CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. W. T. Cunningham on a visit to Seattle.

The steamer Multnomah will make a regular trip Sunday.

The weather prospects for tonight and tomorrow are "Fair."

The brick basement of the Capital Brewery annex is completed.

Thursday the steamer Walla Walla will leave Seattle for San Francisco.

Prof. Leach has gone to Eastern Washington to assist in instituting work.

Frank Williamson is up from Tacoma for a while with his many friends.

The steamer Cottage City sailed today from the Sound for Alaskan ports.

The first roll of butter from the new creamery found its way to the editor's table.

Boys are prone to do as men do, so they go into the fields and shoot grouse and pheasant chicks with air-guns.

Mr. Prudden's grocery business has compelled him to rent the adjacent room on the east to use as a storeroom.

Yesterday the steamer Queen left the Sound for San Francisco. Mrs. J. E. Connolly of this city was a passenger by her.

"Billy" Hildebrandt, who has been absent from this city for some time has returned and is now a salesman at Motman's.

Mrs. A. Williams, proprietress of the New York Bakery, left Monday with her children for a visit to the Empire State.

"Uncle" Benny Morrell has returned to Olympia after several years' absence. He brings his household effects and a determination to stay.

Mrs. Bowers, a member of a family at Tumwater of the same name, where she has been a guest several weeks, has returned to her home near Omaha.

On Monday J. E. Morgan left over the Union Pacific for Omaha, Neb. On Wednesday Mrs. J. C. Allen left over the same line for Baker City, Oga.

The new creamery is in operation and the old skimming and churning operations are fast passing away only to be read of as we read of other by-gones.

John Gwin, of Bueda, has been committed to the Hospital for the Insane, for an aberration of intellect said to have been caused by business troubles.

A party was given at Butler's Cove last evening by Deputy Insurance Commissioner Heifner, in honor of Miss Anna Mitchell, daughter of Dr. Mitchell.

J. C. Mason's little steamer Frankie will take Billy Foster's yacht Daphne to Seattle, Sunday, and there is some talk of entering her in the regatta on Labor Day.

The rite of baptism was administered to Annie and Bertha Murphy who lie ill at their father's residence, Tuesday, by Rev. H. L. Badger, rector of St. John's church.

Charles S. Spinning, sentenced to confinement in jail for one year for obtaining money under false pretenses, by the Superior Court of Pierce county, has been pardoned.

A Republican gives as a reason why he does not enter with his accustomed zeal the present seething campaign, that he does not wish to make his party any more corrupt than it now is.

Elmore Rice, probably the greatest of American violinists, will give two recitals at Olympia hotel, on the 14th and 15th insts. His technique, tone and phrasing are said to be wonderful. Tickets at O'Connor's, 50c.

A Teachers' Institute has been in session the past week, in this city, with a large attendance from abroad to aid in the work. The daily programme has been well calculated for mutual instruction and advancement.

It is said that a royal fight occurred in the Fifth ward and a commotion was kicked up in the Third, yesterday, by the wonderful "harmony" that prevails in the g.o.p. The STANDARD regrets that it was not present.

A danger signal has been displayed on the Westside shore road to prevent bicycle riders from scorching down a precipice. Several mishaps have already happened on account of the non-observance of the warning.

The seats recently erected on Main and Sixth streets, fronting Sylvester Park, are proving a temptation and to the owners of sharp pocket-knives. Nothing short of chilled iron can successfully resist the whittling mania of loungers.

The decoration of the storerooms of "The Fair" in paint and paper, by Charles Stewart, is an artistic job, as well work turned out by him. It is best in keeping, however, with the superabundance that is to be inaugurated at that favorite stand.

The home-like spirit of hospitality which prevails about the Hotel Huguenot has already made it a favorite resort. The rate likewise suits the public and "mine host" Huggins is demonstrating that he possesses the rare qualification of knowing how to keep hotel.

The dining-room of the Carlton House was opened to the public yesterday. Since returning from his trip to Alaska, Mr. Tunin has refitted and furnished this house from first floor to attic, and under his personal management it cannot fail to maintain its well known popularity.

Thomas Swan lost a valuable horse Tuesday, under peculiar circumstances. He was riding the animal, near Tenino, when the horse stepped on a stone, which turned causing a jar which broke his leg. Mr. Swan gave the animal to a farmer near by and returned to town by train.

John Byrne, our enterprising townman, has returned from a trip to the Emerald Isle and reports having had a very enjoyable and instructive outing from the duties of an extended term of business life. He was glad to get back into the harness, however, as are all who make a success of an active career.

Preparations for the chrysanthemum carnival go bravely on and every day adds some feature of attractiveness to the programme as it is being arranged under the able management of Mrs. Horr. In the meantime, balloting for queen of the pageant is bringing in quite an accession to the souvenir fund.

Since the ordinance was passed prohibiting the tethering of cows along street borders, the owners of these animals have nicely got the start of our city fathers by putting the end of the tethering things into the hands of children who are content to doze in some shady fence corner while bossy fills herself with the sweet herbage.

"The Fair" is the name of the new business which will be conducted in the elegant store room of the Williams block, corner of Fourth and Main streets, formerly occupied by the Racket Store. It will be seen by the announcement made elsewhere that low prices will be the feature in which will command patronage. Besides this, the stock offered is unusually full and attractive. Call at the opening to-morrow, and see if this is not so.

The steamer Multnomah will carry excursionists to the grand Labor Day celebration at Seattle, next Monday at a 50-cent rate for the round-trip. She will arrive at Seattle in time to witness all the main features of the demonstration. Returning she will not leave till 6 o'clock in the evening, after all the celebration is over. This will afford visitors an opportunity to be present when the full tide of business is on and to enjoy other benefits besides the leading one of witnessing the greatest demonstration ever held in the State. Representative Lewis will deliver the oration in the afternoon.

THE WEATHER.

The Washington division of the Weather Bureau Department of Agriculture, has issued the following bulletin of meteorological conditions for the week ending Tuesday, the 30th ult.:

The beginning of the past week was warm, the first two days—the 23d and 24th—being even hot. The following days were of considerably lower temperature, growing warmer at the close of the week. There were no rains in the agricultural sections, therefore the weather was favorable for the harvesting that is now rapidly nearing completion, being entirely finished in some localities.

Threshing has only fairly begun in the late sections. The result so far as shown are confirmatory of the very conservative reports that have been published in these bulletins. It may be generally inferred by shrinking that the harvest is well advanced, but it will be found that the product has not been over-estimated in quantity or quality. Considering early and late wheat together the average will be a very satisfactory yield indeed.

Cooler weather with some rain during the past two weeks has improved fruit; on lowlands apples, pears and prunes are abundant. It is only on the lowlands that potatoes will be a full crop.

The extensive out regions of Skagit county, that is, the Samish, Olympia and Skagit flats, are producing their usual enormous crop of oats, the harvest of which is about three-fourths completed. Hop picking has just commenced.

Although rain is now very much needed for pastures, the unmaturing crops remaining, and to improve the roads and soften the soil for all plowing, yet a heavy fall of rain at the present time would do great injury to a large amount of grain that is yet unharvested, and would seriously interfere with threshing, and the gathering of the hop crop.

WHO SHALL BE QUEEN?

STANDARD.

There has been a good deal of criticism going on in private circles regarding the present method of voting for a queen to preside at the coming souvenir entertainment in this city. Ever since the inception of the "Queen of the May," all such elections have been conducted on the principle of personal regard, esteem and friendship.

In the rural districts of England, where dancing is done, the queen of the May is not yet an old-fashioned goddess of liberty for the Fourth of July is chosen from promptings of friendship and tender regard, pure and simple. Pecuniary, or filthy considerations, in such cases, would be revolting to every noble instinct of humanity.

Now rightly construed, the plan being pursued for securing a queen to preside at the proposed souvenir entertainment, involves the motive power of dollars and cents. The queen is to be bought and paid for and not chosen. To speak in broader terms, it is within the bounds of possibility for the most ill-deserving of the contrary, who is the queen of a brilliant fete day, provided only that she has cash enough to pay hired agents for polling the requisite number of votes since everybody can vote as often as he pleases by simply paying a nickel for the privilege, and when the votes are counted everybody will know that nobody knows anything about who threw away the most nickels in ballots or for what candidate he or she voted, or it is just possible for the contrary, who is the queen of a brilliant fete day, provided only that she has cash enough to pay hired agents for polling the requisite number of votes since everybody can vote as often as he pleases by simply paying a nickel for the privilege, and
