P. Venen.

Mr. Goss, the capitol contractor, is around town dictating for P. C. Sullivan for Governor, with the promise that it will promote construction of the State House. The people have had quite enough of McGraw himself, and do not propose to be fooled by his cat's-paw.

The pupils of Miller's Business College yesterday took a vote on the Presidential candidates and the result was: Bryan, 28; McKinley, 13. Four Bryan pupils and one McKinley pupil were absent. It will be observed that the ominous 13 is again conspicuous in this vote.

W. Q. "Black Lake" Thompson has returned from Oregon. Mr. Thompson's sole object in returning at this time is to cast his vote, and to cast it right. Mr. Thompson says that there need be no fear of Oregon on November 2d. The sentiment for Bryan is almost as general as in Washington.

That the Sullivan forces are in the last ditch is evidenced from the report received lately from Hood's Canal. The Tacoma corporation men's friends are offering three votes for Sullivan as against Rogers. The candidates offer to trade. The candidates offer to trade. The candidates offer to trade. The candidates offer to trade.

state-holder on the same proposition. Evidently some one has given the "Judge" a tip that he has been "spotted."

Wm. H. White, of Seattle, the veteran Democrat and People's advocate, as well as a veteran of the civil war called on the STANFORD Whitehall. He brings cheering news from King county. He says that the People's rally at Seattle was the largest demonstration ever held in that city, requiring 35 minutes to pass a point. He estimates that fully 4,500 people joined in the grand demonstration. King will give the whole People's State ticket an average majority of 2,000.

HOW TO VOTE.

THE NEW FORM OF BALLOT.

Under the Laws of 1905, the Form of Ballot will be as follows:

REPUBLICAN TICKET.....
DEMOCRATIC TICKET.....
PEOPLE'S PARTY TICKET.....				X
PROHIBITION TICKET.....
NATIONAL TICKET.....
PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.
People's Party.....	H. N. CATON
People's Party.....	J. N. MAXWELL
People's Party.....	JOHN D. HART
People's Party.....	B. C. NEWMAN
And so on down the list.

HEADQUARTERS
PEOPLE'S PARTY CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE,
THURSTON COUNTY.

To all Friends to Free Silver:

This committee earnestly urges every elector to vote the People's Party ticket STRAIGHT. To do this mark an X on the right of the ballot, thus—

PEOPLE'S PARTY TICKET..... X

The "Democratic ticket" on the official ballot is a "decoy ticket" to ensnare Free Silver Democrats who wish to vote for Bryan. There is no Democratic State ticket, as shown by the official ballot, and an X made opposite the Democratic ticket on the official ballot would be a vote thrown away for you would not then be voting for Bryan, nor a single State or county officer. The National ticket is a faction of the Prohibition party.

Be sure not to place your cross on the left of any name, as the Superior Court in the Orr vs. Favett case threw out all ballots marked on the left side. If you wish to vote for any other cross, unless where you have specially placed a cross after the name of some candidate, place your cross after the name of the person you wish to vote for.

By placing your X after the words "People's Party Ticket" as above, this will be counted for every candidate on it without any further crosses, unless where you have specially placed a cross after the name of some candidate, in which case it will be counted for such candidate or candidates.

Should you blur or mark your ticket by accident in any way, get a new ticket from the judges of election; as if there is any other mark or scratch upon your ticket than the X it is liable to be thrown out for "distinguishing mark."

Be sure and place your X in the space thus [] and not on the line, thus—X—

HENRY ECKART,
Chairman.

A little girl has found out how they manage matters at the Women's McKinley Club rooms. She went there with her mama, the other evening, and this is her report:

"Well, they first sang a little song, about—

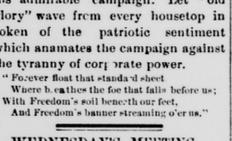

'I want to be a dollie,
And with the dollie hand."

Then a big woman made a speech and 'kep' sayin' 'McKinley is a sweet man, and all the other women as was 'ere, 'yes' and spatted their hands and went 'Um' with their hands upon their bosoms. Then everybody kissed McKinley's picture and went home, and that was all there was about it."

Dr. Ostrander, in his introduction of the speakers at the meeting last night, incidentally remarked of the Olympian's report of Congressman Boutelle's speech, that it was the most admirable "bit of irony" he had ever read. It was indeed admirable, and for the reason that the Olympian's report of the speech, that it was the most admirable "bit of irony" he had ever read. It was indeed admirable, and for the reason that the Olympian's report of the speech, that it was the most admirable "bit of irony" he had ever read.

Voters of the county are urged to go to the polls early to cast their votes. It has been ascertained that the supply of ballots in some of the remote precincts will be extremely limited, and they are liable to become exhausted before the latter part of the day. Particularly in this case in settlements that have grown in the past two years. The law requires that only twice as many ballots shall be supplied as there were voters at the last election, when several ballots have been destroyed by voters in a small precinct, it cuts down the original number to a dangerous margin. The only way in which to circumvent any difficulty of this character is to go to the polls early and cast your vote.

TRAGEDY AT SHELTON.

Geo. Vining Kills James Jones and Then Shoots Himself.

SHELTON, Oct. 29.—A frightful tragedy occurred on one of the principal streets of this city last night, late in the evening, in which two loggers from the Williamson camp met with untimely deaths and another man, whose name could not be learned, was shot through the arm. It appears that George Vining and the unknown man had had a quarrel early in the evening, during which Vining's lip was badly bitten by his antagonist. Vining was enraged beyond control at his treatment, and went home, secured his rifle and returned to the scene of the quarrel. Vining took up a position opposite the front door of a saloon in which he supposed his antagonist was, and waited his chance for revenge. James Jones, an intimate friend of Vining, was the first man to emerge from the saloon, and Vining took deliberate aim at him and fired. His shot proved fatal to Jones, who was instantly killed. The next man to emerge from the saloon was the man for whom Vining was looking, and he again fired, this time striking his victim in the right arm.

WEDNESDAY'S MEETING.

A Crowded House Gathers to Hear Eloquent Speakers.

If the Republicans of Thurston county could only secure one of the hearty, prolonged cheers that were given at the Bryan-Rogers meeting last night, it might possibly aid in pulling them out of the "Slough of Despond" into which they have comely fallen. Never was such an amount of enthusiasm crowded into such a limited time before in this city. The usual great crowds which attend the people's meetings was out in force again last evening to hear the eloquent addresses of Hon. Joseph S. Allen and Hon. Wm. H. White. Dr. Ostrander presided and in a few well chosen and appropriate remarks introduced the glee club, which started the cheering, and which kept up at intervals all through the meeting. Mr. Allen then took the platform, and was warmly welcomed by his old friends in Olympia. His speech was one of the best ever listened to by our people in this or any other campaign. At times during his remarks he rose to the heights of eloquence, particularly in his glowing apostrophe to the Silver Knight of the People, when the immense audience was swayed to an extent never before witnessed in this city.

After another pleasing song by the popular glee club, Mr. White was introduced. His reception was fully as cordial as that of his fellow speaker, as he is almost as well known in this city. Mr. White is an earnest speaker, and his efforts were fully appreciated by his auditors.

The main part of Mr. White's speech was directed towards showing up the political inconsistencies of Judge Burke. Those who have any knowledge of the speaker's command of language, may realize how little labor he had to expend in making the subject of his remarks appear after Mr. W. had stripped him of his cloak of deceit. He showed that Burke had never been a Democrat more than in name, and that his present campaign is the work of a mere tool of corporate power.

The speakers' remarks were in striking contrast with those of the "Man from Main" who spoke at the theater the night before, and as has been the case in this campaign, the arguments and indisputable facts only presented, while the abuse has been absorbed by the opposition.

Notice to Committeemen.

All committeemen of all the precincts of the county are requested to meet at the Campaign Committee headquarters, on Saturday, Oct. 31st, at 11 o'clock p. m. Important business to transact. HENRY ECKERT, Chairman Campaign Committee.

EXCURSION TO TACOMA.

If the Weather Proves Favorable a Great Crowd Will Go.

The people of Pierce county will formally close the campaign Saturday night. On that evening both parties have parades in Tacoma, a part of the time being allotted to each political organization. The People's Party has made preparations to have the largest political parade ever seen in the city of Tacoma, and to that end have extended an invitation to the supporters of Bryan and Rogers in Thurston county to assist in their demonstration. At the close of the meeting last night in the club rooms, the matter was laid before the members of the club, and it was unanimously voted to attend. Arrangements so far made are that the Multnomah, carrying the excursionists, will leave this city at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, arriving at Tacoma at 5 o'clock. The Multnomah will be held at Tacoma until after the exercises of the evening are over, probably until 11 o'clock. Added to this inducement, is the low fare, of which everyone can take advantage. Just think of a round-trip to Tacoma and an opportunity to hear Senator

Tillman of South Carolina, and all its costs is ten cents. Under the guarantee that the tickets printed will all be sold, the fair has been placed at this low figure. J. L. Holland, H. R. Hill and Prof. O. L. Miller are the committee having the matter in charge, and tickets may be had at the campaign committee headquarters. Those intending to go should call early for tickets, as the capacity of the boat is limited.

A Waste of Funds.

The other evening, at the Republican meeting at the theater, the following colloquy occurred at the parquette door between an office-holding pet of the gossipy State administration and a silver man:

Goldbug—"The house is awful 'thin' to-night. What's the use of putting up money to hire the opera house when Columbia Hall or Unity Church would have done as well?"

Silverite—"True; it does seem to be a needless waste of money; but you must not expect the 'house' to do all the 'drawing'—the 'attraction' has something to do with it."

Goldbug—"That's so. We've had several fine audiences, when men of extended reputation have spoken."

Silverite—"Yes; but you must have noted that they were composed largely of silver men. 'Mark,' you knew, took some exceptions to the enthusiasm of the audience when the name of Bryan was incidentally mentioned by Mr. Craven."

Goldbug—"So you think we can't gather a full audience without your assistance?"

Silverite—"That's about the size of it. You see, Sam, the people are not with the g. o. p. this time. Your party deserted free silver, and free silver sentiment has gone with the coinage of the people, and to use a cant phrase, 'You're not in it!'"

Goldbug—"I'm afraid you're about right, and that's the reason I'm kicking about putting up so much money for 'non-essentials.'"

A Tough Experience.

Frank Groy, end man of the McKinley Glee club, tells this on himself: "The other night our speakers and the glee club held a meeting at South Bay, which was almost exclusively attended by Populists. Talk about Populists being thick! They grow on bushes out there. Populists to the right, Populists to the left, Populists before and behind us. The meeting became so chilly for our boys, that I retired from the hall in disgust, thinking that, at least, outside I could get clear of the atmosphere. I had just one 'swig' left, and thought to drown my sorrow and soothe my nerves by this last extreme. Finishing the bottle, I threw it over in the brush. What was my consternation to find that I had hit a Pop square on the head and he jumped up, following 'Hurrah for Bryan!' It didn't take us long to get out of South Bay after that deal, but all the way home the 'dead wagon' was saluted by Pops who would jump out from behind stumps, clear up to the city limits, with this infernal yell: 'Hurrah for Bryan!'"

A Suggestive Incident.

An amusing little episode occurred at the Bryan meeting Wednesday night. During the speaking a slight rustling was heard in the long aisle leading from the door to the speaker's stand, and from the perturbation manifested by the ladies present, whose sensitive natures are so easily aroused, the natural conclusion was that a mouse had concluded to escape the political flood that will soon destroy everything without the ark of safety. Soon, however, the cause of the disturbance was found to be a small toad, which hopped along till he had arrived in front of the speaker's stand, where it quietly sat with blinking eyes until the conclusion of me of Bro. White's impassioned rhapsodies, when, in a clear frog-like voice it emitted a shrill croaking which sounded for all the world like "Bryan! Bryan!" The effect of the interruption may be better imagined than described.

Another Account of the Bucoda Meeting.

James Hamilton Lewis made one of his eloquent addresses here last night to an audience which taxed the capacity of the largest hall in the town to its utmost. A few Republicans fearing a collapse of the building left before the speaking began, but attracted by the irresistible flow of the Colonel's eloquence returned, to be converted from the error of their ways. A large number who could not gain entrance to the building erected stages under the windows in order to hear the doctrines of free silver so ably expounded.

The hall was gayly decorated with evergreens, flags and bunting, while the emblem of Liberty graced the hands of every enthusiastic supporter of the cause. The Bucoda glee club, assisted by the Bryan glee club of Tenino furnished excellent music and were compelled to respond several times to prolonged encores.

The Colonel's effort has been productive of much good, a number of voters who have formerly supported the Republican ticket have announced their intentions of voting the silver ticket from Presidential candidate down to constable.

While Bucoda has been considered the Republican stronghold in Thurston county, the fact still remains that the silver meetings have been marked by the largest attendance and greatest enthusiasm, which bespeaks for us a glorious victory in November.

Respectfully yours,
W. G. BUTTERFIELD.

P. S.—Later, I have just heard that Wm. Morrison and Prince Bros. had declared this morning for Bryan and free silver. They have heretofore been McKinley men. W. G. B. BUCODA, Oct. 22, 1906.

THE OLD SOLDIERS MEETING.

A Packed House and an Enthusiastic Crowd Greet Them.

The old soldier's meeting Saturday night at the Bryan-Rogers club rooms, was the banner assemblage of the campaign in point of enthusiasm displayed. The hall was crowded to its limit long before the hour for commencement of the programme. Veterans of thirty-five were seated immediately fronting the speakers, and the meeting was essentially their own. When the speakers of the evening entered the hall escorted by the veterans, the entire audience arose to its feet and cheer after cheer was given them. Comrade H. R. Hill presided at the meeting, and after an excellently rendered campaign song to the patriotic and appropriate air of "Marching Through Georgia," by the glee club, the chairman introduced Vilas Ralston, who rendered in an excellent manner an extract from Bryan's Chicago speech. Judge Litchenberg was then introduced and he held the close attention of the audience for over an hour, being frequently interrupted by demonstrations of approval. At the conclusion of Judge Litchenberg's address, the glee club rendered another campaign song, which was heartily applauded, and then Judge Winsor was introduced. Judge Winsor's remarks seemed to strike a responsive chord in the large audience from beginning to the end of his speech, as the applause was as times almost deafening. The numerous telling points made by Judge Winsor were fully appreciated and mentioned here. Another song by the glee club and repeated cheers for the head of the ticket closed a most successful meeting.

Shoot, or Drop the Gun.

Invite 'Him, or Acknowledge He Is Unworthy of Common Respect.

Little Oly can be malicious as well as spiteful, as is shown by its article headed "The Ladies in Politics," in which, after commenting upon the work of the Women's Moneyless Non-Partisan Club, it makes the following cold-blooded suggestion:

"The next meeting should be held in Olympia, and no doubt if the ladies would make an effort they could secure the presence of Mr. Sullivan, the Republican candidate for Governor, and secure an address from him on the occasion. It could be made a red letter day in this county."

It would indeed be a "red letter day" when innocence, and virtue, and purity, and all that is noble and holy should be brought in contact with a man of the notoriously rotten character of P. C. Sullivan. The Olympian is cold-blooded in making the suggestion, but we are glad that the issue is thus closely presented. "When rogues fall out honest men get their dues."

No alternative is left but for the women's club to accede to the proposition, or virtually acknowledge that Mr. Sullivan is not a fit associate for the better-half of humanity. If this is acknowledged, he is by no means the man who should fill the exalted office of Chief Executive of Washington.
